TUESDAY, JULY 5, 1910.

Whitehall, July 5, 1910.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at St. James's Palace on Wednesday, the 22nd June :—

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD.

To His Most Excellent Majesty King George the Fifth on the death of His Royal Father, King Edward the Seventh, and of Congratulation on His Accession to the Throne.

We, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, desire to approach Your Majesty, in this moment of national mourning, with the respectful assurance of our heartfelt sympathy. The death of Your Royal Father, deplored by the whole civilised world, is mourned especially, and with an enduring sense of personal bereavement, by the University of Oxford, which was permitted to assist in His late Majesty's education, from which He consented to receive the Degree of a Doctor of Civil Law, and which on more than one occasion He deigned to honour with especial marks of His confidence. We request You to believe that nowhere was His devotion to the onerous tasks of Royalty more admired, nowhere His great and memorable services to the cause of peace more adequately and intelligently realized : that none among the subjects whom He ruled are more profoundly conscious of the deprivation which the country and the Empire have sustained : and that none more fervently hope that universal sympathy may bring some comfort to You and to Your beloved Mother in the hour of this great affliction.

But we have another and happier task to perform. We offer to You, Sire, Who are now raised to a Throne which was never more honoured than it is to-day, our best wishes for a long and prosperous reign, and all the felicitations which are due to the new Ruler of a vast and united Empire : and we venture to express our confidence in the continuance of that sagacious and beneficent control of affairs which has for so long characterized the wearers of the British Crown. Fortified by the tradition of two great reigns, during which the extension of popular liberty has not been more remarkable than the growth of attachment to the monarchical principle, You will (we are convinced) be guided by the example of Your Father and His venerated predecessor in addressing Yourself to the high calling of sovereignty. Receive, Sire, our assurance that the ties which have so long linked us to Your Royal House will remain unbroken : and that if loyalty can help to lighten the task of safeguarding the Constitution and the Dependencies of Great Britain, no part of Your dominions will be more forward to aid than the most ancient of Your Universities.

Given in our House of Convocation on the eighth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I receive this loyal and dutiful Address with feelings of the deepest satisfaction.

"I know that the death of My beloved Father will nowhere have awakened a keener sense of personal loss than in the ancient and glorious University of Oxford, towards which He always bore a true affection, cherished in His heart from the days of His youth.

"It consoles Me in My grief to know that King Edward's labours as Ruler of this Empire and Peacemaker amongst Nations meet with so full a measure of your appreciation and gratitude.

"Your assurances of enduring loyalty and loving confidence strengthen Me in the duties and responsibilities to which I have succeeded, and I thank you for your wishes that My reign may be long and prosperous. It is My desire to follow the example of My Father and of Queen Victoria in sustaining and in fortifying those seats of learning on whose prosperity and influence the character and repute of our civilization largely depend. Among them the University of Oxford, with its world-famous traditions of steadfastness and loyalty will ever hold an honoured place."

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly approach Your Royal Throne to express the sympathy which, in common with all the people of Your dominions, we feel towards Your Majesty in the bereavement which has befallen You. We have been graciously permitted to know that the ties which bound Your Majesty to Your Royal Father were more than ordinarily close, and while this knowledge gives Your subjects reason for deep thankfulness, it also enables them in some degree to measure the greatness of Your personal loss.

His Majesty King Edward VII will live in the grateful memory of this country and of mankind as one Who promoted the cause of peace and of mutual goodwill with unwearied patience and with marked success. He was beloved wherever He went for His unaffected charm of manner and for His thoughtful kindness. No man was ever more sensitive to the feelings of others, or more skilful in adapting His action and His words to the occasion. It was impossible to doubt His singleness of mind, or to suspect Him of any desire or motive which He could not avow. Such qualities as these made Him in international matters the best of diplomatists. We believe it to be true to say that no man possessed to the same extent the confidence of mankind. Whether in foreign or in domestic affairs, whenever it was believed that the King had taken a question in hand, men felt sure that it would be brought to a right issue, if insight and sagacity and benevolence could effect anything. His care for the welfare of His subjects, especially of the unfortunate, the sick, the suffering, the ill housed, the ill paid, endeared Him to all classes of the people. At the same time they were glad to feel that He could find pleasure in the things which gave them pleasure.

Besides the grief which we share with Your Majesty's subjects in general, our University has peculiar cause to deplore the death of the late King. We remember with pride that King Edward VII was a Cambridge man. He visited Cambridge frequently. To the end of His life He continued to show us marks of His special favour. One of His latest acts was to renew to the University the loan of some of the most precious treasures of art contained in Your Majesty's historic Castle of Windsor.

While we venture thus to express our sense of loss, we beg Your Majesty graciously to accept the assurance of our loyal rejoicing at Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne. Your Majesty has already long filled a great place in the observation of those who are now Your subjects, and they have learned by experience to expect of You an unstinted devotion to the duties of Your exalted position, such as was shown by Your Majesty's revered Grandmother and by our late gracious Sovereign. We pray that Your Majesty may be long spared to reign over us in happiness and peace, and that the blessing of Almighty God may rest abundantly upon You and upon Your august Consort both in public and in private life, and upon Your Royal Children, that they may be the inheritors of Your high principles as well as of Your great station.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I am grateful for the loyal and dutiful Address of Condolence from the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge which you have presented to Me, and I desire to assure you that your expressions of sympathy are of consolation to Me in the sorrow which has fallen upon Me and My House. The grief that I feel for the loss of My beloved Father is mitigated by the thought that others feel with Me. I am moved by the appreciation which you show for My Father's character and for the aims by which His life was influenced. His wish was ever to do His duty and to guard and maintain the highest interests of His people.

"I thank you for your congratulations on My Accession to the Throne, and for your good wishes for the Queen and Myself. It is My resolve, by the help of Almighty God, to continue the work in which My Father laboured, and to tread His path. Your famous University may count upon My sincere good will: and, like King Edward, I shall watch its progress and expansion with lively interest. I am convinced that you will not fail in the responsibilities with which you are charged, and that zeal for truth, love of learning, and a high ideal of character and conduct will ever be cherished and fostered in your midst. I pray that the blessing of God may attend your labours."

GENERAL BODY OF PROTESTANT DISSENTING MINISTERS OF THE THREE DENOMINATIONS (PRESBYTERIAN, INDEPENDENT AND BAPTIST).

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the General Body of Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations, together with the "Dissenting Deputies" representing also the Presbyterian, Independent and Baptist congregations, in and about the cities of London and Westminster, approach Your Royal Presence to offer our congratulations on Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and to express our unabated loyalty to Your ancient and illustrious House.

We share the sorrow which the death of Your Majesty's beloved Father has brought to all classes of Your Majesty's subjects. We realise that in Him our Empire had a Monarch who was the Friend of all. His thoughtful kindness, great liberality of feeling and largeness of heart, filled us with deep and personal affection for Him. We recognise that His unceasing labours on behalf of the peace of the world and the brotherhood of nations, have, in God's Providence, brought about a completer unity of the Great Powers.

