

DE L'ÉGLISE WALLONNE HUGUENOTE ÉVANGÉLIQUE FRANÇAISE. Fondée en 1547. Établie par Charte Royale d'Édouard VI, le 24 Juillet, 1550.

To the King George V. Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Consistory, the Church of the Huguenots, worshipping in the Crypt of the Cathedral during the reign of Edward VI, and during and since the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth of blessed memory, desire with the most profound loyalty and respect to approach Your Royal presence, in the season of Your sorrow, to tender to Your Majesty the expression of our deep sympathy and sincere condolence under the recent and severe bereavement with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit You and Your Royal House, in common with the subjects of Your Majesty's wide dominions. We mourn over a dispensation which has removed from our midst Your Father, our most beloved King, most highly distinguished by His talents and deservedly beloved because of His many excellent qualities.

Fully conscious that human sympathy is insufficient to sustain Your heavy spirit in the day when the afflicting hand of the Lord is stretched forth, we cease not to make mention of You in our private and public prayers that the Father of all mercies, and the God of all grace, and all consolation, may bind up Your broken heart, strengthen You for the discharge of Your duties, bless You with length of days, and enrich Your Family with all grace, and that at last You and They may enter that Kingdom and obtain that Crown which shall never fade away.

On Sunday, May 22nd, a special In Memoriam Service for His late Majesty Edward VII of cherished and blessed memory was held in the French Huguenot Church, Crypt of the Cathedral, and, according to ancient custom, the oath of allegiance (Serment de fidélité prêté) to Your Most Excellent Majesty before God, the pastor with uplifted hands making the solemn declaration to which the people responded by a three-fold Amen, Amen, Amen.

O Seigneur Sauve le Roi.

Et exauce-nous dans ta miséricorde, au jour où nous t'invoquons.

Signed in the name and by appointment of the Consistory of the Church of the Huguenots in Canterbury,
This 22nd day of June, 1910.

GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George V.,
King of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, &c.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Minister and Congregation of the German Lutheran Church of St. Mary-le-Savoy—founded 1694 in the Savoy Palace—London.

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Minister and Congregation of the German Lutheran Church of St. Mary-le-Savoy, beg leave most humbly to approach Your Majesty with our heartfelt congratulations on Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne.

Truly sensible of the invaluable advantages and blessings which we enjoy under the protection of the British Crown, we most cordially join all classes of our British fellow subjects in the sentiments of warmest attachment to Your Majesty and to Your Royal House.

We sincerely sympathise in the grief of Your Majesty and of the whole British nation at the demise of our late venerable Monarch, Whose memory we shall ever cherish with profound esteem and gratitude for the interest He has shown to our Church.

This gracious interest of the Royal House in our Church, first shown by His Majesty King William III, who established it in the Savoy Palace in 1694, was maintained by all His Successors of the House of Hanover, Members of which made use of the Royal pew of the Church in former times and contributed to the upkeep of the same. Queen Caroline, the Consort of King George II, first built our school in 1724. The Kings George I, II, III, granted us Royal Warrants. When the Church was pulled down with the Savoy Palace at the Thames Embankment in 1877 Queen Victoria, Your Majesty's illustrious Grandmother, graciously rebuilt Church and School at the present place on Crown lands near Fitzroy-square, W., renewing at the same time the Royal Warrants for Herself and Her Successors. His late lamented Majesty, Your Majesty's august Father, manifested His kindly thoughts towards us as late as June, 1908, when He on the occasion of the 200th anniversary of our School graciously sent us His Royal wishes with a donation for the rebuilding of same.

Your Majesty's revered ancestors having manifested Their special favour and graciousness towards us, we make bold to hope and pray that Your Majesty may also continue Your Royal favour to ourselves.

It is our ardent wish and devout prayer that it may please the Almighty to grant to Your gracious Majesty a long and prosperous reign and to bestow upon Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, our revered and most gracious Queen, every temporal and spiritual blessing.

May it please Your Majesty to accept the most humble assurances of our grateful veneration and constant loyalty to your Majesty and the Royal House, for whose graciousness we and the Congregation of our old Lutheran Church of the Savoy shall ever feel the most profound gratitude.

The German Lutheran Church of St. Mary-le-Savoy—founded 1694 in the Savoy Palace—London.
