

and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Southfleet, in the county of Kent, now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one, and made or expressed to be made between Clarence Filmer Collard and Mabel, the wife of Dick Harrison, of the one part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, the lands and hereditaments described in the schedule hereto annexed became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed;

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments, or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any part of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time, as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The Schedule to which the foregoing Scheme has reference:—

"All those pieces or parcels of land containing together fifty-two acres three roods and twenty-one perches or thereabouts more or less, together with the messuage or tenement and cottages and buildings erected and being thereon situate in the parish of Southfleet, in the county of Kent, more particularly delineated and coloured red on the plan drawn in the margin of the said indenture."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of Rochester.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 26th day of November, 1892, provision was made for the prosecution and regulation of Appeals from the Court of Queen's Bench of the Province of Manitoba in the Dominion of Canada to Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas by an Act of the said Province of Manitoba passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King Edward VII, and being Chapter 18, entitled "An Act respecting a Court of Appeal for Manitoba and to amend the King's Bench Act" there was enacted and now exists a Court of Appeal for Manitoba called "The Court of Appeal" consisting of a Chief Justice styled Chief Justice of Manitoba, and three other judges called Judges of Appeal, which Act provided that after the coming into force thereof the said Court of Appeal should be vested with and should exercise all the rights, power, and duties theretofore held, exercised, and enjoyed under and by virtue of "The King's Bench Act" or any other statute of the said Province or of the Dominion of Canada by the Court of King's
