At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of August, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of North Otterington, in the county and diocese of York.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Otterington is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford, of the foundation of King Henry the Eighth (hereinafter called the said Dean and Chapter).

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Otterington now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, now Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same Archbishoprick.

"And whereas the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of North Otterington, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of North Otterington.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have affixed their corporate or college seal to this scheme, and with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Otterington, now vested in the said Dean and Chapter as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same Archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and by his successors in the same Archbishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts, and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of August, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Llangunnoch, in the county of Carmarthen and in the diocese of Saint David's.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llangunnoch is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Magdalene Mary Anna Reid, of Spilman-street, Carmarthen, widow,

"And whereas the said Magdalene Mary Anna Reid is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llangunnoch, now vested in her as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Saint David's, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Llangunnoch, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Llangunnoch.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Magdalene Mary Anna Reid (in testimony whereof she has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Saint David's (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Llangunnoch, now vested in her, the said Magdalene Mary Anna Reid, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Saint David's, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint David's.

"And whereas the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Alfred Henry Barrow (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole of the estate term and interest in the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Billingshurst which is now vested in him, the said Alfred Henry Barrow as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles John Bishop of Chichester, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for the residue of the said term of ten thousand years.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and

His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of August, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, South Wimbledon, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, which is bounded upon the south-east partly by the parish of Merton and partly by the district chapelry of Saint Saviour, Raynes Park, upon the north-west by the parish of Wimbledon, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wimbledon from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, at the centre of the bridge which carries the roadway connecting Wimbledon Hill-road with the road called the Broadway across the main line of the London and South Western Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said roadway and along the middle of the Broadway for a distance in all of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the junction of the Broadway with Russell-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Russell-road for a distance of twenty-five chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where Russell-road meets the northern side of Kingston-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, South Wimbledon, from the said parish of Merton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of August, 1910.

The scope of the duties of the Inspector-General of the Forces, as set forth in the Order in Council dated the tenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and four, shall hereafter be limited to the United Kingdom and the Islands adjacent thereto; and the functions hitherto assigned to him in regard to those portions of the Empire outside the United Kingdom where troops under the control of the Home Government, elsewhere than in India, are stationed, shall henceforth be transferred to the officer whom His Majesty shall be pleased to appoint as the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief in the Mediterranean and Inspector-General of the Oversea Forces.

Upon the occasion of the appointment of a successor to the present Inspector-General of the Forces, the title of the appointment shall be changed to that of Inspector-General of the Home Forces.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine, certain arrangements as regards the Circuits of the Judges were approved:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Order be amended on account of certain alterations which have been made in the arrangements for the transaction of Civil business in various Counties:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

The Commission days for the several places on the respective Circuits for the Assizes to be hereafter holden shall, as far as may be practicable and the business to be done may allow, be fixed by the Judges in manner heretofore accustomed in accordance with the scheme set out in the Schedule hereto, but in fixing such Commission days—

(a) The order of towns may be changed on any Circuit when it is desirable to prevent the Assizes at any town being holden contemporaneously with special local events or for any other special reason, and

(b) The dates of the Commission days named in the schedule for any town may be altered so as to provide for anticipated business, or the anticipated absence of business, but no alteration of the dates of such Commission days which will diminish the number of Judges in town at any period of the Sittings shall be made without the consent of the Lord Chief Justice of England.

(c) For the transaction of Civil business at Liverpool and Manchester a Judge of the King's Bench Division shall be assigned to take such business for each Sitting of the High Court. The Judge so assigned shall sit for the trial of Civil Actions at such times and shall hold such adjourned Sittings at both such cities as shall be necessary to enable him to dispose so far as he conveniently can of all actions entered for trial at Liverpool not later than four weeks, and at Manchester not later than two weeks, before the last day of each Sitting.

He shall also be at liberty, subject as herein provided, to sit at either or both of such cities before as well as after the commencement of each Assize, and shall do so if the state of business so requires. Provided that he shall so far as possible sit at Liverpool and Manchester during the whole time that the Judge taking Criminal business is sitting there, and shall not unless it is unavoidable sit at either of such cities while Assizes are being held at Appleby, Carlisle, or Lancaster.

The list of Liverpool and Manchester Civil business shall be in charge of such assigned Judge for each Sittings. The Judge holding a Criminal Assize at Liverpool and Manchester shall when not required for Criminal business assist as heretofore in the trial of Civil actions whenever the Sittings for Civil business are being held during the time he is at Liverpool and Manchester.

