A PROCLAMATION

For Dissolving the present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday, the fifteenth day of December next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly: and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on the said Thursday, the fifteenth day of December next: and We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament: and do hereby further declare that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have given Order that Our Chancellor of that Part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain and Our Chancellor of Ireland do respectively, upon Notice thereof, forthwith issue out Writs, in due form and according to Law, for calling a new Parliament: and We do hereby also, by this Our Royal Proclamation under Our Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, require Writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by Our said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament to be duly returned to, and give their Attendance in, Our said Parliament on Tuesday, the thirty-first day of January next, which Writs are to be returnable in due course of Law.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the first year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS We have in Our Council thought fit to declare Our pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland on Tuesday, the thirty-first day of January next ensuing the date hereof: In order, therefore, to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday, the fifteenth day of December next, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law); and the Lord Clerk Register and the two Principal Clerks of the Session appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to take the votes of the said Peers, and immediately after such election made and duly examined to certify the names of the sixteen Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly command and require the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever: And We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, ten days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness Ourselves at Buckingham Palace this twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the first year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty, having been this day pleased by His Royal Proclamation to dissolve the present Parliament and to declare the calling of another, is hereby further pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively, and upon notice of this His Majesty's Order, forthwith cause Writs to be issued in due form and according to Law for the calling of a new Parliament, to meet at the City of Westminster on Tuesday, the thirty-first day of January next: which Writs are to be returnable in due course of Law.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the respective Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be forthwith dissolved: and the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain is to cause Writs to be prepared and issued in the usual manner for that purpose.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

It is this day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do, upon notice of this His Majesty's Order, forthwith cause Writs to be issued in due form of Law, for electing new Members of the Convocations of the Clergy, which Writs are to be returnable on Wednesday, the first day of February next.

Almeric FitzRoy.

For a Public Holiday.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS We did, by Our Royal Proclamation, dated the seventh day of November instant, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Bank Holidays Act, 1871," command that Tuesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next, be observed as a Bank Holiday throughout those parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Wales, and Ireland, and every part thereof: And whereas We consider it desirable that the said twenty-seventh day of December next should be observed as a Public Holiday throughout the said parts of Our United Kingdom: Now, therefore, We do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, and in pursuance of the provisions of "The Holidays Extension Act, 1875," and "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1876," appoint Tuesday, the twenty-seventh day of December next as a special day to be observed as a Public Holiday throughout the said parts of Our United Kingdom called England and Wales, and Ireland, and every part thereof, and We do by this Our Royal Proclamation command the said day to be so observed, and all Our loving subjects to order themselves accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the First year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION

Determining New Designs for Gold and Bronze Coins.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS under section eleven of the Coinage Act, 1870, We have power, with the advice of Our Privy Council, from time to time by proclamation to determine the design for any coin:

And whereas it appears to Us desirable to determine new designs for the gold and bronze coins mentioned in the First Schedule to the Coinage Act, 1870:

We, therefore, in pursuance of the said enactment, and of all other powers enabling Us in that behalf, do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, proclaim, direct, and ordain as follows:—

1. The designs for the said gold and bronze coins shall be as follows:—

GOLD COINS.

(1) Five-Pound Piece.—Every five-pound piece shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy with the inscription "GEORGIUS V DEI GRA: BRITT: OMN: REX FID: DEF: IND: IMP:" and for the reverse the image of Saint George armed, sitting on horseback, attacking the dragon with a sword, and a broken spear upon the ground, and the date of the year, with a graining upon the edge.

(2) Two-Pound Piece.—Every two-pound piece shall have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription in all respects as the five-pound piece, with a graining upon the edge.

(3) Sovereign.—Every sovereign shall have for the obverse impression the aforesaid effigy with the inscription "GEORGIUS V D.G. BRITT: OMN: REX F. D. IND: IMP:" and for the reverse the same impression in all respects as the five-pound piece, with a graining upon the edge.

