MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF LONDON.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of Section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the London County Council have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following roads or parts of roads within the metropolitan borough of Hampstead, that is to say:—

The Grove and Holly Hill (otherwise known as Holly Bush Hill), extending from a point 25 yards north of the northern extremity of the Hampstead Waterworks Reservoir to the junction of Holly Hill with Heath Street; and

So much of Heath Street as extends from the junction with Holly Hill to its junction with Church Row:

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 6th day of September, 1910, and in the "Hampstead and Highgate Express" of the 10th day of September, 1910:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the County Hall, Spring Gardens, London, S.W., on Wednesday, the 18th day of January, 1911, at a quarter past ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a local inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application.

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such inquiry