At each Assizes Liverpool shall be the first city and Manchester the second city. Provided that it shall be lawful for the Lord Chief Justice of England, by notice directed to the Clerk of Assize for the Northern Circuit to direct that Manchester shall be the first and Liverpool shall be the second city for any judicial year commencing the twelfth of October. Such notice shall be given not later than the first of July preceding the commencement of each judicial year and shall be published by the Clerk of Assize at Liverpool and Manchester and elsewhere in such manner as he shall think convenient for making the change publicly known.

The schedule to this Order shall be substituted for the schedule to the Order in Council relating to Circuits dated the twenty-eighth of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine, and the said Order in Council shall take effect subject to the substitution made by this Order, and any copy thereof hereafter printed may be printed with the substitution made by this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

NOTE.—Where Sunday falls on a date different from that which is noted in the Schedule, Commission days will have to be altered accordingly.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1910," and shall be read as one with the China and Corea Order in Council, 1904, hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Order," and the Principal Order, the China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1907, the China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1909, and this Order may be cited together as "The China and Corea Orders in Council, 1904 to 1910."

2.—(1.) Where a British subject is sentenced to imprisonment for a term of not less than six months, the Court may, as part of the sentence, order that he be deported.

(2.) Article 83, sub-articles 4 to 11, of the Principal Order and Article 6 of the China and Corea (Amendment) Order in Council, 1907, shall apply to deportations under this article.

3. Where a person not belonging to Hong Kong is sentenced to imprisonment and deportation under Article 2, and is sent for imprisonment to Hong Kong, the Governor of Hong Kong shall, if lawfully empowered thereto, deport such person to the place to which he was ordered by the Court to be deported; and if not so empowered, the Governor shall cause such person to be sent back to Shanghai.

4.—(1.) And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Bart., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 2nd day of August, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section one of the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council dated the nineteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to direct the discontinuance forthwith of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish of Yatton Keynell, in the county of Wilts, and in the churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said parish and churchyard be postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish of Yatton Keynell, in the county of Wilts, and in the churchyard, be postponed to the thirty-first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Whitehall, August 5, 1910.

The KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Archer Cartwright, Under Manager, Russell Colliery.

Isaiah Walker, Miner, Russell Colliery.

Samuel Slater, Miner, Russell Colliery.

Anthony Willets, Miner, Russell Colliery.

On the 17th April, 1910, an underground fire, in which the lives of two workmen were lost, occurred at the Russell Colliery, near Dudley, Staffs—a district where the workings are peculiarly liable to spontaneous combustion.

The fire broke out at a point about 114 yards from the bottom of the downcast shaft, and when it was discovered by smoke issuing from the upcast shaft, the Manager of the mine, accompanied by several workmen, proceeded to the spot to try and put the fire out. After working for a considerable time in the heat and smoke, two of the party, Archer Cartwright (Under Manager) and Anthony Willets, were sent to the surface for tools, leaving the Manager and two workmen to proceed with the work of fighting the fire. In their absence, both the Manager, who, feeling the effects of the smoke, had walked back a short distance, and the two workmen were overcome by the noxious atmosphere. Willets, on his return, found the Manager unconscious and dragging him, in spite of his very heavy weight, to the bottom of the shaft, brought him safely to the surface. Willets and Cartwright and a third man named Samuel Slater then descended the shaft in order to try and rescue the two workmen who had succumbed. They found them and attempted to carry them back; but Willets, who was already exhausted by his previous efforts, gave signs of giving way, and Cartwright and Slater also feeling ill-effects, they were all compelled to return and leave the two unfortunate workmen. On their way back, Willets fell down unconscious, and Cartwright and Slater, being unable to help him, made their way with difficulty to the surface. They were able, however, to tell Isaiah Walker of Willets' condition, and he volunteered to try and bring Willets out. Descending the mine alone, and crawling on his hands and knees under the smoke, Walker managed to reach Willets, whom he found lying on his face about 27 yards from the shaft. Seizing him by the shoulders, Walker managed to drag Willets to the shaft bottom, and then took him up in the cage. Walker again went down the shaft in the hope of reaching the two workmen left in the mine; but this time he was unsuccessful, and was forced to come back.

Whitehall, August 5, 1910.

In addition to the names which appeared in the London Gazette of the 22nd July, the King has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class for gallant conduct in connection with the Whitehaven Colliery disaster to—