(4) Half-Sovereign.—Every half-sovereign shall have the same obverse and reverse impression and inscription in all respects as the sovereign, with a graining upon the edge.

BRONZE COINS.

(1) Penny.—Every penny shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy with the inscription "GEORGIUS V DEI GRA: BRITT: OMN: REX FID: DEF: IND: IMP:" and for the reverse impression the figure of Britannia seated on a rock surrounded by the sea, her right hand holding a shield which rests against the rock, while in her left hand she grasps a trident, and the inscription "ONE PENNY," with the date of the year and a plain edge.

(2) Half-penny.—Every half-penny shall have the same obverse impression and inscription as the penny, and for the reverse the figure of Britannia seated as described for the penny, and the inscription "HALF-PENNY," with the date of the year and a plain edge.

(3) Farthing.—Every farthing shall have the same obverse impression and inscription as the penny, and for the reverse the figure of Britannia seated as described for the penny, and the inscription "FARTHING," with the date of the year and a plain edge.

2. This Proclamation shall come into force on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ten, and in the First year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of October in the year One thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Molash, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Molash is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in certain trustees upon trust in the first place for

Charles Stewart Hardy of Chilham Castle in the said county of Kent, esquire, during his life, and the said Charles Stewart Hardy is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Charles Stewart Hardy is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Molash should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, now Archbishop of Canterbury, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Molash which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the parish of Molash.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said Charles Stewart Hardy, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Molash as aforesaid shall be transferred to the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same Archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and by his successors in the same Archbishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four; and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas by the authority of an Instrument bearing date the twenty-second day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight and being under our common seal and under the hand and seal of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson, then Bishop of Rochester, a certain part of the parish of Nutfield, in the said county of Surrey, and at that time in the diocese of Rochester but now in the said diocese of Southwark, was assigned as a particular district to the consecrated church called Christ Church, situate at Lower Nutfield, in the said parish of Nutfield, and such particular district was called 'the particular district of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield.'

"And whereas the said particular district of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend, and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said parish of Nutfield, which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield.

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the parish of Nutfield, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, and to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, in the same county and diocese, being:—

"All that portion of the said parish of Nutfield, which is bounded upon the south and upon part of the west by the said new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the west, upon the north, and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield, from the said parish of Nutfield, at the point where the footpath leading from Sandy-lane joins Mid-street, and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of Mid-street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading past the southern side of Little Cormongers Farm to Porter's Barn, and extending thence generally eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned footpath for a distance of thirteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the fence forming the eastern boundary of the close numbered 244 upon the Ordnance Map of the civil parish of Nutfield published in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile and also upon the map or plan which is annexed to this scheme or representation, and extending thence first south-westward, then south-eastward, and then again south-westward, along the fences forming the eastern and southern boundaries of the said close for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Nutfield from the said new parish of Christ Church, Lower Nutfield."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the Patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation, and such Patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto:

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November, 1910.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, Highfield, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Pemberton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Pemberton and of the new parish (sometime district) of Saint James, Wigan, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Pemberton, and of the said new parish of Saint James, Wigan, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Matthew, Highfield, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of Liverpool, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Reverend Roland George Matthew,

Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Liverpool, rector or incumbent of the rectory of the parish of Wigan in the said county and diocese, and, as such rector or incumbent, the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Pemberton, and with the consent of James Carlton Eckersley, of Carlton Manor, Yeadon, Leeds, esquire, as the patron of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Wigan (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Pemberton and of the said new parish of Saint James, Wigan, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Matthew, Highfield, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Highfield.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The consolidated chapelry of Saint Matthew, Highfield, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Pemberton, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool, which is bounded upon part of the north and upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mark, Newtown, Pemberton, upon the east by the new parish (sometime district) of Saint James, Wigan, upon the south by the parish of Ashton in Makerfield, upon the west partly by the new parish of Billinge and partly by the new parish of Upholland, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the remaining part of the north, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Upholland from the said new parish of Pemberton crosses the middle of the Liverpool, Bolton, and Bury line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the footpath leading from Highfield into Smethurst-lane across the said line of railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Smethurst-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Smethurst-lane and of Sandon-street (which runs in continuation thereof) for a distance in all of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the junction of Sandon-street with Ormskirk-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Ormskirk-road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Pemberton from the said new parish of Saint Mark, Newtown, Pemberton.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said new parish of Saint James, Wigan, which is bounded upon the south-east by the said parish of Ashton in Makerfield, upon the west partly by the above-described portion of the said new parish of Pemberton, and partly by the said new parish of Saint Mark, Newtown, Pemberton, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark, Newtown, Pemberton, from the said new parish of Saint James, Wigan, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Pemberton loop line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway across Warrington-road and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of such line of railway for a distance of ten chains and a half or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries it across the line of the Winstanley Colliery Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned line of railway for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the middle of the road called Shelley-drive, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Shelley-drive for a distance of twelve yards or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath known as Carr's-lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Carr's-lane (thereby crossing Poolstock-lane and Hawkley Brook) for a distance of sixty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Wigan, from the said parish of Ashton in Makerfield."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.

THE Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c., which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of Their Most Sacred Majesties King George the Fifth and Queen Mary.

These are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of Their Majesties, that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full Court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness be of crimson velvet, the cape whereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine (i.e., narrow pieces of black fur); the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. :—a rim or circle with six pearls (represented by silver balls) upon the same, not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the cape powdered with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz. :—a rim or circle with pearls (represented by silver balls) thereon, sixteen in number, and not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, only the cape powdered with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half; the coronet to be composed of eight pearls (represented by silver balls) raised upon points or rays, with small strawberry leaves between, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the cape powdered with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three quarters; the coronet to be composed of four strawberry leaves and four pearls (represented by silver balls) raised upon points of the same height as the leaves, alternately, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Duchess be as before, only the cape powdered with four rows of ermine, the edging five inches broad, the train two yards; the coronet to be composed of eight strawberry leaves, all of equal height, above the rim.

And that the caps of all the said coronets be of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a tassel of gold on the top.

NORFOLK,
Earl Marshal.

NOTE.—Only those Peers and Peeresses who reply to the above intimation before the first day of January, 1911, will receive the Royal Command to attend the Ceremony of the Coronation.

It is to be understood that the above Orders refer to all English, Scottish and Irish Peers (except Peers who are minors, and Irish Peers who have seats in the House of Commons), Peeresses in their own right, the widows of Peers, and the wives of living Peers, including the wives of Irish Peers who have seats in the House of Commons.

With respect to such widows of Peers who have remarried under the rank of the Peerage, they, according to former precedent, are considered as not entitled to such summons.

As to widows of Peers who have remarried with a Peer of lower degree, their precedence, according to precedent, is that of their last husband.

Peers and Peeresses in their own right whose highest dignity is in the Peerage of Scotland or Ireland will wear robes and coronet of such dignity, as also the wife or widow of such Peer.

H. 14744.

The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated November 13th, from His Majesty's Representative at Constantinople, stating that the following decisions were taken at the meeting of the Constantinople Board of Health held on the 8th November:—

(1) The measures in force against Nikolaief and Rostof-on-Don are reduced to medical visit and disinfection for ships with passengers, and to simple medical visit for ships without passengers. These ports, however, are still regarded as "infected" ports under this year's pilgrim regulations.

(2) The decision recently announced, under which ships from ports of the Sea of Marmora and the Mediterranean, and destined for Turkish ports not situated in the Hedjaz, are considered as pilgrim ships if they carry more than 15 per cent. of deck passengers; calculated on their net tonnage, is now extended to ships coming from ports on the Black Sea.

(3) Owing to the increase of cholera in Basra, the Board has imposed five days' quarantine (the days of the voyage included) and disinfection on arrivals from that port, and also the restrictions respecting importation of food stuffs and susceptible articles, and the change of a ship's water if taken in a contaminated port.

