PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint Peter, Bilton, in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Bilton, is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Frederic Arthur Scott, of the city and county of the city of Kingston-upon-Hull, solicitor.

“And whereas the said Frederic Arthur Scott is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Bilton, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of the said diocese of York, and his successors in the same archbishoprick.

“And whereas the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Peter, Bilton, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Peter, Bilton.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederic Arthur Scott (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Peter, Bilton, now vested in him the said Frederic Arthur Scott as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same archbishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Hornsey, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, between that benefice and a certain other benefice, namely, the benefice (being a district chapelry) of Saint George, Hornsey, which said last named benefice is situate in the said county of Middlesex and in the said diocese of London.

“ Whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London, is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Hornsey, and also of the said benefice of Saint George, Hornsey.

“ And whereas the present endowments of the said benefice of Hornsey comprise amongst other things the sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence India three pounds per centum per annum Stock held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the rector or incumbent of the said benefice of Hornsey, and as part of the endowments of the same benefice.

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint George,

Hornsey, is at present insufficiently endowed, and that after the transfer to or for the benefit of the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint George, Hornsey, of the said sum of India three pounds per centum per annum Stock the said benefice of Hornsey will still be sufficiently endowed.

“ And whereas it has been represented to us, and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the district chapelry of Saint George, Hornsey, aforesaid, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Hornsey which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“ And whereas the said benefice of Hornsey is now full of a clerk, the rector or incumbent thereof being the Reverend Francis Norman Thicknesse, clerk in Holy Orders, who is willing that the said apportionment shall be made accordingly, and has executed this scheme in token of such his willingness.

“ Now therefore, with the consent, of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate, and with the consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, acting as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid, and also with the consent of the said Francis Norman Thicknesse, acting as rector or incumbent of the said benefice of Hornsey, in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this scheme (the Archbishop and the Bishop sealing the same with their several episcopal seals) We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day of the date upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme is published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any such duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, the said sum of three thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence India three pounds per centum per annum Stock shall cease to form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Hornsey, and shall be held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in trust for and for the benefit of the incumbent of said benefice of Saint George, Hornsey, and as part of the endowments of that benefice.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making provision in part for the competent maintenance of the spiritual person officiating in the church of Saint David, Paddington, in the suburbs of the city of London and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the Reverend Thomas Smith, clerk in Holy Orders, being a native of the Principality of Wales, has been licensed by the Bishop of the said diocese to officiate in the said church of Saint David, Paddington, which said church was duly consecrated on the nineteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, for the performance of Divine Service according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England in the Welsh language, and it appears to us to be expedient that further provision should forthwith be made for the more competent maintenance of the said Thomas Smith or other the spiritual person who shall for the time being be licensed by the Bishop of the diocese to officiate in the Welsh language in the said church of Saint David, Paddington.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that out of the moneys mentioned in the twelfth section of the said Act there shall be paid by us to the said Thomas Smith or to any one other spiritual person being a native of the Principality of Wales who may be licensed by the Bishop of the diocese for the time being to officiate in the said church of Saint David, Paddington, in the Welsh language, an annual sum of fifty pounds by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, the same sum to commence and be payable as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, such payment to be in addition to the annual sum of fifty pounds which is payable to the same person under an Order of His late Majesty in Council dated the first day of March in the year one thousand nine hundred and seven.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the fifth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and published in the London Gazette upon the eleventh day of the same month, a consolidated chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint John, situate at Meads, in the parish of Eastbourne, in the said county and diocese, and the consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Meads.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint John, Meads, has, under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Meads, should be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint John, Meads, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said parish of Eastbourne, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink, shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint John, Meads.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be dissevered from the parish of Eastbourne, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint John, Meads, in the same county and diocese, being:—All that portion of the said parish of Eastbourne, which is bounded upon the south-west, upon the south, and upon the south-east by the said new parish of Saint John, Meads, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Meads, from the said parish of Eastbourne, at the junction of Meads-road with Carlisle-road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Carlisle-road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway known as Paradise Drive, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Paradise Drive for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with the footpath leading past the southern side of Paradise Plantation into the road leading from the Duke's Drive to Eastdean, and extending thence first south-westward, then generally westward, and then again south-westward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of sixty-three chains or thereabouts to the point where the said footpath joins the said road leading from the Duke's Drive to Eastdean, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Eastbourne from the said new parish of Saint John, Meads."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. "Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Friern Barnet, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Peter le Poor, Friern Barnet, situate as aforesaid; and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Peter le Poor, Friern Barnet.'