We recall with gratitude the words of His late Majesty, in response to an address from our Body nine years ago, when He stated, "It will ever be My desire to preserve to all My subjects liberty of conscience and equal justice." We do not doubt that Your Majesty will manifest the same large-mindedness.

We desire to assure Your Majesty of our earnest and continuous prayers for Your Majesty's support and guidance in the discharge of the many and difficult duties inseparable from Your august office. We pray that God may richly endow Your Majesty with Heavenly wisdom and grace; and that, for many years, You may have much felicity in reigning over a united and prosperous people. We trust that the spirit of peace and goodwill may increasingly prevail within Your Majesty's Dominions and among all the nations of the world: and that, through You, God may bestow manifold blessings upon our world-wide Empire.

It is our earnest prayer that to Your Majesty's much-loved Consort, Queen Mary, there may also be granted a long life of ever-increasing happiness: and that, by Her many gracious ministries of beneficence, the Palace and the Cottage may continually advance in mutual sympathy and affection.

Finally, we pray that when this life, with its joys and sorrows, has passed, there may be granted to Your Majesty and our beloved Queen, the fulness of Heavenly bliss, through the infinite mercy of our adorable Redeemer.

Chairman.
FREDERICK W. NEWLAND,	} Of the Dissenting Deputies.
Secretary.
JOHN MASSIE,	} Of the Dissenting Deputies.
Chairman.
ALFRED J. SHEPHEARD,	} Of the Dissenting Deputies.
Secretary.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"In behalf of the Queen and Myself, I thank you most cordially for your loyal and dutiful Address on the death of My beloved Father. I am deeply touched by your affectionate appreciation of His character, and by your recognition of His sincere desire to promote the happiness of His subjects and to preserve peace amongst the Nations. Adopting as My own His words which you have quoted, I assure you that it will ever be My desire to preserve to all My subjects liberty of conscience and equal justice. It is My earnest prayer that in this and other ways I may, with God's help, follow in King Edward's footsteps, and that, as the years pass, My People may prosper in wealth and happiness, that they may be confirmed in their love of freedom and justice, in strength of character, and in devotion to those exalted moral and spiritual conceptions which are set before them in the teaching of your Churches.

"I join with the Queen in thanking you for the good wishes you express, and for the prayers you offer on Our behalf."

PROTESTANT DISSENTING MINISTERS OF PRESBYTERIAN DENOMINATION IN AND ABOUT THE CITIES OF LONDON AND WESTMINSTER.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Body of English Presbyterian Ministers in and about the cities of London and Westminster, in the exercise of an ancient and much cherished privilege, desire respectfully to approach Your Majesty with the assurance of our deepest sympathy in the grief caused by the sudden death of Your Majesty's beloved Father, our late Sovereign, King Edward the Seventh.

Your sorrow is shared not only by every order and class throughout the kingdom, but, as has been so impressively manifested, by the whole civilized world. The same sympathy, which our departed Sovereign so conspicuously and so constantly displayed in the troubles of His people, now flows back to Your Majesty and every Member of the Royal House in this season of bereavement. We earnestly pray that amid the shadows of sorrow in Your home the Light which not of earth is born may give comfort and peace.

The sense of loss so widely felt is a measure of the blessings we enjoyed during the reign of His late Majesty. We recall with sincere gratitude the noble way in which He fulfilled the determination expressed to His first Council "to be a constitutional Sovereign in the strictest sense of the word, and as long as there is breath in My body to work for the good and amelioration of My people." Each year, as it has passed, has witnessed the devotion and success with which this truly Royal aim has been pursued. We are especially thankful that in such rich measure He won the blessing pronounced on the Peacemakers, and we rejoice to believe that through the influence He exercised and the confidence felt in His high character the cause of good-will among the nations has been advanced.

We desire to assure Your Majesty of our loyal and earnest wishes on Your Accession to the Throne, and we look forward with great hope under Your Majesty's sway to the continued progress of the Empire in all that makes for the true greatness of nations. Already Your Majesty and Your gracious Consort, Queen Mary, are endeared, through Your generous labours and sympathies, to a peculiarly domestic people. You have also enjoyed unique opportunities for becoming acquainted with Your dominions beyond the seas, and for thus drawing together by the bonds of a common allegiance and kindred memories widely scattered peoples. That, under the Divine blessing, Your Majesties may together long be spared to see Your family growing up in honour, and to enjoy the devoted attachment of a happy and loyal people is our most earnest prayer.

FRANCIS HENRY JONES, Chairman.
JAMES HARWOOD,
FRANK K. FREESTON,
Secretaries.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful Address, and I am deeply touched by the words in which you have given expression to your sympathy on the occasion of My beloved Father's death, and have testified to the grief which His loss has universally awakened.

"Your appreciation of the way in which He did His duty for the good of His people, and the cause of Peace among nations, brings Me a measure of consolation and encouragement in this time of sorrow. It is My earnest desire, with God's help, to labour for the unity, peace, and prosperity of My Empire, to promote its moral interests, and to maintain the civil and religious liberty which is the basis of progress and of spiritual vitality."

SOCIETY OF FRIENDS.

To George the Fifth, King of Great Britain and Ireland and the Dominions thereto belonging beyond the Seas, and Emperor of India.

May it please the King,

We, the members of the Religious Society of Friends in Great Britain, assembled in our Yearly Meeting along with representatives from our brethren in Ireland, desire to express on Thy Accession to the Throne, our loyal attachment to Thy person and family.

In common with our fellow countrymen our hearts are filled with sorrow for the death of Thy beloved Father, and we venture to express our deep sympathy with those who are most nearly touched by this bereavement, and especially with Thyself, called upon to assume the heavy burden of Empire at the very moment of losing Thy strongest and wisest earthly counsellor.

We hailed with joy the late King's successful efforts on behalf of international peace, and we feel confident that those efforts will not be relaxed by His successor. We rejoice to think of the exceptional opportunities which Thou hast had for becoming personally acquainted with the widely scattered members of Thy vast Empire, and we have welcomed Thy appeal for sympathy towards the multitudes of other racess than our own, for whose welfare our country has made herself responsible.

In the salutation which we thus offer, we desire most heartily to associate the gracious Partner of Thy Throne. Feeling as we do that family life is the very corner stone of our political and social system on the stability of which all else depends, we rejoice exceedingly that Thy subjects of every clime looking towards the palace of their King, will see there an example such as they in their hearts know to be most worthy of imitation : husband and wife, parents and children knit together by the indissoluble bonds of family love.

Thou hast in Thy boyhood led a sailor's life, and often faced the perils of the deep. And now Thou art called by God to take the helm of this mighty Empire. May He give Thee and Thy advisers grace and wisdom to choose the right course, it may be through stormy seas, or through the greater perils of blinding mist and uncharted oceans. And when at last—may it be long years hence—He calls Thee to quit the helm and to render up Thy awful charge, may it be to enter into that glorious haven of rest which remaineth for the people of God.

