FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1910.

Whitehall, July 12, 1910.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at St. James's Palace, on Friday, the 8th instant:—

CONVOCATION OF CANTERBURY.

Address to His Majesty The King.

We, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with the dutiful assurance of our devotion to Your Majesty's Throne and Person.

Four months ago, on the opening of a new Convocation, it was our privilege, in accordance with well-established usage, to present to the Sovereign in person a loyal and dutiful Address, and the gracious reply which we received on that occasion from His Majesty King Edward was such as to encourage all who have at heart the right discharge of the varied and responsible duties which, as Ministers of Christ in the National Church of this country, we are called upon to fulfil.

A few weeks later the whole Church and Empire were united in a common sorrow by the death of the King who had thus spoken to us, and we desire to-day to tender to Your Majesty and to the Royal Family an expression of our dutiful and heartfelt sympathy in a bereavement so unexpected and so grave.

We recall with profound thankfulness the work which His Majesty King Edward was, in the Providence of God, enabled to accomplish for the unity, peace, and concord of the nations of the world.

We are thankful for the wisdom and beneficence of His rule, for His untiring and effectual efforts on behalf of the sick and suffering, and for the support which He gave to every wise and well-considered plan for the public good.

It is our earnest prayer that the blessing and consolation of God may be vouchsafed to Your Majesty and to Her Majesty The Queen, and with special earnestness do we remember before God in Her widowed life Your Majesty's Royal Mother, Queen Alexandra, who has for more than forty years evoked the affectionate loyalty of the whole Empire by Her ceaseless anxiety to relieve suffering and distress, Her gentle sympathy with every good cause, and Her care for what is pure and lovely and of good report.

With confidence and high hope we invoke the benediction of Almighty God upon Your Majesty's reign, praying earnestly that grace and guidance may be given to Your Majesty from day to day in the discharge of the high and sacred responsibilities which devolve upon the occupant of the Throne of this great Empire. We pray, too, that the home life of Your Majesty and of the gracious Queen who has shared with Your Majesty the travel by land and sea, which has made You acquainted with every part of the Empire, may be abundantly blessed of our Father from whom every family in heaven and earth is named.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank your Grace most earnestly for the loyal and dutiful Address of Condolence from the Bishops and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury in Convocation; and on behalf of Queen Mary and Queen Alexandra for your expressions of sympathy and sorrow. The tributes of respect and honour which you pay to King Edward's memory are precious to those who have most deeply suffered by His loss.

It is My desire to follow in My Father's steps, and, so far as may be in My power, to promote the peace and unity of nations, to second all efforts for the alleviation of sickness and suffering, and to support every wise and well-considered scheme for the public good. I am encouraged in all this by your good wishes and your prayers for God's blessing upon My endeavour. I am fortified by the belief that the ends which we pursue are in harmony with the teachings of the Church, and that they will be achieved only while we seek in faith and humility that perfect standard of conduct and sacrifice which has been revealed to Christian men.

CONVOCAATION OF YORK.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Convocation of the Province of York.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Archbishop, Bishops and Clergy of the Convocation of the Northern Province, acting according to ancient privilege, approach Your Majesty with deep emotion, desiring to express our respectful sympathy with Your Majesty in the heavy bereavement which has befallen You in the death of Your loved and honoured Father, King Edward VII. We, loyal in heart to the Throne, share the unfeigned grief which is felt in all parts of the Empire. We recognise that what is a personal and unique sorrow to Your Majesty is to Your subjects everywhere a national and imperial loss.

We recall with gratitude the signal services which Your Majesty's revered Father, our late King, rendered to the United Kingdom and the Empire by His calm judgment, by His loyal self-repression, and by the happy art with which He helped to build up those conditions of international comity which made for the peace of the world. We remember with pleasure the words He spoke to the members of our Convocation when He said, "It is My desire that the power of the Church to aid My people may be strengthened as the years unfold." We cherish now those words with mingled feelings as the last official utterance of His late Majesty. His unwearied labours to raise the lot and to relieve the sufferings of His people, His fortitude in sickness, and His self-forgetful devotion to kingly duty, have rendered Him, who was beloved in life, doubly dear in death.

