indenture, dated the 20th December, 1897, and of a deed poll, dated the 3rd August, 1899, respectively described in the said judgment, ought to be performed and carried into execution, and did order and adjudge the same accordingly; and the Court ordered that the Trustees be at liberty to hold customary courts, so far as might be necessary for the protection of the estates of the copyholders of the Manor, or reputed or alleged Manor, of Old Paris Garden, and for the purpose of enabling surrenders and admittances to be had and made, and also to charge the now existing scale of treasurer's and steward's fees, but that the Trustees were not to exercise any further rights claimed by them (other than rights connected with escheat) without leave of the Judge. And the Court, being of opinion that it is not for the benefit of such copyholders that the Trustees should exercise their rights (if any) to forfeit the estate of a copyholder for waste or otherwise, or to charge any fine (other than such sums in the nature of a fine as are now charged under the name of treasurer's fees), or to insist on the necessity of a licence to demise, directed the following inquiries and accounts:—

1. An inquiry whether there are any, and what other, rights or incidents of tenure which it will be for the advantage of the copyholders for the time being from time to time to enforce. But such inquiry is not to be proceeded with without the leave of the Judge in person.

2. An inquiry of what the property (other than the freehold reversion of the said copyhold estates) subject to the trusts of the said indenture, dated the 20th day of December, 1897, and of the said deed poll, dated the 3rd day of August, 1899, now consists.

3. Accounts of all moneys come into the hands of the Trustees of the said indenture and deed poll.

And the further consideration of the action, together with the counterclaim, was adjourned, with liberty to any of the parties to apply as they may be advised.

And whereas by an Order dated the 12th July, 1910, the Judge dispensed with personal service of the said judgment upon the copyholders who are not parties to this action, and directed that in lieu thereof advertisements be published once in the London Gazette, once in the Times, and once in the South London Press, giving notice of the said judgment, and of the date when the accounts and inquiries therein directed would be proceeded with.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that the said inquiries and accounts directed by the said judgment will be proceeded with on Tuesday, the 18th of October, 1910, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the chambers of Mr. Justice Warrington and Mr. Justice Parker, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London.

And notice is hereby also given that, after the expiration of one month from the date of the publication of this advertisement, all persons claiming to be interested as copyhold tenants of the said Manor of Old Paris Garden will be bound by the proceedings in the above action and counterclaim in the same manner as if they had been originally made a party, and that they may, on entering an appearance at the Central Office, at the Royal Courts of Justice, London, within the time aforesaid, attend the proceedings, and apply to discharge, vary, or add to the said judgment.

Dated this 13th day of July, 1910.

R. T. WATKIN WILLIAMS, Master of the Supreme Court.

GREENWOOD and GREENWOOD, 1, Mitre-court-buildings, Temple, E.C., Solicitors for the Plaintiffs and for the Defendant, Thomas Aplin Marsh.
