ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 27th September 1910.)

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient in order that no Sub-district of Mansfield Registration District may be included partly within two Administrative Counties, that Teversall Civil Parish, which is situated in the Administrative County of Nottingham, should be transferred from Pleasley Sub-district to Sutton-in-Ashfield Sub-district. And whereas it is also expedient that the reduced Sub-district of Pleasley, which will consist of Civil Parishes comprised entirely within the Administrative County of Derby, should in future be called and known as Shirebrook Sub-district.

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, nineteen hundred and ten.

Witness my hand this 27th day of September, nineteen hundred and ten.

Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 27th September, 1910.)

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient in order that no ward of Chester County Borough may be divided between the Sub-districts of Chester Registration District, that the small part of Trinity Ward, containing no population, now situated in Chester Castle Sub-district should be transferred to Chester Cathedral Sub-district;

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on 1st day of October, nineteen hundred and ten.

Witness my hand this 27th day of September, nineteen hundred and ten.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR-GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

(Dated 28th September, 1910.)

Whereas by the 21st section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar-General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient in order that Bromyard Registration District may consist of two Sub-districts respectively co-extensive with the Relief Districts of the Poor Law Union of the same name that Bromyard Sub-district should be abolished and its constituent Civil Parishes dealt with in the following manner (a) that Felton, Moreton Jeffries, Stoke Lacy, and Ullingswick should be added to Bishop's Frome Sub-district; and (b) that Bredenbury, Bromyard, Grendon Bishop, Little Cowarne, Pancombe with Grendon Warren, Wacton, and Winslow should be added to Brockhampton Sub-district in future to be called and known as Bromyard Sub-district.

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on 1st day of October, nineteen hundred and ten.

Witness my hand this 28th day of September, nineteen hundred and ten.

Bernard Mallet, Registrar-General.