ORDER OF THE REGISTRAR GENERAL IN ENGLAND.

Dated November 28th, 1910.

Whereas by the 21st Section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, it is enacted that the Registrar General, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, may from time to time alter Registration Sub-districts:—

1. And whereas it is expedient in order chiefly that the Municipal Borough of Durham may be comprised entirely within one Registration Sub-district that the Civil Parishes of Crossgate, Elvet, and Framwellgate (all included in the borough), and also the rural Civil Parishes of Neville's Cross and St. Oswald's should be transferred from St. Oswald (to be re-named Brandon) Sub-district of Durham Registration District to St. Nicholas (to be re-named Durham) Sub-district of the same Registration District;

2. Now, therefore, I, Bernard Mallet, Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, in exercise of the powers given me by the above-mentioned Act, and with the sanction of the Local Government Board, do hereby order and declare that the foregoing alteration shall take effect accordingly.

3. This Order shall come into operation on 1st day of December, nineteen hundred and ten.

Witness my hand this 28th day of November, nineteen hundred and ten.

(DATED 26TH NOVEMBER 1910.)

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1910; and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of the Leeds Allotment Gardens (Swine-Fever) Order of 1909, swine may be moved from any premises to which that Order applies to the exhibition mentioned in the Schedule hereto, and from such exhibition either to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse or back to the premises whence they were moved to the exhibition. The swine must be accompanied by a licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the city of Leeds and subject to the following conditions:—

- (i.) The swine shall, except while being moved by railway, be conveyed in a float, cart, or van, and by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay, and during the movement shall, so far as is practicable, be kept separate from all swine not exposed at the exhibition.
- (ii.) After completion of the movement the licence shall forthwith be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest police-station in the same District by the person in charge of the swine at the time of completing such movement.
- (iii.) Swine moved with a licence under this Order to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse shall be there detained until they are slaughtered.

- (iv.) The licence may be in the Form F set forth in the First Schedule to the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908, and if it authorises movement to premises outside the city of Leeds, a copy of it shall be sent by the Inspector granting it to the Local Authority of the District in which the premises are situate.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-sixth day of November, nineteen hundred and ten.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

Whereas the benefice of Langford, situate partly in the county of Berks and partly in the county of Oxford and wholly in the diocese of Oxford (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the fifteenth day of July last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Constantine Griffith Wodehouse (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of sixty pounds (hereinafter called the said pension); now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty-five pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said fifteenth day of July last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject, nevertheless, to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this thirteenth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Whereas the benefice of Forthampton, in the county of Gloucester and diocese of Gloucester (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the twenty-ninth day of September last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Charles Walters (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of fifty pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations) do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of thirty-four pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-ninth day of September last past and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject, nevertheless, to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this seventeenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Broughton Gifford, in the county of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the twenty-ninth day of September last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Alan Brodrick (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of ninety pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations) do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said twenty-ninth day of September last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this third day of November, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

PART II.

Section twenty-five. "The power of making or enforcing bye-laws under section one hundred and fifty-seven of the Public Health Act, 1875, as extended by section twenty-three of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, with respect to the paving of yards and open spaces in connection with dwelling-houses, shall cease to be exercisable."

Section twenty-seven. "(7) Nothing in this section shall apply to any temporary building erected or set up for use by the Territorial Force."

PART III.

Section thirty-five. "This section, so far as it relates to the deposit of material, shall have effect subject to the first proviso to section ninety-one of the Public Health Act, 1875."

"Bye-laws made in pursuance of section sixteen of the Local Government Act, 1888, for the prevention and suppression of nuisances shall not, in relation to any subject-matter of this section, be of any force or effect within the district."

Section thirty-eight. "Nothing in this section shall prejudicially affect any power or right exercisable by or attaching to an owner or occupier of premises by virtue of section twenty-two of the Public Health Act, 1875, or of section eighteen of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890."

PART IV.

Section fifty-nine. "(6) Nothing in this section shall apply to a public or circulating library which is not within the district."

