"Whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to the said archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stow and with respect to some of the rural deaneries within such archdeaconries are desirable and should be carried into effect and we are of opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, firstly, the two rural deaneries of Aveland, Number 1, and Aveland, Number 2, in the said archdeaconry of Lincoln, shall be united, and the two rural deaneries of Candleshoe, Number 1, and Candleshoe, Number 2, also in the said archdeaconry of Lincoln, shall be united, and secondly, a new rural deanery shall be formed within the said archdeaconry of Stow and shall be named 'the rural deanery of Gaistor,' the rural deanery of Walshcroft in the said archdeaconry of Stow, shall be divided into two rural deaneries, and thirdly, the said archdeaconries of Lincoln and Stow shall comprise and consist of those rural deaneries the names of which are set down in order under its name and are numbered consecutively in the schedule to this scheme annexed, and that the name which in such schedule is given to any rural deanery shall be the name thereof, and that every parish or cure or church the name of which is set down in numbered order under the name of any rural deanery in the first column of the said schedule shall belong to and be and form part of the rural deanery and archdeaconry under the names of which it is set down as aforesaid, and shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Rural Dean of the rural deanery, and of the Archdeacon of the archdeaconry under which it is so set down as aforesaid, and shall not belong to or be a part of any other rural deanery or archdeaconry, nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other Rural Dean or Archdeacon.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other matter or thing with respect to the matters aforesaid, or any of them by virtue of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.