Signed, on behalf and by direction of the Yearly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends in Great Britain,

HENRY LLOYD WILSON,
Clerk.

25th May, 1910.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I thank you most sincerely on behalf of the Queen and Myself for this assurance of your loyal attachment to My person and Family, and for your condolences on the lamented death of My beloved Father.

"I welcome your recognition of King Edward's efforts to spread those principles of Peace and Good-will which you especially cherish, and I know that I may count on the steadfast support of the Society of Friends in carrying on His labours for the establishment of friendship and mutual sympathy among the peoples of the Empire and the Nations of the World.

"I echo with all My heart your prayer that God may ever guide Myself and My advisers in grace and wisdom through the difficulties and perils of Our course."

UNIVERSITY OF DUBLIN.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Chancellor, Doctors, and Masters of the University of Dublin, desire, on the occasion of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of this Kingdom and Empire, to approach Your Majesty with respectful congratulations and assurances of our lively and unswerving loyalty and attachment to the Monarchy and Empire to which Your Majesty has now succeeded.

We desire also to express our deep sympathy with Your Majesty and Your whole Royal House in the grievous loss which has been sustained by the death of Your Majesty's Illustrious Father, King Edward the Seventh—a loss which has been felt and recognised everywhere not only by the subjects of the British Empire, but by the whole vast community of the Nations of the civilized World.

We are vividly mindful in this our University of the interest which King Edward showed in our work and aims, and of the recognition which He graciously signified on more than one occasion of our constant and, we are bold to think, not unsuccessful endeavours, in accordance with the trust committed to us by our Royal Foundress, Queen Elizabeth, to instruct the youth of Ireland in the lessons of religion, learning, and true patriotism.

We entertain the hope that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, as our Monarch, to show a like kindly interest in our welfare; and we venture to express our earnest desire that, when Your Majesty again visits Ireland, we may be allowed to enjoy the honour and privilege of welcoming Your Majesty to this University, and of repeating our assurances of sincere and steadfast loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne and Person. We trust that on that occasion Your Majesty may be accompanied by our gracious Queen Mary, to whom we offer the tribute of our respect and devotion.

LYEAGH, Chancellor.
ANTHONY TRAILL, Provost.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your sympathy in Our great sorrow, and for your assurance that there is no abatement in that spirit of loyalty which has always distinguished your ancient Foundation.

"King Edward was anxious to show, by those marks of affection and interest of which you speak, that He recognized to the full that you have never failed in the faithful execution of the great and honourable trust imposed upon you, and that you have sent forth many sons of Ireland to carry on their country's great traditions of strenuous service in every calling; your welfare will remain as dear to Me as to My beloved Father, and I shall watch with constant interest the progress of your work."

UNIVERSITY OF LONDON.

The dutiful Address of the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, and Senate of the University of London on behalf of the University.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign:

May it please Your Majesty;

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave to express to Your Majesty and to the Members of Your Royal House our heartfelt sympathy in the great loss sustained by Your Majesty and Royal House and by the Empire in the death of our beloved King, Edward VII.

We have to mourn in an especial degree the loss of His Majesty as Visitor of this University throughout His reign.

It is with gratitude we record that since His Accession this University has made notable progress in the extension of the facilities for higher education in the Metropolis and throughout Your Majesty's dominions, in the promotion of research, and in the advancement of science and learning.

It is our earnest prayer that Your Majesty—Whom we are proud to have enrolled as the earliest of our Honorary Graduates—may be blessed with a long and happy reign, and that the University may enjoy Your Majesty's protection in its efforts to execute the high duties with which it has been entrusted.

ROSEBERRY, Chancellor.

M. J. M. HILL, Vice-Chancellor.

EDWARD H. BUSK, Chairman of Convocation.

HENRY A. MIERS, Principal.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you for the loyal and dutiful Address of the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, and Senate of the University of London, expressing sympathy with Me in the deep affliction that has overtaken Me in the death of My beloved Father.

"King Edward watched with keen interest the continuing prosperity and progress of the London University. He understood how much the strength and reputation of Our country depended upon the moral and intellectual culture of her sons and daughters. He saw with pleasure the distinction and thoroughness with which the London University invested higher education in the capital.

"You may be assured that the fortunes of your University will ever be near My heart, and that I shall always take a lively interest in your welfare."

Whitehall, July 5, 1910.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at St. James's Palace on Wednesday, the 22nd June:—

DEAN AND CANONS OF ST. GEORGE'S CHAPEL, WINDSOR.

To His Most Excellent Majesty, King George V.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's most loyal and devoted servants, the Dean and Canons of Your Free Chapel of St. George within Your Castle of Windsor, present our humble duty, and beg permission to offer to Your Majesty our respectful and most sincere condolence on the lamented death of Your Majesty's greatly honoured and beloved Father, our late most gracious Sovereign, King Edward. Your Majesty's sorrow at this time must have been greatly alleviated by the testimonies of affectionate regard for the late King, which have come from all parts of the Empire, and indeed from the whole civilized world. And we who have the privilege of residence within Your Royal Castle of Windsor especially mourn the loss of a Sovereign Who, during His short reign, honoured us with His gracious confidence—and paid such public regard to the Christian Faith—and so steadfastly maintained and strengthened our Anglican branch of the Catholic Church.

At the same time, we venture to present our dutiful homage and our respectful congratulations to Your Majesty on Your Accession to the Throne of Your ancestors. It will be our privilege, as it is our duty, in our daily ministrations within Your Chapel of St. George, as well as at other times, to offer our fervent prayers to Almighty God, that it may please Him to grant to Your Majesty a long and prosperous reign over the great Empire committed to Your charge, and that You may ever be blessed and supported by the true allegiance and hearty affection of all Your subjects, and that, as by the constant efforts of Your Royal Father, so by Your following in His footsteps, the peace of all nations may be promoted, and that by Your high example and gracious encouragement true religion and virtue may, during Your reign, increase and abound to the glory of God and the happiness of Your people.

That God may ever guide, support and bless Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort in the discharge of Your vast responsibilities will ever be our unfailing and fervent prayer.

In witness whereof, we, the said Dean and Canons, have hereunto put our Common Seal, the eighth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I most gratefully accept the loyal Address of Condolence which you have presented, and thank you for the sympathy which you express with Me in My sorrow for the loss of My beloved Father. King Edward dwelt long and often in your midst, and you had intimate opportunities of learning the nobility of His character.

"I thank you also most heartily for your congratulations on My Accession to the Throne, and for your expressions of devotion to the Queen and Myself.

"It is My earnest desire that I may follow in My Father's footsteps; and by the help of God may be enabled to promote trust and tranquillity among the nations, to sustain a spirit of true religion, and to widen the opportunities and to fortify the welfare of My people."

