MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

County of Hertford.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given that the County Council of Hertford have made application to the Local Government Board for regulations to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following parts of roads within the parish of Welwyn, in the county of Hertford, that is to say:—

So much of the main road from Hatfield to Hitchin passing through the village of Welwyn as extends from the southern extremity of the School near the top of Welwyn Hill to the junction of the road with the main road leading to Ayot St. Lawrence and Kimpton;

So much of the main road leading from Welwyn past the Gasworks to the railway station as extends for a distance of 275 yards from its junction with the main road first above mentioned; and

So much of the main road from Welwyn to Stevenage as extends for a distance of 376 yards from its junction with the main road first above mentioned.