We ask Your Majesty to convey to Your Royal Mother, the Queen Alexandra, the assurance that in Her deep sorrow She has a place not only in our sympathy but in our prayers.

We desire to tender to Your Majesty on Your accession to the Throne this declaration of our unswerving loyalty and sincere attachment. We recognize the heavy responsibilities and special difficulties which have devolved upon Your Majesty; but we rejoice to think that the high traditions of faith and duty which have been consecrated in the glorious examples of Your Royal predecessors are dear to the heart of Your Majesty and not less to the heart of the gracious Lady whom we welcome as our Queen.

We know Your Majesty's wide and unrivalled acquaintance with every part of the Empire: we remember Your Majesty's familiarity with the wise and invigorating discipline prevailing in that branch of national service to which You were attached, and in which we recall with pleasure Your Majesty's unflinching devotion to duty in spite of the temptations of pleasure or the menace of danger. We call to mind the happy and sympathetic interest which Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, Queen Mary, have shown in the welfare and joys of children, and the practical example of loving home life which Your Majesties have maintained. Encouraged by these remembrances we are persuaded that, by God's blessing, difficulties will be happily surmounted, and national welfare assured under Your Majesty's rule.

We are deeply convinced that the stability and prosperity of nations can only be secured by sedulous obedience to sound moral and religious principles, which have, as a friend and counsellor of Your Royal House declared, "an inherent power to sustain themselves and produce practical good." We recognise that as representatives and guardians of the religious life of the people we are called to teach and maintain these principles, and we desire at the commencement of Your Majesty's reign to pledge ourselves once more to set forward righteousness, peace and love among all committed to our care.

The reign of the venerated and illustrious Queen Victoria was marked by the vigorous expansion of Her dominions. Under Her rule the United Kingdom became the British Empire. The reign of Your beloved Father, King Edward VII, was marked by its peaceful consolidation. We pray that under Your Majesty's rule the old and living qualities of righteousness, faith in God, and patriotic self-sacrifice, may so prevail among us that the Empire may grow in peaceful and powerful influence to the benefit of other nations, the welfare of the world, and the glory of Almighty God.

Dated at York this 26th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Signed on behalf of the Convocation of the Province of York.

Cosmo EBOR, President.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank your Grace most heartily for the loyal and dutiful Address of the Convocation of the Northern Province. I am grateful to you in My sorrow for the expression of your profound sympathy and for the honour and affection with which you regard the memory of My beloved Father.

The message of good-will and good cheer which King Edward spoke to you but a few months ago was the last public utterance of His life. I adopt His words on that occasion as My own; and you may count on My aid and fervent sympathy in all your beneficent labours.

The foundations of national glory are set in the homes of the people. They will only remain unshaken while the family life of our race and nation is strong and simple and pure.

Amid the multiplying complexities of modern social conditions, in the hurry of the age, and with the ever-growing needs of millions for moral guidance and spiritual consolation, the work of the Church, both religious and charitable, assumes each year a deeper practical significance.

That the Church may prosper in her sacred mission, that her teachings may become ever more profoundly interwoven with the real lives and thoughts of the people, and that in enlightened unity with all other Christian effort she may sustain and uplift the hearts of men, will always be My prayer.

Whitehall, July 12, 1910.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty at St. James's Palace, on Friday, the 8th instant:—

UNIVERSITY OF DURHAM.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Lord and Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's faithful servants, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Durham, desire in humblest duty and respect to tender to Your Majesty the heartfelt homage of our affectionate loyalty.

We, with all the subjects of the Crown, have deeply mourned the great bereavement Your Majesty has sustained in the ever-lamented death of our beloved Sovereign King Edward VII, who had singularly endeared Himself to all His people, and will ever be borne in our memories with genuine affection and regret. Our University is also in a special degree bound to reverence His memory with thankfulness, because with other gifts to us, His gracious permission to grant us a new Constitution for our University has strengthened us for our task of providing all higher education for the people of our Northern Counties.