LONDON COMMITTEE OF DEPUTIES OF THE BRITISH JEWS AND THE ANGLO-JEWISH

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

The Jews of the United Kingdom and of the whole Empire, in common with Your Majesty's other subjects, are overwhelmed at the great calamity which has deprived the nation of its Sovereign and plunged the whole civilized world into mourning. We feel that in the death of His late Majesty the country has lost a Sovereign whose inestimable personal qualities and whose wisdom and devotion to His people had not only endeared Him to His subjects, but had commanded respect and affection in every part of the world.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty's grief may be tempered by the knowledge that His late Majesty has left in the hearts of His people an undying memory and sense of gratitude.

We humbly crave leave to tender to Your Majesty our respectful congratulations on Your Accession to the Throne and to assure Your Majesty that the devotion and loyalty of Your Jewish subjects will ever continue unabated. We ardently pray that the Almighty may shower blessings and happiness upon Your Majesty and Your illustrious Queen Consort, and that You may long be spared to reign in peace over a prosperous and contented people.

DAVID L. ALEXANDER, President of the London Committee of Deputies of the British Jews.

CLAUDE G. MONTEFIORE, President of the Anglo-Jewish Association.

London, 18th May, 1910.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"It gives Me sincere satisfaction to receive the dutiful Address of two such important and beneficent Bodies, and to know that these loyal sentiments are expressed on behalf of My Jewish subjects throughout the Empire.

"I derive not a little consolation from your sympathy in My bereavement and from your testimony that My beloved Father's constant solicitude for the welfare of every class and community within His dominions during His life has attached the enduring gratitude of His people to His memory.

"On behalf of the Queen and Myself I thank you for your good wishes and for the assurance of your unswerving devotion to the Throne."

Whitehall, July 5, 1910.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, humbly crave leave to approach the Throne and express to Your Majesty our most profound feelings of regret at the lamented demise of our late much-beloved Sovereign King Edward the Seventh.

It is our duty and earnest desire at the same time to approach Your Majesty with expressions of our most sincere congratulation on Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne and to assure Your Majesty of our constant loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Person. We hail with the highest satisfaction the Accession of a Prince Whose wide knowledge of the Empire cannot fail to be of inestimable benefit to His subjects and Who has shown His desire to support the constitution and the liberty of the subject; and we humbly pray that the Almighty may bless Your Majesty together with Her most gracious Majesty the Queen Consort with all earthly happiness and the loyalty and affection of a prosperous and contented people.

By order of the Court,

CHARLES F. MONCKTON, Clerk.

The humble Address of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, humbly approach Your Royal Person with our condolence for the great loss which Your Majesty and the nation have suffered from the demise of our late good and gracious Sovereign.

Yet while we express these feelings, it is our consolation to reflect that, by the blessing of God, the public welfare is still protected, and the Throne of these Dominions stands secure, through a legal and a cherished succession.

We beg to congratulate Your Majesty on Your Succession to a Throne which through the virtue and wisdom of Your beloved Father stands more than ever secure in the affections of the people; and we pray that Your Majesty (together with Your Royal and excellent Consort) may long continue to hold it, and to maintain those principles in Church and State which have always been its best and surest support.

Dated in our Chapter House at Westminster, this eleventh day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

J. ARMITAGE ROBINSON, Dean.

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH OF GREAT BRITAIN.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

The Committee of Privileges, appointed by and representing the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Great Britain, begs most respectfully to represent to Your Majesty its profound sense of the loss which has been sustained not only by Your Majesty and the Queen Consort, the Queen Mother and the Royal Family, but also by the whole British Nation and Empire in the death of His Majesty King Edward VII.

The Committee desires on behalf of the Wesleyan Methodist Church to express profound thankfulness to Almighty God for the gifts which He bestowed on the late King, and for the grace which enabled His Majesty to fulfil the onerous duties of His exalted station with rare devotion and enduring advantage to the Empire.

The Committee would especially recall the tender sympathy ever manifested with the poor and the afflicted, and the priceless service in the cause of international peace and goodwill which gave His Majesty a foremost place among the Leaders and Benefactors of the world.

The Committee would further assure Your Majesty of the affectionate loyalty of the Methodist people to the Throne and Person of Your Majesty, and of their fervent prayers to Almighty God that He will grant to Your Majesty comfort in the present sorrow, and all needful strength and guidance in the fulfilment of the duties of the illustrious position to which He has been pleased to call Your Majesty.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF EVANGELICAL FREE CHURCHES OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's faithful subjects, the members of the National Council of the Evangelical Free Churches of England and Wales, approach Your Majesty, on Your Accession to the Throne, with our deep sympathy in Your bereavement and with the assurance of our personal affection and of our loyalty to the Crown. We pray that Your Majesty's reign may be as illustrious as that of Your late Father, King Edward VII, and that the great objects for which the Council exists, the development of the moral and spiritual interests of the community, may find still more extended opportunities during Your Sovereignty.

In our good wishes and prayers we shall ever associate Your beloved Consort, the Queen Mary.

On behalf of the National Council, Your Majesty's obedient and humble servants,

J. H. JOWETT, President.

Memorial Hall, London, E.C.

DE L'ÉGLISE WALLONNE HUGUENOTE ÉVANGÉLIQUE FRANÇAISE. Fondée en 1547. Établie par Charte Royale d'Edouard VI, le 24 Juillet, 1550.

To the King George V. Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Consistory, the Church of the Huguenots, worshipping in the Crypt of the Cathedral during the reign of Edward VI, and during and since the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth of blessed memory, desire with the most profound loyalty and respect to approach Your Royal presence, in the season of Your sorrow, to tender to Your Majesty the expression of our deep sympathy and sincere condolence under the recent and severe bereavement with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit You and Your Royal House, in common with the subjects of Your Majesty's wide dominions. We mourn over a dispensation which has removed from our midst Your Father, our most beloved King, most highly distinguished by His talents and deservedly beloved because of His many excellent qualities.

Fully conscious that human sympathy is insufficient to sustain Your heavy spirit in the day when the afflicting hand of the Lord is stretched forth, we cease not to make mention of You in our private and public prayers that the Father of all mercies, and the God of all grace, and all consolation, may bind up Your broken heart, strengthen You for the discharge of Your duties, bless You with length of days, and enrich Your Family with all grace, and that at last You and They may enter that Kingdom and obtain that Crown which shall never fade away.

On Sunday, May 22nd, a special In Memoriam Service for His late Majesty Edward VII of cherished and blessed memory was held in the French Huguenot Church, Crypt of the Cathedral, and, according to ancient custom, the oath of allegiance (Serment de fidélité prêté) to Your Most Excellent Majesty before God, the pastor with uplifted hands making the solemn declaration to which the people responded by a three-fold Amen, Amen, Amen.

GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George V., King of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, &c.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Minister and Congregation of the German Lutheran Church of St. Mary-le-Savoy—founded 1694 in the Savoy Palace—London.

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Minister and Congregation of the German Lutheran Church of St. Mary-le-Savoy, beg leave most humbly to approach Your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

Truly sensible of the invaluable advantages and blessings which we enjoy under the protection of the British Crown, we most cordially join all classes of our British fellow subjects in the sentiments of warmest attachment to Your Majesty and to Your Royal House.

