

dated the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, was altered to the extent and in the manner mentioned in the said Order dated the twenty-second day of October, one thousand nine hundred and six :

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Legislature of Newfoundland has provided for the examination of and grant of Certificates of Competency to persons intending to act as Engineers on board British Ships, and that the Board of Trade have reported to His Majesty that they are satisfied that the examinations are so conducted as to be equally efficient with the examinations for the same purpose in the United Kingdom under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and that the certificates are granted on such principles as to show the like qualifications and competency as those granted under the said Act, and are liable to be forfeited for the like reasons and in the like manner :

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is hereby pleased—

To declare that the Colonial Certificates of Competency granted or to be hereafter granted by the proper authority in Newfoundland to persons intending to act as Engineers on board British Ships shall, in addition to Colonial Certificates of Competency granted to Masters and Mates by the said authority under the provisions of the above recited Order in Council dated the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, as altered by the Order in Council dated the twenty-second day of October, one thousand nine hundred and six, be of the same force as if they had been granted under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and shall be subject to the same conditions and regulations as are set out in Schedule "A" to the said Order in Council of the ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, and that the said Order in Council as altered by the Order in Council dated the twenty-second day of October, one thousand nine hundred and six, shall be read, construed, and applied accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 19th day of July, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Yatton Keynell, in the county of Wilts, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in the civil parish of Yatton Keynell aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed :

And whereas, by an Order in Council dated the thirty-first day of May last, notice of such representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and that the said Order in Council should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within the parish affected by such representation one month before the said eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten :

And whereas the said Order in Council of the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and ten, has been duly published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order :

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial-ground in the said civil parish of Yatton Keynell, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited, and that burials in the said parish be discontinued as follows, viz. :

YATTON KEYNELL.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Margaret, in the parish of Yatton Keynell, in the county of Wilts; and in the churchyard, with the following exceptions, that is to say :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard, and not situate within fifteen feet of any dwelling house, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard, and not situate within fifteen feet of any dwelling house, the burial may be allowed of the body of any member of the family of the person or