And we count ourselves especially happy in being graciously permitted to approach Your Majesty at this moment of the accession of Your Majesty to the august throne of Your Ancestors; and this because we are sure that Your Majesty will ever maintain in peace the high dignity of Your Crown, the splendour of Your illustrious House, and the happy liberties of Your contented people. Your auspicious reign will be most heartily welcomed, because we see in it the happy welfare of the Realm and of the broadly-extended Dominions over which it has pleased God to call Your Majesty to reign.

We pray that Your Majesty will be pleased to extend to this Northern University, Your fatherly grace and countenance; and we humbly lay before Your Majesty this assurance of the sincere desire of us all to endeavour to win and deserve Your Royal favour; by a faithful fulfilment of our duties, by meeting the needs of a modern and practical type of education, in the important branches of science and knowledge, and by inculcating the studies of the nobler sides of learning, especially in such sound religious, moral and loyal teaching as will strengthen the characters of those young men and women who are being prepared by us to become useful members of society and devoted subjects of Your Majesty's Crown.

May it please Your Majesty to deign to receive with favour this humble expression of our prayers for Your happiness and welfare in carrying out the great work to which God has appointed Your Majesty. May Your Reign be ever blessed with wisdom from Above; May Your kindness towards the people thus placed under Your Royal care bear the happy fruits of industry and content; may Your Majesty's Reign be long and blessed of God, and a time of peaceful advance; and may Your hand be ever able wisely and with equity to guide Your subjects, a united and loyal people in the paths of progress and prosperity.

These are the heartfelt prayers of Your Majesty's most faithful and obedient servants, the University of Durham.

Given in our House of Convocation at Durham, under our Common Seal, this 21st day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

THE UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty George V.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, and Members of the University of Liverpool, desire to approach Your Majesty with a dutiful and loyal Address.

We tender our deep and respectful sympathy on the great sorrow which has fallen on Your Majesty, the Royal Family, and on all Your subjects, even in the remotest parts of the Empire, by the lamented death of our Most Gracious Sovereign King Edward.

We also beg to submit to Your Majesty our loyal homage on Your Accession to the Throne.

We recall with gratitude the favours accorded to us in past years by Your Majesty's Predecessors; the Charter granted to University College, Liverpool, by Her Majesty Queen Victoria, who was also graciously pleased to allow Her name to be associated with the chair of law; and the Charter by which His late Majesty King Edward established the University of Liverpool on the foundation already laid.

We had hoped to have had the honour of enrolling Your Majesty's name on the list of our Honorary Graduates; but although disappointed of that privilege, we trust that the sympathy with the work of the University and the interest in its progress which such an association would have expressed may still be ours.

Your Majesty's rich and varied experience in many lands, and the knowledge so gained of the Empire and its needs assure us that the work of higher education will be continued and developed during the coming years of Your Majesty's reign.

In conclusion, we beg, on behalf of our University, to express our loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and to Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Mary, humbly praying that the Divine blessing may rest upon Your Majesties and that Your Majesty may long be spared in health, happiness, and peace to reign over a united and loyal people.

DERBY, Chancellor.

A. W. W. DALE, Vice-Chancellor.

UNIVERSITY OF SHEFFIELD.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
George the Fifth.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Chancellor, Pro-Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, the Members of the University Council, Senate, and Teaching Staff, the Graduates and Students of the Sheffield University, Your faithful subjects, desire to approach Your Majesty with a dutiful and loyal Address.

We lay before Your Majesty, together with our humble duty, the expression of our heartfelt and respectful sympathy on the occasion of the grievous affliction which has fallen on Your Majesty, the Royal Family, and on all Your Majesty's subjects in Great Britain and beyond the Seas, by the lamented death of His Most Gracious Majesty King Edward the Seventh, of blessed and glorious memory. We are especially filled with gratitude to His late Majesty for granting our Charter, opening these University Buildings in person, becoming our Visitor, and graciously directing that His Heirs and Successors shall be connected with the University in the same way.

