Signals with regard to Submarine Vessels.

Signals.—A square flag with one yellow and one red horizontal stripe, hoisted at any of the signal stations on the coasts of France, Algeria, Tunis, and Indo-China, indicates that submarine vessels are exercising submerged in the vicinity. A steam boat or a torpedo boat escorting a submarine vessel submerged, carries at the stern, instead of the national flag, a white ball, and at the bow the yellow and red flag described above. Every vessel seeing the above-mentioned signals, should steer so as to give a wide berth to the escorting vessel, and to pass astern of her. Whilst engaged in exercises, whether in harbour or at sea, submarine vessels carry at the stern the national flag, and at the bow the yellow and red flag described above. Every vessel seeing these signals, should keep out of the way of the submarine vessel, which though temporarily navigating on the surface, should be considered as still engaged in manœuvres.