Dated this 24th day of November, 1910.

SALISBURY JONES,
Clerk to the Council.

PORT OF LONDON.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the PORT OF LONDON AUTHORITY, in exercise of the powers vested in them by the Port of London Act, 1908, propose to apply the following BYE-LAWS to the docks under their jurisdiction as from the day after the same are confirmed by the Board of Trade:—

1. All rope and mooring tackle for securing any vessel either to the shore or to mooring buoys shall be fitted with such effective guards as will prevent access of rats from the vessel to the shore. For any breach of this bye-law the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

2. All possible means shall be adopted for catching and destroying rats during the stay of any vessel in dock. All empty cases and barrels shall be examined before being landed to ensure that no rats are contained therein. Any rats caught on board the vessel shall be killed, then placed in a bucket of strong disinfecting solution, and afterwards burnt in the vessel's furnace. No rats, alive or dead, shall be removed from the vessel. For any breach of this bye-law the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

3. When the discharge of cargo or the landing or embarking of passengers is not proceeding one gangway only shall be permitted to afford means of communication between any vessel and the shore. The end of the gangway near the vessel shall be whitened for a length of 10 feet. For any breach of this bye-law the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

Any person desirous of making any objection to or representation respecting such proposed bye-laws may do so in writing or otherwise on or before Wednesday, the eleventh day of January, 1911, by sending the same to or leaving or making the same at the Head

Office of the sail Port of London Authority, 109, Leadenhall-street, E.C.

By order,

Robert Philipson,

General Manager of the Port of London Authority.

No. 1681.—ENGLAND, EAST COAST—RIVER THAMES ENTRANCE.

Duke of Edinburgh Channel—Intended Alterations in Buoyage; New Channel to be Buoyed.

Position.—North Shingles Beacon, lat. 51° 32' N., long. 1° 15½' E.

1. Intended alterations in buoyage:

Alterations.—On or about the 6th December, 1910, the under-mentioned alterations will be made in the existing buoyage of the channel.

(a) No. 1 Shingles Patch Light-Buoy.

Alteration.—The present No. 1 Shingles Patch Light-Buoy will be withdrawn and replaced by a light-and-bell-buoy, painted in black and white horizontal bands, exhibiting a white group flashing light, showing a group of two flashes every ten seconds, moored about 3½ cables, south-eastward, from the position of the present buoy, as under-mentioned.

New position.—At a distance of 2 miles and 4½ cables, S. 65° E., from North Shingles Beacon.

(b) No. 2 Shingles Patch Buoy.

Alteration.—Colour will be altered from black and white vertical stripes to black and white chequers.

(c) No. 3 Shingles Patch Light-Buoy.

Alteration.—The occulting white light shown from this buoy will be replaced by an occulting red light every ten seconds. The colour of the buoy will be altered from black and white chequers to black and white vertical stripes.

(d) South-West Longsand Light-and-Bell Buoy.

Alteration.—The present light-and-bell buoy will be replaced by a black conical light-buoy, without bell, exhibiting a flashing white light every ten seconds.

2. New channel to be buoyed:

Details.—The channel to the southward of Shingles Patch will, on or about the date given above, be buoyed as follows:—

(a) Position.—At a distance of 13½ cables, S. 58° E., from North Shingles Beacon.

Description.—A red conical light-buoy, marked "No. 1 South Edinburgh," exhibiting an occulting white light every ten seconds.

(b) Position.—At a distance of 16½ cables, S. 46° E., from North Shingles Beacon.

Description.—A can buoy, painted in red and white chequers, marked "No. 2 South Edinburgh."

(c) Position.—At a distance of 8½ cables, S. 69° E., from North Shingles Beacon.

Description.—A red conical buoy, marked "No. 3 South Edinburgh."

(d) Position.—At a distance of 4½ cables, S. 63° E., from North Shingles Beacon.

Description.—A can buoy, painted in red and white vertical stripes, marked "No. 4 South Edinburgh."