We sincerely sympathise in the grief of Your Majesty and of the whole British nation at the demise of our late venerable Monarch, Whose memory we shall ever cherish with profound esteem and gratitude for the interest He has shown to our Church.

This gracious interest of the Royal House in our Church, first shown by His Majesty King William III, who established it in the Savoy Palace in 1694, was maintained by all His Successors of the House of Hanover, Members of which made use of the Royal pew of the Church in former times and contributed to the upkeep of the same. Queen Caroline, the Consort of King George II, first built our school in 1724. The Kings George I, II, III, granted us Royal Warrants. When the Church was pulled down with the Savoy Palace at the Thames Embankment in 1877 Queen Victoria, Your Majesty's illustrious Grandmother, graciously rebuilt Church and School at the present place on Crown lands near Fitzroy-square, W., renewing at the same time the Royal Warrants for Herself and Her Successors. His late lamented Majesty, Your Majesty's august Father, manifested His kindly thoughts towards us as late as June, 1908, when He on the occasion of the 200th anniversary of our School graciously sent us His Royal wishes with a donation for the rebuilding of same.

Your Majesty's revered ancestors having manifested Their special favour and graciousness towards us, we make bold to hope and pray that Your Majesty may also continue Your Royal favour to ourselves.

It is our ardent wish and devout prayer that it may please the Almighty to grant to Your gracious Majesty a long and prosperous reign and to bestow upon Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, our revered and most gracious Queen, every temporal and spiritual blessing.

May it please Your Majesty to accept the most humble assurances of our grateful veneration and constant loyalty to your Majesty and the Royal House, for whose graciousness we and the Congregation of our old Lutheran Church of the Savoy shall ever feel the most profound gratitude.

DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble and dutiful Address of the Dutch (Reformed) Church in the City of London.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, the Minister, Elders and Deacons of the Dutch (Reformed) Church in the City of London, established in the year 1550 by Royal Charter of His late gracious Majesty King Edward VI of glorious memory, most humbly beg to approach Your Royal Presence to express our deep and sincere sympathy with Your Majesty in the great loss which Your Majesty and the Queen Consort have, in common with the nation, sustained in the death of the late much-beloved and lamented King Edward VII, whose manifold virtues and beneficent reign have secured for His memory the lasting gratitude of the people of these realms.

But while we condole with Your Majesty on the demise of the late much-revered Sovereign we humbly beg to offer our heartfelt congratulations upon Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of this mighty Empire, and most unfeignedly to assure Your Majesty of our cordial participation in that strong and universal feeling of dutiful and affectionate attachment to Your Royal Person which prevails amongst all Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects.

We further beg to assure Your Majesty that we shall continue to offer up our most fervent prayers to Almighty God that His protection and blessing may, in the richest measure, be granted to Your Majesty, and to Your Royal House, and that Your Majesty's reign may be a long and uninterrupted period of peace and prosperity and an abundant source of happiness and welfare both spiritual and temporal, to this great and enlightened nation.

We humbly trust that Your Majesty will deign to confirm and consolidate the Charter so liberally granted by King Edward VI and confidently solicit the continuance of that gracious and powerful protection which our Church has enjoyed for a period of over three centuries and a half during the successive reigns of Your Majesty's illustrious predecessors.

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty
George V.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Court of Governors, Professors and Lecturers, Officers, Graduates and Students of the Victoria University of Manchester, all of us, Your faithful subjects, desire to approach Your Majesty with a loyal and dutiful Address.

We tender our profound and respectful sympathy on the deep sorrow that has fallen on Your Majesty, on Her Majesty the Queen, Her Majesty the Queen Mother, and the other Members of the Royal Family, and on all Your subjects by the lamented death of our late beloved Sovereign King Edward VII.

We beg to submit to Your Majesty our homage on Your Accession to the Throne and to offer the expression of our sincere devotion to Her most gracious Majesty Queen Mary.

With special gratitude we recall the Foundation of our University by the Charter granted by Queen Victoria, who allowed Her revered name to be associated with it, and also its reconstitution under the present Charter granted by King Edward VII.

We remember with pride and gratification the visit of Your Majesty when Prince of Wales to open our Whitworth Hall and the inspiring words addressed to us on that occasion which will ever be memorable in the history of our University.

The gracious reception by Your illustrious Father, King Edward, of the humble Address presented by our University on His visit to Manchester last year and His commendation of the cause of learning and research united to practical benevolence will never be forgotten by us. Gratefully acknowledging the sympathetic interest shown by Him in Science, in the Arts, in Education and in whatever tended to ameliorate suffering and to promote the welfare of all classes of His people as well as His labours in consolidating the unity of the Empire and in promoting peace and goodwill amongst the nations, we look forward with confidence to the same great work being continued and developed in the coming years of Your Majesty's reign.

We beg, on behalf of the whole University, to express our loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and we earnestly pray that Your Majesty may be long spared in health and happiness to rule over Your mighty dominions in stable peace and ever increasing prosperity.

UNIVERSITY OF WALES.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty graciously to receive from the University of Wales an expression of its profound grief at the death of His late Majesty King Edward, Protector of the University of Wales. The University not only shares the national sorrow at the death of so great, so wise, so good a King; it deplores the loss also of a Sovereign to whom it was bound by an especial tie of loyal devotion and gratitude, of one whom it had reason to regard as its Protector in deed as well as in name.

The University humbly begs Your Majesty, who as Prince of Wales and in the office of Chancellor of the University continued to extend to the University the favour and guidance initiated by Your illustrious Predecessor, to accept an assurance of the deep and respectful sympathy of the Members of the University with Your Majesty's personal sorrow.

The University begs Your Majesty equally to accept an assurance of its humble and loyal devotion and of its earnest and heartfelt wishes that Your Majesty's reign may be long, glorious and unclouded.

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Chancellor and Members of the University of Leeds, humbly beg leave to tender to Your Majesty an expression of our profound sorrow on the death of Your Majesty's august Father, the well-beloved King Edward VII, Whose beneficent influence was felt not only in the higher affairs of the State, but in all matters which concerned the well-being of His subjects; and Who in particular showed Himself an earnest patron of education in its numerous branches and rapidly extending spheres.

We further desire to tender to Your Majesty our sincere and loyal congratulations on the Accession to the Throne of one Who has shown His unceasing interest in whatever tends to the advancement of those over whom He has now been called by Providence to reign.

We bear in grateful memory the signal mark of favour which Your Majesty and Your gracious Consort Queen Mary, as Duke and Duchess of York, were pleased to show to the Yorkshire College (now the University of Leeds) in the year 1894 by visiting it for the purpose of opening the Hall and the Library and the new School of Medicine. Your Majesty on that occasion addressed us in an eloquent and inspiring speech which greatly encouraged us in our work and illustrated to us the high importance which Your Majesty, following in the steps of Your revered Father and of Your illustrious Grandfather, the Prince Consort, attaches to all movements which contribute to the advancement of learning and the promotion of research.