We now beg leave to lay before Your Majesty on your accession to the Throne our loyal homage, and to express the gratification which we feel that this University will be under the august patronage of Your Majesty as Visitor. The attention with which Your Majesty has followed all the movements for the spread of knowledge and the progress of science, inspires us with confidence for the future of education in the coming years of Your Majesty's reign, and the fact that Your Majesty, accompanied by Your Royal Consort, deigned to open the Edgar Allen Library last year, and to accept a Degree of Doctor of Letters from our Chancellor, emboldens us to hope that Your Majesty may be pleased to watch with interest the growth of this University.

We also offer the expression of our loyalty and devotion to Her Gracious Majesty Queen Mary, who, by Her presence in this and other Universities, has shown that She shares the same desire to promote higher learning.

In conclusion, we beg on behalf of the whole University to express our loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne and Person, and we earnestly pray that Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort may long be spared in health and happiness to rule this Empire in peace and prosperity.

Given under the Common Seal of the University, this thirteenth day of May, 1910.

devotion to duty, and who has taken an active interest in promoting the happiness and welfare of the people.

We earnestly pray that the Almighty may endow Your Majesty with grace and strength to fulfil the duties of the exalted position to which in His Providence Your Majesty has been called, and that Your Majesty may reign long and gloriously over a united, happy and prosperous Empire.

CITY OF CARDIFF.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Cardiff, offer to Your Majesty our loyal homage on Your Majesty's accession to the Throne.

As the Metropolis of Wales we are deeply gratified to recall the interest that Your Majesty has at all times shown in matters relating to the Principality.

We especially esteem Your Majesty's close connection with the University of Wales (Prifysgol Cymru) of which Your Majesty is the Chancellor.

We recollect with gratification Your Majesty's visit to Cardiff as the Prince of Wales in the year 1905 when Your Majesty was graciously pleased to lay the foundation stone of the new buildings for the University College of South Wales and Monmouthshire.

We shall ever remember that Your Majesty is, as was Your late revered Father, King Edward VII, an Honorary Freeman of this City.

We recognise with deep thankfulness the devotion which Your Majesty has always shown as Prince of Wales to the cause of the promotion of the welfare of the people of this country and especially the interest which Your Majesty has always shown in the British Dominions beyond the Seas.

CITY OF OXFORD.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty.

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of Your ancient and loyal City of Oxford, in Council assembled, seek permission to address to Your Majesty our respectful and heartfelt congratulations on Your Majesty's accession to a Throne to which the late universal mourning of the nation and indeed of the world have given evidence of a profound attachment. We venture to rest on our experience of the benign wisdom of which this nation has been deprived by the death of our late glorious Sovereign the sure expectation that the hereditary virtues of a constitutional Monarch, so nobly illustrated in His Person to the benefit of these realms, and to the advantage of the civilised world, will continue to find their expression in the person of Your Majesty. We recall, here, with vivid satisfaction the weight and profound insight of Your utterances in the past, and we gratefully recognize the assiduity with which Your Majesty has in bygone years devoted Himself as well to the duties of a profession dear to every Englishman; as to the personal study of every portion of the vast Empire now committed to Your charge. Rarely, we believe, has a Sovereign commenced His reign, prepared and fortified by such wide and intimate experience and knowledge of His subjects, or with equal right to assure Himself of their devoted loyalty. We pray that Almighty God may continue in Your person those blessings which He vouchsafed to this country in the persons of our late Sovereign, and of the venerated Queen Victoria, and that You, with Your illustrious and beloved Consort, Queen Mary, may enjoy for many years domestic felicity, and the grateful affection of a people attached by recognition of the benefits they have so long enjoyed to Your House and Person.

Given under our Corporate Seal this 6th day of July, 1910.

R. BACON, Town Clerk.

We remember with deep gratitude the unceasing efforts of our late Sovereign, Your illustrious Father, King Edward the Seventh, to ensure the prosperity of this great Empire, and peace amongst the nations of the world.