(e) Position.—At a distance of 5½ cables, N. 77° E., from North Shingles Beacon.

Description.—A red conical buoy, marked "No. 5 South Edinburgh."

(f) Position.—At a distance of 5 cables, N. 17° W., from North Shingles Beacon.

Description.—A can-shaped light-buoy, painted in red and white chequers, marked "North-East Shingles," exhibiting a group flashing red light, showing a group of two flashes every ten seconds.

Remarks.—When the above alterations and additions in buoyage have been carried out, the channel between Shingles Patch and Long Sand will be known as "North Edinburgh Channel," and the channel between Shingles Patch and Shingles Sand as "South Edinburgh Channel."

In view of the comparative narrowness of these channels, it is recommended that vessels inward bound should, when circumstances permit, use the North Channel, and those outward bound the South Channel.

Note.—The new editions of charts Nos. 1607 and 1610, dated November, 1910, will show the above alterations in buoyage; but chart No. 1406, of the same date, does not do so.

Variation.—15° W.

Charts affected.—No. 1607, North Foreland to the Nore; No. 1610, North Foreland to Orfordness; No. 1406, Dover and Calais to Orfordness and Scheveningen.

Publications.—North Sea Pilot, Part III, 1905, pages 342, 343, 347; Revised Supplement, 1910; Channel Pilot, Part I, 1908, pages 328, 329, 334; Notice to Mariners, No. 1583 of 1910.

Board of Trade.—Session 1911.

WITNEY AND DISTRICT GAS.

(Provisional Order.)

(Application to the Board of Trade by the Witney Gas and Coke Company Limited for a Provisional Order for power to maintain and continue the existing Gasworks at Witney, and to construct further Works and to manufacture and supply Gas to and within the Parish and Urban District of Witney and the Parishes of Hailey, Minster Lovell, Curbridge, Cogges and Ducklington, in the Rural District of Witney, all in the County of Oxford; Supply of Gas in Bulk; Breaking up Streets, &c.; Patent Rights; Rates and Charges; Regulation of Existing and Increase of Capital; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Witney Gas and Coke Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") intend, on or before the 23rd day of December, 1910, to make application to the Board of Trade for a Provisional Order (to be confirmed by Parliament in the next Session) under the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to maintain and continue, and from time to time to alter, improve, enlarge and renew their existing gasworks at Witney, with the retort houses, gas holders, receivers, purifiers, meters, buildings, machinery, apparatus and works for the manufacture, storage and supply of gas and of coke and of other residual products obtained in the manufacture of gas and matters producible from such products upon the lands following, belonging to and held by the Company, viz.:—

All that piece or parcel of land belonging to the Company, and upon which the existing gasworks of the Company are constructed, containing by admeasurement one acre or thereabouts situate in Gashouse-lane, Witney, in the county of Oxford, bounded on the north by land belonging to Nathaniel John Graham Ravenor, on the south by a field and yard belonging to Messrs. Clinch and Company Limited, on the east by the River Windrush, and on the west by property belonging to the Witney Coffee Tavern Company Limited.

To enable the Company to hold the before-mentioned lands and hereditaments and any easements or rights in or over any such lands and hereditaments.

To authorize the Company to manufacture and store gas in and upon the before-mentioned lands, and to supply and sell gas for public, private, trade and for other purposes from their gasworks to and within the said parish and urban district of Witney, and the parishes of Hailey, Minster Lovell, Curbridge, Cogges and Ducklington, in the rural district of Witney, all in the county of Oxford, and to manufacture, convert, utilise, sell and dispose of coal, tar, coke, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, oil and all other residual products obtained in the manufacture of gas and matters producible therefrom, and to sell and dispose of the same at the works of the Company, and to carry on there the business usually carried on by gas companies.

To authorize the Company to acquire and hold patent rights and licences in relation to the manufacture or distribution of gas, and the utilization of the residual products obtained therefrom or the production of artificial light.