We offer to Your Majesty our dutiful homage, and pray that Your Majesty may long live to reign over a loyal and happy people, and that, with all other of the great interests which Your Majesty has at heart, education may flourish exceedingly under Your Majesty and may continue to shine as one of the brightest jewels in Your Majesty's Crown.

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of York, humbly submit to Your Majesty our loyal and respectful congratulations on Your Accession to the Throne of this realm.

We assure Your Majesty of our continued loyalty to the Throne, and have read with lively satisfaction the assurances of Your Majesty to follow in the footsteps of our late beloved and revered King Edward VII, whose untiring exertions to promote the well-being of His people and the furtherance of peace in all parts of the world will long live in our memory, and in the memory of the people of Your Majesty's wide dominions; and we pray God to grant Your Majesty and Your beloved Consort, Queen Mary, long life, peace, and happiness in the fulfilment of the duties attaching to Your Majesty's exalted position, to which it has pleased God to call you.

CITY OF MANCHESTER.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your faithful subjects, The Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Manchester, desire to approach Your Majesty with a dutiful and loyal Address upon the lamented decease of His most gracious Majesty, King Edward the Seventh, and on the Accession of Your Majesty to the Throne.

The sudden death of King Edward the Seventh has plunged His subjects in the deepest grief and distress.

For many years before ascending the Throne His late Majesty took a conspicuous part in the public affairs and life of the Nation and visited Manchester on several occasions prior to His Accession to the Throne and as King in the years 1905 and 1909.

The bright expectations entertained when the late King came to the Throne in the year 1901 have been fully realised and indeed exceeded by the splendour of His Majesty's reign and the Royal virtues and qualities displayed by His Majesty Who always had at heart the welfare of the people and made unsparing efforts for the improvement of their condition.

In the wider domain of foreign affairs His late Majesty nobly earned the unique designation of "Peacemaker" and has left a memory which will long be cherished both at home and abroad.

We desire to be permitted to include in this Address our expressions of respectful sympathy and condolence with Her Majesty Queen Alexandra and all Members of the Royal Family.

We also desire to submit our dutiful and loyal homage to Your Majesty upon ascending the Throne as King George the Fifth. We gratefully remember Your Majesty's visits to this City and have read Your Majesty's wise and weighty words on many public occasions.

We fervently pray that Your Majesty's reign may be a blessing to the nation.

We desire to associate in our expressions of loyalty and regard Her most gracious Majesty the Queen Consort, and trust that Divine Providence may vouchsafe to Your Majesties many years of health and happiness in which to fulfil the responsibilities of Your exalted station.

Given under our Common Seal this eleventh day of May, 1910.

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Leeds in Council assembled, humbly and respectfully wish to offer our most loyal and heartfelt congratulations upon the occasion of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Islands and of Your Majesty's Dominions beyond the Sea.

Whilst we look back with gratitude upon the service Your Majesty has rendered to the country in the past and upon Your Majesty's readiness to further all matters appertaining to the well-being of Your Majesty's subjects we rejoice to hear that it is Your Majesty's gracious intention to follow in the footsteps of Your illustrious Father of revered memory, and we trust and pray that Your Majesty may long be spared to reign over Your Majesty's loyal and devoted subjects and that every earthly honour and happiness may be granted to Your Majesty.

It is also our earnest hope that Your Majesty's Royal Consort, our gracious Queen Mary, may be granted health and strength to share Your Majesty's honour and happiness.

CITY OF BELFAST.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Belfast.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Belfast, humbly approach the Throne with feelings of profound sorrow and respectful sympathy, on the death of His late Majesty King Edward VII, to express our loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Government, and to pay homage to Her gracious Majesty Queen Mary.

We rejoice that Your Majesty has succeeded to the Throne from which our late beloved Sovereign has been called by Almighty Providence. We feel assured that Your Majesty will reign in the hearts of Your people, and that the destinies of this great Empire are safe in Your Majesty's keeping.

We have the happiest recollections of the visit which Your Majesty and Your beloved Consort made to our city in the autumn of 1897. We then expressed the hope that before long a Royal residence would be established in Ireland, and we now venture to repeat that expression, and to assure Your Majesty that the people of Ireland would hail with delight such an intimation of Your Majesty's goodwill.

Since Your Majesty's visit the City of Belfast has continued to prosper, and her people to be loyal, law abiding, and industrious. Her municipal administration has kept pace with legislation, and to-day Belfast takes her place with the cities of first importance in Your Majesty's United Kingdom.

We earnestly pray that Your Majesty, and Your gracious and illustrious Consort, may be long spared to reign over a loyal, united, and contented people, and that the blessing of the Almighty may be with You.

CITY OF EXETER.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, Your Majesty's most devoted and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of this ancient and loyal city of Exeter in Council assembled, humbly beg to offer to Your Majesty our heartfelt sympathy and condolence on the death of Your beloved and illustrious Father, His most gracious Majesty, King Edward the Seventh.

We share, in common with all Your Majesty's subjects, the profound sorrow and the realisation of the great loss which Your Majesty and the Empire at large have suffered in the death of our beloved King.

His wise and beneficent rule and His untiring and successful labours in the promotion of international peace and goodwill gained for Him the esteem and admiration of all the nations of the world, while His memory will ever remain endeared to His people by His inspiring example of devotion to duty, and His ready sympathy with them in all their joys and sorrows.

It is our fervent prayer that the grief of Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort in this hour of Your affliction may be relieved by the mercy of Almighty God, and the loyal love and sympathy of Your people.

We humbly desire also to present our loyal congratulations upon your Accession to the Throne of this mighty Empire.

With these, our congratulations, is mingled a deep feeling of pride at the many conspicuous marks of favour which our ancient city has received at the hands of Your illustrious predecessors. We bear in grateful and proud remembrance also the associations of the visits of Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort to this city, and in particular the visit for the opening of the extension of the Royal Albert Memorial, erected to the memory of Your august Grandfather, the late Prince Consort.

We cherish as an inspiration the thought of the conspicuous services rendered of old by this city to Crown and country, and we take this occasion to assure Your Majesty of our continued loyalty to the Throne, and our devotion to Your Royal Person.

We pray that the blessing of God may rest upon Your Majesty, and that it may be reserved for You under His divine guidance to rule for many years over a peaceful and contented Empire.

We feel that the vigorous and manly courage, and the lofty sense of duty which actuated Your illustrious Father will be a source of inspiration to Your Majesty in the new duties and responsibilities which have devolved upon Your Majesty.

We look with a sure and steadfast hope to the Accession of Your Majesty to the Throne of these realms as the earnest of the continuance of the harmony and unity which bind together this Empire and of the welding together in peace and concord of the nations of the world, and we are assured in this hope when we reflect that Your Majesty is already enthroned in the hearts of Your people at home and in the vast and distant dominions beyond the seas.

As citizens of the City of Chester, the seat of the Earldom You held for a number of years and which You have honoured with Your presence on several occasions, we feel we have

The lustre of His Majesty's reign, the glory of His world-wide Empire, the constant self-denying devotion to the duties of His high station, His never tiring exertions for the maintenance of peace, both at home and abroad, and the love and affection which His Majesty had for and inspired in the countless numbers of His subjects will ever live in the hearts and memories of the present and future generations.

