TUESDAY, JULY 12, 1910.

Scottish Office, Whitehall,

July 11, 1910.

The following Address was presented to His Majesty, at St. James's Palace, on Friday, the 8th July:—

UNIVERSITY OF GLASGOW.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

On behalf of all the Members of the University of Glasgow, we, the Chancellor, Rector, and Principal of the University, beg leave respectfully to tender to Your Majesty and the Members of the Royal Family our deep sympathy in this time of national sorrow.

By the decease of Your Majesty's illustrious Father the Empire has lost a magnanimous Ruler, who gave His whole-hearted devotion to the duties of His Kingly office, and spent His strength in furthering the welfare of His people. The memory of what His wisdom achieved in the cause of peace and goodwill among men will ever be gratefully cherished, not only within the British Dominions but throughout the civilised world.

Charged as we are with the interests of one of the National Universities, we are ourselves specially mindful of His late Majesty's heedful care for the promotion of higher education in this country, and we recall in particular the gracious encouragement He accorded to the University of Glasgow, when, with His Royal Consort, He laid the foundation of its present building, and was pleased to assume its academic title of Doctor.

For all He did to maintain the high traditions of the great and glorious reign of the well-beloved Queen Victoria, and for all that in virtue of His surpassing qualities of mind and heart, He accomplished for the nation, His subjects have abundant grounds of heartfelt thankfulness.

To Your Majesty, whose recent visit to the University accompanied by the Princess who is now our gracious Queen, will ever be a memorable event in our annals, we would offer in all dutifulness our loyal homage on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne of Your Fathers. We are deeply conscious of the favour Your Majesty has already shown to the University by participating in our efforts to extend its equipment for the advancement of knowledge, and by permitting Your name and that of Her Majesty the Queen to be inscribed upon its roll of honorary graduates. It will be our constant aim to foster worthily the institution thus graced by association with Your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and it will be our constant prayer that long life and happiness, with every Divine blessing, may be vouchsafed to Their Majesties our King and Queen.

Signed and sealed on behalf of the University of Glasgow, and presented to His Majesty The King on this eighth day of July, 1910.

ROSEBERRY, Chancellor.
CURZON OF KEDLESTON, Rector.
DONALD MACALISTER, Principal.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"It gives Me great satisfaction to receive you here to-day as the Representatives of the ancient

University of Glasgow, and I thank you for your expression of sympathy with Myself and My Family in the loss which we have sustained and for your expressions of loyalty to Queen Mary and Myself.

"I look back with pleasure on the visit which I made recently to your University of which I am proud to be a Member and you may rest assured that I shall follow My beloved Father, the late King, in maintaining a strong interest in the great task which falls upon the University of Glasgow and the other Universities of Scotland, a task which is truly national in its scope, and which is achieved in a manner to which witness is borne throughout the Dominions of the Crown. It is My earnest hope that, with the continued support and encouragement of the great City of Glasgow, your University may long flourish on its high seat, and pass on the torch of learning for the benefit of Scotland and the Empire."

Alteration.—The tidal signals at the Customs Signal Station to indicate the depths on the Wusung Inner Bar have been discontinued, and the depth of water in Astræa Channel is now shown from a signal mast near Wusung Lighthouse, and from a signal mast on the southern side of the entrance to Kao Chiao Creek. The yard at Kao Chiao Signal Station points east and west, and the signals made from the eastern and western yardarms respectively correspond with those made from the northern and southern yardarms respectively of the Wusung Signal Mast.