While assuring Your Majesty of our unabated loyalty, we most earnestly pray that the reign upon which Your Majesty has entered may be long and happy, and that the Divine Blessing may continue to attend You and Your beloved Consort and the Members of Your Royal House.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-first day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten.

As Duke of York during the reign of Your illustrious Grandmother, Queen Victoria, and as Prince of Wales during the reign of Your well-beloved and august Father, King Edward the Seventh, Your Majesty has at all times worthily upheld the traditions of our great Empire.

Your Majesty's subjects rejoice that the great powers, duties and responsibilities of the Crown of the British Empire will rest in the hands of one who, following in the footsteps of His revered Father, will safeguard the interest of all sections of this great community. They further trust and believe that under Your Majesty's rule and guidance the Empire will be blessed with a further period of prosperity and happiness.

ROYAL SCOTTISH HOSPITAL.

Unto the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Corporation of the Royal Scottish Hospital of the Foundation of King Charles the Second, re-incorporated by King George the Third of ever blessed memory.

We, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Royal Scottish Hospital, desire humbly to approach Your Majesty to offer our heartfelt condolence on the demise of Your Majesty's beloved and revered Sire, our late gracious Sovereign.

On the ground of the distinguished patronage which His late Majesty was pleased to extend to this ancient charity, and the lively interest He never failed to evince in its prosperity, not only during the too short period of His glorious reign, but throughout His beneficent career as Prince of Wales, we claim a peculiar title to the privilege of associating ourselves with Your Majesty's heart-stricken subjects at home and abroad, and giving expression to our deep grief in the sense of a loss which indeed affects the whole world.

In common, however, with all our fellow subjects we draw grateful consolation from Your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne of Your Ancestors. And may it be vouchsafed us to herewith humbly tender to Your Majesty the sincere acknowledgment of our zealous loyalty and faithful devotion.

It is to us a special source of gratification that this Charity, instituted for the relief of the poor, aged, and infirm among Your Majesty's Scottish subjects in this Metropolis, has throughout the last three centuries been, without intermission, honoured with the favour and support of Your Royal Predecessors, and that Your Majesty has also been pleased to take occasion to signify Your gracious approval of its beneficent purpose. With all humility, then, we venture to solicit the gracious continuance, under the reign of Your Majesty, of the Royal countenance and protection in favour of the Scottish Hospital.

Representing as we do the manifold ranks and conditions of Scotsmen, not only by immediate birth but also by descent, in this Metropolis, we crave permission to offer to Your Majesty the assurance of our sincere and reverent prayer that it may please God Almighty long to preserve Your Majesty to rule over a loyal, united, and religious people, and that all prosperity, inward, and outward, may continuously signalise Your Majesty's reign.

Given under our Common Seal at our Hall, Crane-court, Fleet-street, this eighteenth day of May, 1910.

We, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland beg to offer to Your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations on the auspicious occasion of Your Majesty's Accession to the Throne, together with an expression of our devoted loyalty and attachment to Your Throne and Person.

We recognise, with grateful appreciation, the favour which Your Majesty has ever extended to our profession in its efforts for the advancement of medical science and for the preservation and improvement of the health of the nation.

That the Almighty may be pleased to spare Your Gracious Majesty for many years to guide the destinies of the vast Empire over which You rule is the earnest prayer of us, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the President and Fellows of the Royal College of Physicians of Ireland.

ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS IN IRELAND.

To His Most Excellent Majesty George the Fifth, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, and Emperor of India.

May it please Your Gracious Majesty,

We, the President, Vice-President, and Council of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland, beg leave to tender to Your Majesty our most loyal and dutiful congratulations on Your accession to the Throne.

Our College has since its foundation by Your illustrious predecessor King George the Third in 1784, endeavoured to carry out the duty imposed upon it by Charter of providing properly educated Surgeons as well for the service of the public in general, as for that of Your Majesty's Army and Navy. And we feel confident that during the long and prosperous reign which we trust is before Your Majesty our efforts may meet with at least equal success.

