And upon reading the said petition an affidavit of Charles Carr, filed the 3rd day of September, 1910 (verifying the said petition), and the London Gazette dated the 2nd day of September, 1910, and the Gloucester Journal dated the 3rd day of September, 1910, each containing an advertisement of the said petition, the affidavits of Robert Henry Tetley and Charles Ewart Jeens, both filed the 3rd day of September, 1910, and of Albert William Healey, filed the 8th day of September, 1910, and of John Ernest Bullock, Thomas Ernest Healing, Frederick William Smith, Effie Vick, Charles France Drinkwater, John Talbot Fenton Andrewes Ingram and Alfred Lionel Lane, all filed the 9th day of September, 1910. And it is ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidator of the said Company, or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of such Liquidator, or of any Manager, Accountant, Auctioneer, Broker or other person be paid out of the assets of the said Company unless such costs, charges, expenses or remuneration shall have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar. And it is ordered that all such costs, charges, expenses and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly. And it is ordered that the costs of the petitioners (including allowances to Counsel for settling the said petition and the said affidavits of the said Robert Henry Tetley and Charles Ewart Jeens and for advising upon evidence) and a further fee (there being no local bar within twenty miles of Gloucester), and of the several above mentioned creditors supporting the said petition be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company, and that on such taxation one set of costs is to be allowed the said creditors supporting the said petition. And the creditors, contributories, and Liquidator of the said Company, and all other persons interested, are to be at liberty to apply generally as there may be occasion.