To empower the Company for the general purposes of their undertaking to acquire and hold other lands by agreement in addition to the lands before described, and upon such lands to make and store gas, and to supply and sell gas within the parish and urban district of Witney, and the parishes of Hailey, Minster Lovell, Curbridge, Cogges and Ducklington, in the rural district of Witney aforesaid.

To authorize the Company on the one hand, and any company, urban authority, or rural district council or parish council, or any authority, person or persons, on the other hand, to make and carry into effect contracts and agreements for the supply of gas, in bulk or otherwise, and for lighting and supplying all fittings and other things, and for performing all acts incidental to lighting any streets, places or buildings (including the lighting and extinguishing of lamps), and the Order will preserve and confirm any existing contracts and agreements relating to any of the matters aforesaid.

To authorize the Company from time to time to extend, repair and renew their mains, pipes and works within the proposed limits of supply, and for that purpose to open and break up the soil and pavement of any streets, roads, highways, lanes and railways, tramways, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of supply, and therein and thereunder to lay down, extend, repair and maintain any mains, service pipes, valves, syphons and other works connected with or incident to the supply of gas.

To enable the Company to apply their funds to the purposes of the Provisional Order and to define and regulate the capital invested in the existing gasworks and for the general purposes of the undertaking and the lands acquired by the Company for the existing and future works to be constructed under the authority of the said Order, to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of ordinary or preference shares or stock, and by borrowing or by some or one of these modes.

To enable the Company to manufacture, purchase or hire and supply gas meters, gas columns and lamps, fittings, gas stoves and cooking and other apparatus, and also to manufacture, purchase, repair, let or deal in and contract for doing work in connection with fitting tubes, meters, pipes and apparatus, stoves, ranges and apparatus for heating, and also engines and machines for the production of motive power for domestic, agricultural, manufacturing and other purposes by means of gas, and all articles and things in any way connected with gasworks or with the supply of gas.

To levy and recover rates and charges for the supply of gas and residual products and for the supply, hire or use of meters, fittings, columns, lamps, engines and other articles, apparatus and things supplied by the Company, and generally to confer all such further or other powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid or any of them.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects or purposes of the Provisional Order and to confer other rights and privileges, and to incorporate with the intended Order all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863 and 1869, the Lands Clauses Acts (except the provisions thereof relating to the purchase and taking of land otherwise than by agreement).

To purchase by agreement or take on lease or otherwise acquire for the general purposes of the undertaking other than the manufacture and storing of gas such other lands as may hereafter be required, subject to such regulations and conditions as may be defined by the Order.

On or before the 30th day of November instant a plan of the existing and proposed works, prepared in accordance with the regulations of the Board of Trade, and also a map of the district with the boundary of the limits of supply and the lands or site of the existing and proposed works shown thereon, and showing the lands proposed to be used for the manufacture and storage of gas and of residual products arising in the manufacture of gas, together with a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Oxford, at his office at the County Hall, Oxford, at the office of the Urban District Council of Witney at 28, Bridge-street, Witney, and at the offices of the Rural District Council of Witney, and of the Witney Gas and Coke Company Limited, at 22, High-street, Witney, and a similar deposit will also be made at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London.

The draft of the proposed Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade aforesaid on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies of the said draft Provisional Order when deposited, and of the Provisional Order when made, may be obtained by all persons applying for the same at the registered office of the Company, Messrs. Ravenors, 22, High-street, Witney, Oxfordshire, Solicitors, or of Messrs. W. and W. M. Bell, 3a, Dean's-yard, Westminster, London, Parliamentary Agents, at the price of one shilling each.

And notice is hereby further given, that every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting this application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London, on or before the 15th day of January, 1911, and that copies of the objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents for the Company, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections the objectors or their agents must state that a copy of the same has been forwarded to the Company or to their Solicitors or Agents.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1910.

Local Government Board.—Session 1911.

LIVERPOOL CORPORATION (FAZAKERLEY) GAS (PROVISIONAL ORDER).