That our College has adequately fulfilled its obligations in supplying efficient officers to the Royal Services is attested by the great number of Fellows and Licentiates of the College, who have been selected for signal distinction by Your Royal predecessors, as well as by the long roll of her Alumni who have unhesitatingly laid down their lives in the faithful discharge of their duty to their Sovereign and Country.

We beg to assure Your Majesty of our loyalty and deep attachment to Your Throne and Person, and pray that the blessings of the Most High may be abundantly showered, both on Yourself and Your Majesty's Gracious Consort.

To His Majesty the King.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the President, Fellows and Members of Sections of the Royal Society of Medicine, beg humbly to express to Your Majesty our sympathy with You in the loss of Your Royal Father, King Edward VII, to whom, besides our duty as His loyal subjects, we owe a particular debt of gratitude for His grant to our Society of a supplemental Royal Charter, which has been and will always continue to be an encouragement to the study of Medicine and an aid to the increase of knowledge in all departments of its practice.

We also feel the deepest gratitude to Him for the interest which He showed in the work of our profession and the powerful aid which He gave to its efforts in the service of mankind.

We desire to assure Your Majesty of our loyalty and devotion to You as our King, as well as to the Queen and to Your Royal Family, and we pray that You may long rule over the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Your Dominions beyond the Seas, and the Empire of India.

ROYAL SOCIETY OF BRITISH ARTISTS.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

At the General Assembly of the Royal Society of British Artists, it was unanimously desired that a vote of condolence should be forwarded to Your Majesty, and to express the profound sorrow which every member of this Royal Society feels at the death of our Sovereign and Patron, His Majesty King Edward VII, and to humbly approach Your Majesty with an expression of the grief which we share with every subject of Your great Empire.

We would respectfully pray that Your Majesty will accept this expression of sorrow and sympathy from the Society which has received so many benefits at the hands of Your Royal House, for perhaps we may be humbly permitted to recall to Your Majesty the fact that in 1823 His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex presided at the banquet at the opening of our galleries in Suffolk-street, on which occasion he expressed his good wishes for the success and prosperity of our Society, and evinced an interest which has, ever since that time, been shown by the members of Your Royal Family.

At the General Assembly the members also desired to convey to Your Majesty their congratulations on Your Accession, and we take this opportunity of expressing the assurance of our sincere devotion and loyalty to Your Throne and Person; and pray that Almighty God will bless Your reign with long years of peace and prosperity, and that every blessing may attend You and Your Royal Consort, and every member of Your family. May we be allowed to assure Your Majesty that we have endeavoured to raise the standard of Art within Your Realm, and are moved by the desire that our Country should stand well in the eyes of the Nations of the World in all the arts of peace, and would pray that Your Majesty would honour us as a signal mark of Your favour by continuing that patronage which is so helpful to the furtherance of our efforts, and which was so generously conceded by Your Predecessors.

SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the President, Council and Fellows of the Society of Antiquaries of London, most humbly beg leave to express to Your Majesty our sentiments of unfeigned condolence for the heavy loss which Your Majesty and the Empire have sustained in the death of our late Gracious Sovereign, Your Royal Father, whose great and eminent virtues during a reign distinguished by the cultivation of the arts of peace and by the advancement of literature and science have left the deepest impressions of reverence, gratitude, loyalty and affection on the hearts of all classes of people in Your Majesty's Dominions.

While we thus presume to testify our sorrow at the death of our late much lamented Sovereign, we humbly beg to offer to Your Most Gracious Majesty our heartfelt congratulations upon Your happy Accession to the Imperial Throne of these Realms, persuaded as we are that the blessings enjoyed under the reign of our late Monarch will still continue under the auspices of His august Successor to be felt and acknowledged by a free, loyal, and happy people.

This Society, which was incorporated by Your Majesty's Ancestor, King George the Second, to promote the study of antiquity and the history of former times, cannot without the highest satisfaction reflect that the objects which it has in view, and which have been more particularly directed to the illustration of the history and antiquities of our own country, have been extended under the fostering influence of the successive Monarchs who have been the Royal Patrons of the Society.

