

intestate, or any persons claiming to be entitled by devise, descent or otherwise to the real estate of which the said intestate died seised or possessed, is or are personally, or by a Solicitor, on or before the 12th day of October, 1910, to cause a claim or claims to be entered at the chambers of Mr. Justice Warrington and Mr. Justice Parker, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof he or they will peremptorily be excluded from the benefit of the said Order.

Wednesday, the 19th day of October, 1910, at 12 o'clock noon, at the said chambers (Room No. 315), is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon any claims that may be made.

NOTE.—It is possible that descent might be traced through William Gelder, the deceased's great uncle (born 18th April, 1774), who is believed to have been a Currier in the city of London, and who was advertised for in the year 1853, or through Thomas Dunting, of Owston Ferry, Lincolnshire, who is believed to have married Mary Gelder, a great great aunt of the intestate. The said Thomas Dunting died on the 26th September, 1821.

Dated this first day of July, 1910.