should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Peter le Poor, Friern Barnet, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that, so long as the Reverend Edward Gage Hall, clerk in Holy Orders, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Friern Barnet, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of Saint Peter le Poor, Friern Barnet, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Edward Gage Hall, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Peter le Poor, Friern Barnet, being:—All that part of the parish of Friern Barnet, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say, upon the east by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Alexandra Park, in the said county and diocese, upon the south-east partly by the said new parish and partly by the new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, in the said county and diocese, upon the west and upon part of the north by the last-named new parish, and upon the remaining part of the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, from the said parish of Friern Barnet, crosses the middle of Coppett's-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Coppett's-road for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Colney Hatch-lane, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Colney Hatch-lane for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to a point north-westward of and three chains distant from its junction with Cromwell-road, and extending thence generally north-eastward in a line parallel to and three chains distant from the middle of Cromwell-road for a distance of twenty-seven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Friern Barnet from the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Alexandra Park."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester, (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Birling, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ Church, situate at Lower Birling, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Lower Birling.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Reginald, Bishop of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church called Christ Church, situate at Lower Birling as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Lower Birling, being:—All that part of the parish of Birling, in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester, which is bounded upon the south by the parish of East Malling, in the said county and diocese, upon the east partly by the last named parish and partly by the parish of Snodland, in the said county and diocese, upon the north by the last named parish, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Snodland from the said parish of Birling at the north-eastern corner of the close numbered 214 upon the Ordnance map of the civil parish of Birling, published in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile, and upon the map or plan annexed to this representation, and extending thence first south-westward and then south-eastward along the fences dividing the said close numbered 214 and the close numbered 211 upon the said maps from the close numbered 210 upon the said maps for a distance of twelve chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the point where the fence dividing the said close numbered 211 from the said close numbered 210 meets the northern side of the road leading from Birling to Snodland, which point is opposite to the junction of such road with the road leading past Austen's Farm and Horn Street to the house known as Sandhole, and extending thence first south-eastward across the said road leading from Birling to Snodland to a point in the middle of the said road leading to Sandhole and then first southward, then eastward, and then again southward, along the middle of such road for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the fence which divides the closes numbered 120 and 121 upon the said maps, and extending thence first eastward to the fence forming the western boundary of the said close numbered 121 and then generally southward along the fences forming the western boundary of the said close numbered 121 and of the closes numbered 118, 111 and 63 upon the said maps for a distance of 31 chains or thereabouts to the point where the fence forming the western boundary of the said close numbered 63 crosses the boundary which divides the said parish of Birling from the said parish of East Malling."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called "the said benefice") of Bilsby, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bilsby is vested for an estate in fee simple free from encumbrances in the Venerable John Bond, of the Precentory, Lincoln, Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Stow, in the said diocese of Lincoln, in his private capacity.

"And whereas the said John Bond is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bilsby, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Edward Lee, now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, and his successors Bishops of Lincoln.

"And whereas the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Bilksby which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Bilksby.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said John Bond (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bilksby, now vested in him the said John Bond, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 26 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, after reciting that, "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra parochial may, in some instances, with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the archbishop of the province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes: And the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to His Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make an order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Carr, Lord Bishop of Peterborough, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"I, Edward Carr, Bishop of Peterborough, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Pluralities Act, 1838, do hereby represent to Your Grace as follows:—

"There is in my diocese and in the county and archdeaconry of Leicester a consolidated chapelry known as the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak which contains a population of six hundred and thirty-five or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice from all sources is one hundred pounds or thereabouts.

"There is also in my diocese and in the said county and archdeaconry a parish contiguous to the said consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak, known as the parish of Markfield, which contains a population of one thousand five hundred and sixty-eight people or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice from all sources is two hundred and fifty pounds or thereabouts.

"There is also in my diocese and in the said county a parish known as the parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington, also contiguous to the said consolidated chapelry, which contains a population of four thousand nine hundred and eighty-three persons or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice from all sources is four hundred and forty pounds or thereabouts.

"A certain area shown by green hatching on the plan hereto annexed, which now lies within the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak, and which contains a population of two hundred and twenty or thereabouts, may from its vicinity to the newly erected church in the civil parish of Bardon, which is in the said ecclesiastical parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington, with great advantage to the population be separated from the said consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak and annexed to the parish of Hugglescote.

"A certain area shown by brown hatching on the said plan, which now lies within the said parish of Markfield, and which contains a population of three hundred and eighty or thereabouts, may with great advantage to the population be separated from the said parish of Markfield and annexed to the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak.

"There is a church or chapel in the said consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak, and also in the parish of Markfield, and in the said parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington there is not only a parish church, but also a church recently erected in the civil parish of Bardon, which is within the ecclesiastical parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington.

"The church or chapel of Copt Oak aforesaid affords accommodation for one hundred and fifty persons, the church of Markfield affords accommodation for three hundred persons or thereabouts, and the said church at Bardon, in the said parish of Hugglescote, for two hundred and seventy persons.

"The population of the area proposed to be annexed to the parish of Hugglescote have, in fact, resorted to the said church at Bardon, in the said parish of Hugglescote, since the erection thereof.