We beg leave to assure Your Majesty of our faithful and affectionate attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Government. And we earnestly pray that it may please the Almighty to bless Your Majesty with length of days, and with a happy and prosperous reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Officers and Members of the Incorporated Society for the Management and Distribution of the Artists' Fund, are desirous of approaching Your Majesty with a respectful expression of our heartfelt sorrow at the loss Your Majesty has so lately sustained.

We would not for any ordinary motive revive Your Majesty's grief by renewing in Your Royal Presence the painful subject which has so deeply wounded the affections of Your Majesty and the feelings of the nation; but it was our privilege to receive the patronage of the august and beloved Sovereign whose loss a loyal nation now mourns, and whose generous bounty supported and protected us without intermission throughout His beneficent reign. It is therefore with feelings of the deepest grief that we venture to offer to Your Majesty a humble but sincere expression of our sympathy and condolence.

The accession of Your Majesty to the Throne of Your Ancestors can awaken in the hearts of all Your loyal subjects but one sentiment of joy and satisfaction. Anxious to take our share in the congratulations of a grateful people, it is our desire to tender our dutiful allegiance to Your Majesty's Throne, and to humbly assure You of our devoted attachment to Your Majesty's Person and Government,

The Artists' Fund was established in the year 1810 under the patronage of the Sovereign, and as a Corporation holding a Royal Charter, its Benevolent Branch has ever enjoyed the uninterrupted munificence of the Throne.

That the blessings of Almighty God may attend Your Majesty through a reign which, by the Divine Providence may be prolonged through years of happiness and prosperity is the fervent prayer of those who now humbly venture to address You.

NEWCASTLE AND GATESHEAD INCORPORATED
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

To His Most Excellent Majesty King George the Fifth, by the grace of God, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

May it please Your Majesty,

On behalf of the Council and Members of the Newcastle and Gateshead Incorporated Chamber of Commerce, we humbly approach Your Majesty for the purpose of expressing our feelings of profound sorrow at the deeply lamented death of our late most gracious Sovereign King Edward VII, whose illustrious reign will ever be treasured in the hearts of His people and gratefully recorded in the history of His country.

His high sense of His kingly duties, His skilful guidance of public affairs, and His unceasing work for the maintenance of international friendship were recognised and acknowledged not only by His own subjects, but by the whole civilized world.

We gratefully recall that King Edward was graciously pleased to receive an Address from this Chamber on the occasion of His visit to Newcastle in July, 1906, and that in His reply He stated His earnest endeavours would always be directed to the maintenance of peace and concord.

The accession of Your Majesty to the Throne of these realms inspires us with the confidence that, actuated by His lofty example, Your Majesty will maintain the greatness of Your Empire, especially as Your Majesty enters upon the duties of Your high station with a wider personal knowledge of the Empire and its various peoples than was ever possessed by any of Your predecessors. We are convinced that this extended knowledge will tend largely to the commercial prosperity of Your Majesty's loyal subjects, and that the commercial interests of the country will continue to receive Your Majesty's favour, attention and protection.

We earnestly pray that in the discharge of Your exalted duties Your Majesty, Your illustrious Consort, and Your children may be blessed with long life and health, and that under Your Sovereignty the British Empire may advance in prosperity and happiness.

Given under the Common Seal of the
 Newcastle and Gateshead Incorporated

His late Majesty's great work in the promotion and maintenance of the peace of the world has won for Him a lasting place in the love and esteem of His people, and by no class of His subjects were His great achievements more admired, and His great qualities more appreciated, than by the body we have the honour to represent. We desire, also, to offer to Your Majesty our loyal and hearty congratulations on Your accession, and to assure you of our devotion to Your Throne and Person, and we believe that, guided by Your wise and constitutional rule, and inspired by Your zeal for its development, the trade and commerce of the Empire will expand and increase to a greater extent than ever before, and by its development will bring about a still closer union of Your world-wide Dominions. And we fervently pray that it may please Almighty God to bestow upon You and Your gracious Consort every happiness and earthly blessing, and grant to You a long, peaceful and glorious reign, crowned with the love and affection of a loyal, devoted and contented people.
