ROYAL SCOTTISH HOSPITAL.

Unto the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Corporation of the Royal Scottish Hospital of the Foundation of King Charles the Second, re-incorporated by King George the Third of ever blessed memory.

We, the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Governors of the Royal Scottish Hospital, desire humbly to approach Your Majesty to offer our heartfelt condolence on the demise of Your Majesty's beloved and revered Sire, our late gracious Sovereign.

On the ground of the distinguished patronage which His late Majesty was pleased to extend to this ancient charity, and the lively interest He never failed to evince in its prosperity, not only during the too short period of His glorious reign, but throughout His beneficent career as Prince of Wales, we claim a peculiar title to the privilege of associating ourselves with Your Majesty's heart-stricken subjects at home and abroad, and giving expression to our deep grief in the sense of a loss which indeed affects the whole world.

In common, however, with all our fellow subjects we draw grateful consolation from Your Majesty's auspicious Accession to the Throne of Your Ancestors. And may it be vouchsafed us to herewith humbly tender to Your Majesty the sincere acknowledgment of our zealous loyalty and faithful devotion.

It is to us a special source of gratification that this Charity, instituted for the relief of the poor, aged, and infirm among Your Majesty's Scottish subjects in this Metropolis, has throughout the last three centuries been, without intermission, honoured with the favour and support of Your Royal Predecessors, and that Your Majesty has also been pleased to take occasion to signify Your gracious approval of its beneficent purpose. With all humility, then, we venture to solicit the gracious continuance, under the reign of Your Majesty, of the Royal countenance and protection in favour of the Scottish Hospital.

Representing as we do the manifold ranks and conditions of Scotsmen, not only by immediate birth but also by descent, in this Metropolis, we crave permission to offer to Your Majesty the assurance of our sincere and reverent prayer that it may please God Almighty long to preserve Your Majesty to rule over a loyal, united, and religious people, and that all prosperity, inward, and outward, may continuously signalise Your Majesty's reign.

Given under our Common Seal at our Hall, Crane-court, Fleet-street, this eighteenth day of May, 1910.