We also humbly tender to Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort our most hearty congratulations on Your Majesty's Accession and our earnest desire for a long and prosperous reign on the Throne of Your Majesty's ancestors. We also desire to assure Your Majesty of our devoted loyalty to Your Royal Person, and to the Throne and institutions of the British Empire.

and charges fleets of ships of war for the protection and preservation of the kingdom and its commerce. From time to time these services were duly appreciated and recognised in Royal Charters granting to the ports, ancient towns and members privileges, immunities and liberties, some of which we still enjoy.

We are deeply grateful for the many blessings we have received under the constitutional sway of His late Majesty, and we humbly and fervently pray to Almighty God that He will vouchsafe to Your Majesty and to Her Majesty the Queen a continuance of His especial protection and guidance and long preserve Your Majesties to reign in the hearts and affections of the loyal and happy subjects of the vast dominions who owe allegiance to Your Majesty.

BOROUGH OF SOUTHAMPTON.

To His Most Gracious Majesty King George the Fifth, by the Grace of God King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton, with all humble affection approach the Throne to offer to Your Majesty our deep and sincere condolence in the irreparable loss which Your Majesty and the nation have sustained in the death of our late revered Sovereign Lord, King Edward, of blessed and glorious memory, Who lived in the love and Who died amidst the unfeigned sorrows of His august Family and of His people.

The reverence with which His late beloved Majesty's memory is treasured throughout these realms and throughout the whole world is invested with a profound and touching pathos, and we humbly pray that Your Majesty and Your beloved Consort and the Queen Mother and all the Members of the Royal Family may be sustained in this time of supreme trial, and may be strengthened to bear Your great loss with fortitude and resignation.

We acknowledge with gratitude the manifold blessings granted by Divine Providence to this nation during the reign of our late lamented Monarch, Whose constant regard for the rights and liberties of His subjects and Whose thoughtful and untiring efforts for the promotion of the happiness and prosperity of all classes of His people have rendered His name the object of universal attachment and veneration.

With emotions of unalterable loyalty we now have the happiness to present to Your Majesty and to Queen Mary our hearty congratulations on Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

Educated as Your Majesty has been in those sound principles which characterised the Councils of Your Majesty's august Predecessors, under Whose dominion the kingdom has risen to a height of splendour and prosperity hitherto unattained and with the noble example to follow in the life and career of Your beloved Father, we feel the fullest confidence that Your Majesty's Throne is established upon the surest foundations, and that under Your Majesty's guidance our beloved country will continue to be adorned with every virtue that can exalt a nation.

And our fervent prayer is that Almighty God may grant continually unto Your Majesty and Your beloved Consort every temporal and spiritual blessing, and that Your Majesty may long reign over this Empire to His honour and glory and to the happiness and welfare of all Your Majesty's loving subjects.

BOROUGH OF DONCASTER.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George V, King of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, and Emperor of India.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the loyal Borough of Doncaster, in Council assembled, received with the most profound grief and deepest regret the sad announcement that our late illustrious and revered Sovereign,

Your beloved Father, had suddenly and unexpectedly been called to His rest.

The Council desires most humbly and dutifully, on behalf of the inhabitants of this ancient borough, who have on so many occasions had the great honour and valued privilege of welcoming our late Sovereign, to tender to Your Majesty, to Your illustrious Consort the Queen, to Your beloved Mother, and to the other Members of the Royal and Imperial Family, its deepest and most heartfelt condolence and sympathy in the irreparable loss which Your Majesty and the nation have sustained, and to express its earnest hope that You may receive strength and consolation in Your great bereavement.

His late Majesty, by His many virtues, kindly courtesy and self-sacrificing devotion to the welfare of this realm, has endeared Himself to the hearts of His subjects and to the people of all nations. We acknowledge with feelings of deep gratitude the glorious heritage of peace and contentment He has earned for this mighty Empire. By His wise and far-seeing influence His late Majesty did much to promote with many civilised nations of the world that spirit of friendship and goodwill which is the greatest safeguard against international differences and misunderstanding.

The Council also desires to offer its respectful and sincere congratulations upon Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, and to assure Your Majesty of the loyal and devoted attachment of the people of this borough to Your Crown and Person.

We devoutly trust that, by the grace of God, Your Majesty's reign may be long, prosperous, peaceful and happy, and it is our earnest prayer that Your Majesty may largely reap a Monarch's richest compensation—the affection, the gratitude and the blessings of a loyal, united and contented people.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Borough of Reading in Council assembled, humbly approach Your Majesty to offer our homage on the occasion of the demise of our late beloved Sovereign King Edward the Seventh and the Accession of Your Majesty to the Throne of these realms.

We desire to convey to Your Majesty the assurance of our deepest and most respectful sympathy in the bereavement which has afflicted Your Majesty's illustrious House and of our share in the profound and universal sorrow for the loss of a Sovereign so justly distinguished among the nations for His wisdom and powerful influence for universal peace and goodwill.

We can but hope that the knowledge of the love and reverence in which His late Majesty was held throughout the Empire and the tributes which have been paid to His illustrious memory

We humbly offer to Your Majesty our congratulations upon Your auspicious Accession to the Throne and our gratitude for the gracious declaration of Your Majesty's intention to uphold the Constitutional Government of these realms.

We are deeply sensible of the high distinction which Your Majesty bestowed upon Reading by the acceptance of the Office of High Steward of the Borough and of the warm interest which Your Majesty has ever evinced in our welfare.

BANK OF ENGLAND.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in General Court assembled, beg leave humbly to approach Your Majesty with an expression of our sincere condolence on the death of our late Sovereign, His Majesty King Edward the Seventh, Your Majesty's illustrious Father.

We mourn the loss of a Sovereign so suddenly taken from us, Whose noble conception and fulfilment of His Kingly Office, together with His gracious personality and His wide sympathy, assured to Him the unbounded and affectionate loyalty and gratitude of His subjects throughout the Empire, as also the high regard of the nations of the world; and thus secured that honourable peace and general prosperity which were ever the aim of His unceasing labours.

At the same time we beg leave to offer to Your Majesty our sincere congratulations upon Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne; confident that the happiness and prosperity of Your people will, in like manner, be the objects of Your Majesty's continual solicitude.

We pray that Your Majesty's reign may be a long and happy one, and that the blessing of God may rest upon Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, our gracious Queen Mary.

Sealed by Order of the Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England this 25th day of May, 1910, in pursuance of a Resolution of the General Court of Proprietors held on the 19th May, 1910.

THE BRITISH ACADEMY.

A loyal and dutiful Address of condolence to His Most Excellent Majesty King George the Fifth on the death of His Royal Father King Edward the Seventh.