(Application to Local Government Board by Corporation of Liverpool for Provisional Order for adoption of Metropolitan Argand Burner No. 2; Defining Conditions and Method of Testing; Alteration or Amendment of Liverpool Corporation (Fazakerley) Gas Order, 1906; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Local Government Board by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster (hereinafter called "the Corporation"), for a Provisional Order under the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act (1870) Amendment Act, 1873, and the Public Health Act, 1875 (to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing Session), for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To make provision for the adoption of the Metropolitan Argand Burner No. 2 or any other burner which the Local Government Board or the Board of Trade may approve under the provisions of the intended Order as a standard burner in substitution for the burner now in use for the official testing of the illuminating power of gas supplied by the Corporation in the parish and township of Fazakerley in the city of Liverpool.

2. To define the conditions and method of testing with the said standard burner and the regulations to be observed in order to correct the volume of the gas consumed therein to the standard atmospheric pressure and temperature.

3. To incorporate with the intended Order with or without modification all or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and the Public Health Act, 1875, and to confer on the Corporation all necessary powers for the purposes aforesaid, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might impede or interfere with such purposes, and to confer other rights and privileges.

4. To vary, alter, amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Order all or some of the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore referred to, and of the Liverpool Corporation (Fazakerley) Gas Order, 1906, confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (Gas) Act, 1906, and any other Act or Order relating to the City or to the Corporation or their gas undertaking.

On or before the 30th day of November instant a copy of this advertisement will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lancaster at his office at Preston, and also at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

On or before the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Local Government Board aforesaid, and on and after that day copies will be furnished to all persons applying for the same at the price of one shilling each at the offices of the undersigned.

When the Provisional Order has been made by the Local Government Board printed copies thereof will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lancaster at his office aforesaid, and copies will be supplied to all persons applying for the same at the offices of the undersigned on payment of one shilling for each copy.

And notice is hereby further given that every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Local Government Board, or of bringing before them any objection respecting this application, may do so by letter addressed to the Secretary of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London, to be lodged with the said Board on or before the 15th day of January, 1911, and that copies of such objections must at the same time be sent to the offices of either of the undersigned, and that in forwarding to the Local Government Board such objections the objectors or their agents must state that a copy of the same has been furnished to the Promoters or their agents.

Dated this 24th day of November, 1910.

Light Railway Commission.—November 1910.

LEAGRAVE AND LUTON LIGHT RAILWAY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the present month of November to the Light Railway Commissioners by George Balfour and Andrew Henry Beatty, both of 22a, College-hill, Cannon-street, in the city of London, for an Order under the Light Railways Act, 1896, to authorize a Company to be incorporated by the Order to make and maintain in the county of Bedford the light railway hereinafter described (that is to say):—

A railway situate in the parish and borough of Luton and the parishes of Limbury and Leagrave in the rural district of Luton, commencing in the parish and borough of Luton in New Bedford-road by a junction with Tramway No. 3 authorized by the Luton Corporation Tramways Order, 1905, at a point 70 yards or thereby measured in a southerly direction from the boundary of the borough of Luton and terminating in the parish of Leagrave in the rural district of Luton in Marsh-road at a point 24 yards or thereby measured in a south-westerly direction from the Three Horseshoes public-house.

The intended railway will be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, and the motive power proposed to be used thereon is steam, electrical or any other mechanical power in addition to or in substitution for animal power.

Powers to acquire lands, to levy tolls, rates and charges, to enter into working and other agreements with the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Luton and their lessees, with all other powers usually granted in respect of a railway undertaking will be conferred by the Order on the Company.

A fuller description of the intended railway and proposed powers has been or will be published in the "Luton Reporter" of the 24th and 28th days of November instant, a paper published at Luton in the county of Bedford.

Plans and sections of the intended railway, a book of reference to such plans, an Ordnance Map with the line of the intended railway delineated thereon, and a copy of the draft Order will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the Clerk of the County Council of the county of Bedford at his office at Bedford, and at the office of the undersigned Parliamentary Agent.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1910.