We, the President, Council and General Body of Fellows of the British Academy, humbly tender to His Majesty the King our heartfelt sympathy and condolence on the loss which has befallen Him by the death of our beloved Sovereign King Edward the Seventh. We recall gratefully that the Charter under which the British Academy is constituted was granted on the eve of the Coronation of His late Majesty; and that throughout His reign He showed Himself a friend of learning and science. Further, we declare our dutiful allegiance and devotion to the King and the Throne; and add our fervent hope that under His Majesty's gracious rule learning may abound and the arts of peace may prosper to the benefit both of the Empire and of mankind.

Signed for the Council and General Body of Fellows,

ROYAL COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

The humble Address of the Royal College of Physicians of London.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of London, humbly approach Your Person, assuring Your Majesty how deeply we share in the profound sorrow which has overshadowed every part of Your dominions through the death of our revered Sovereign Lord, King Edward, and praying to be allowed to offer Your Majesty, Your Royal Consort, and all the Members of Your Family, our heartfelt sympathy in this Your great bereavement.

We commemorate gratefully and reverently the high character of our late Sovereign, His self-sacrificing devotion to duty and to all that might promote the welfare of His subjects, and His large-hearted sympathies which in an unexampled degree endeared Him to His people. More especially do we recall His late Majesty's labours in the cause of the sick and disabled poor in this vast metropolis, and the invaluable aid which He gave, at a very critical period, to those truly charitable institutions, the hospitals of London, with which our profession is so closely connected. We also remember with peculiar gratification the recognition which His Majesty gave to the profession of Physic, and to its honourable and beneficent character, by allowing His name to be enrolled as an Honorary Fellow of our College.

But while we lament the irreparable loss which the nation has sustained, we are deeply sensible of the good providence of God, which has preserved Your Majesty to ascend the Throne of Your illustrious ancestors, possessed of a knowledge and experience of public affairs and of all classes of Your subjects in this country no less than in Your oversea dominions, which cannot but prove of signal advantage to the State. We cannot forget the constant public service which Your Majesty, while Heir Apparent, has rendered to Your people, and pre-eminently the interest manifested by Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort in all that pertains to the alleviation of the sufferings of Your poorer subjects. We gratefully appreciate the practical interest which Your Majesty, following in the footsteps of Your lamented Father, has taken in all measures directed towards this object, not only by invaluable service as President of the Hospital Fund established by our late Sovereign, but by the active concern Your Majesty has exhibited as President of more than one of our great hospitals.

Lastly we pray Your Majesty to accept the assurance of our unswerving loyalty and deep devotion to Your Throne and Person; and we earnestly pray the Almighty to sustain You in Your present trial, and long to preserve Your Majesty to reign over a loyal and a united Empire.

From our College in London.

METROPOLITAN ASYLUMS BOARD.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Managers of the Metropolitan Asylum District.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, the Managers of the Metropolitan Asylum District, desire to approach Your Majesty with dutiful loyalty, to express the deep sorrow and sympathy which we, in common with all Your Majesty's subjects, feel in the heavy loss and bereavement which Your Royal House and the nation have suffered in the death of His late illustrious Majesty King Edward VII.

Bowing in all humility to the decrees of Divine Providence, we venture respectfully to tender our congratulations to Your Majesty on Your Accession to the Throne of Your ancestors, and the assurance of our loyalty and devotion.

Engaged in work which has for its object the promotion of the health and the skilled treatment in infectious disease of Your Majesty's subjects, and the care of the sick children and feeble-minded amongst the poor of the Metropolis, it has always been a great gratification to us that we have been well assured of the deep interest and sympathy of the Royal House, and have on more than one occasion been honoured with the presence of its members as personal testimony of their appreciation. We shall ever remember especially the occasion on which His late Majesty and Queen Alexandra honoured us, by attending in person and formally opening one of our hospitals; and we derive much encouragement from the knowledge that the relief of sickness and suffering and the prevention of the spread of infection are matters of deep solicitude also to Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort.

We pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon Your Majesties, and that He may long spare You to reign over a loyal and contented people.

WALTER DENNIS, Chairman.

T. DUNCOMBE MANN, Clerk to the Board.

METROPOLITAN WATER BOARD.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Members of the Metropolitan Water Board.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We, the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Members of the Metropolitan Water Board, humbly approach Your Majesty in order to give expression to our feelings of profound sorrow on the occasion of the death of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh of blessed and glorious memory, and to our loyal duty and homage upon Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

The Metropolitan Water Board was constituted and established by an Act of Parliament passed in the second year of the reign of King Edward VII for the purpose of acquiring and carrying on the undertakings of the Metropolitan Water Companies, which, under a number of previous Acts of Parliament, supplied water to the metropolis of Your Majesty's Empire.

We recall with deep gratitude the great interest which His late Majesty took in all matters affecting the public health and welfare of His subjects; and in particular in the supply of pure water to the urban and rural populations throughout the country.

In 1878, His late Majesty, as President of the Society of Arts, initiated the movement for the conservation of the national water supplies both to the large towns and the villages, and, in connection therewith, took equal interest in the allied functions of rivers pollution prevention, sewage disposal, rivers and canals conservancy, floods prevention, and the protection of freshwater fisheries.

In common with the whole of Your Majesty's Empire, we venture to assure Your Majesty not only of our profound sense of the nation's bereavement in the demise of a beloved Sovereign, but also of our respectful sympathy in the grief of Your Majesty and Your Majesty's Royal House, and especially of Her most gracious Majesty Queen Alexandra.

We have watched with respectful and loyal satisfaction the deep interest which Your Majesty has evinced in the welfare of the people, and we humbly express to Your Majesty the sincere desire of the members of the Metropolitan Water Board to do all within their power in the Department of Public Work which has been entrusted to them to second Your Majesty's efforts in the interests of the public health.

We tender to Your Majesty our dutiful homage and an assurance of our devoted loyalty to Your Majesty's Person and Throne, and our affection for Your Majesty's gracious and Royal Consort, Her Majesty Queen Mary; and we humbly pray that Your Majesty may be granted a happy and glorious reign, based upon the foundations of freedom, justice and peace, over a prosperous, a contented and a loyal people.

We are deeply sensible of the high honour which Your Majesty has graciously conferred upon the Metropolitan Water Board by consenting to receive this Address, and we venture to assure Your Majesty that this recognition of the magnitude and responsibility of the work entrusted to us will greatly encourage us in the performance of that work which we are proud to carry on to the best of our ability in the interests of the metropolis.

Given under the Seal of the Metropolitan Water Board, this 22nd day of June, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

E. B. BARNARD, Chairman.

W. J. G. NORRIS, Assistant Clerk.

To which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal and dutiful Address which you have laid before Me to-day.

"It is a consolation to Me in this time of sorrow to feel that My grief is shared by My subjects in all parts of the great Empire over which I have been called to reign, and to know that the character and aims of My beloved Father were appreciated by those whose prosperity and welfare were ever in His thoughts.

"You may be assured that it will be My constant endeavour to justify the confidence which you repose in Me, to follow with the help of Almighty God in My Father's footsteps, to uphold the honour of Our Country, and to labour, so far as in Me lies, for the prosperity and progress of My people."