"It does not appear that any of the inhabitants within the area proposed to be separated from the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak and annexed to the parish of Hugglescote have any legal right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the church of Copt Oak or that any of the inhabitants within the area proposed to be separated from the parish of Markfield and annexed to the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak have any legal rights by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any pews or sittings in the parish church of Markfield.

"The lords of the manors of Groby and Ulverscroft, Beaumanor, Belton, Sheepshed, and Whitwick are the patrons of the said consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak.

"I, the said Edward Carr, am in virtue of my bishoprick, patron of the said vicarage of Hugglescote, and William Tidd, of Loughborough, is the patron of the rectory of Markfield. The Reverend William Robert Tagart, B.A., is the present incumbent of Copt Oak, the Reverend Henry Chambers, M.A., is the present rector of Markfield, and the Reverend Henry Ellis Broughton, M.A., Honorary Canon of Peterborough Cathedral, is the present vicar of Hugglescote-cum-Donington.

"Pursuant to the directions contained in the said Act of Parliament I, the said bishop, have drawn up a scheme in writing annexed to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations may best be effected, and how the changes consequent upon such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithe rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested, and hereby submit the same to your Grace, together with the consents in writing of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices to the intent that your Grace may, if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme, certify the same to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said scheme, drawn up by the said bishop and the consents of the patrons and incumbents of the said benefices respectively, are as follows:—

SCHEME.

"The boundary of the said consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak to be altered as follows:—

"A straight imaginary line to be drawn from a point in the Copt Oak and Whitwick Road where the road to Coalville branches off from the said road, that is to say, in the middle of the junction of the three roads, such point being 160 (one hundred and sixty) yards or thereabouts to the west of the house known as Abbot's Oak, in a southerly direction to a point on the Leicester and Ashby-de-la-Zouch road, where the Markfield Parish boundary crosses the said road 220 (two hundred and twenty) yards or thereabouts to the west of the ninth milestone from Leicester, and so much of the ancient enclosure of Bardon Park as lies to the west of such imaginary line, and to the south of the northern boundary of the ancient enclosure of Bardon Park as shown by green hatching on the plan sent herewith is to be separated from the chapelry of Copt Oak and annexed to the parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington, and secondly the present boundary between the said consolidated chapelry and the said parish of Markfield to be altered as follows, namely, the said boundary as altered to begin at the aforesaid point in the Leicester and Ashby-de-la-Zouch road where the above described imaginary line terminates and to follow the present parish boundary between the parish of Stanton-under-Bardon and the said parish of Markfield to the point where such boundary turns southward towards a lane leading from Washpit Green to Stanton-under-Bardon, and to proceed from the said last-mentioned point in such parish boundary in a north-easterly direction along a straight imaginary line to a point in the Copt Oak and Markfield road where the lane to the south of White Hill joins the said road; such point being 1,340 (thirteen hundred and forty) yards or thereabouts in a southerly direction from Copt Oak School, the said altered boundary line joining the present boundary at the said point, the whole of the area between the present boundary line and the altered boundary as now proposed is to be separated from the parish of Markfield and annexed to the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak.

"The Incumbent of the parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said hereinbefore described area so proposed to be separated from the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak and annexed to the parish of Hugglescote and all the fees from churchings, marriages and burials solemnized or performed at the said church or churchyard situate at Bardon aforesaid or at the said parish church or churchyard of Hugglescote-cum-Donington in respect of the inhabitants of the district so proposed to be annexed to the said parish of Hugglescote-cum-Donington shall belong to and be received by the Incumbent of Hugglescote-cum-Donington for the time being.

"The Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the said hereinbefore described area proposed to be separated from the parish of Markfield and annexed to the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak and all the fees from churchings, marriages and burials solemnized or performed in the church or chapel of Copt Oak in respect of the inhabitants of the district so proposed to be annexed to the said consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak shall belong to and be received by the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry of Copt Oak. It is not desirable that there should be any change consequent on the said proposed alteration of boundaries in respect of glebe lands, tithe rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues or payments belonging to or charged upon the said benefices of Copt Oak, Hugglescote and Markfield.

" CONSENTS.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 1 of the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit.

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, dated the 19th day of July, 1910, to direct the discontinuance of burials forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Saint Margaret, in the parish of Yatton Keynell, in the county of Wilts; and, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard.

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Orders in Council dated respectively the 2nd day of August, 1910, and the 28th day of November, 1910, to order that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the said churchyard be postponed to the 31st day of October, 1910, and the 31st day of December, 1910, respectively.

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard should be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard of the parish church of Saint Margaret, Yatton Keynell, in the county of Wilts, be postponed to the 31st day of March, 1911.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is enacted that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased by two Orders in Council dated respectively the 11th day of June, 1863, and the 2nd day of March, 1881, to order that burials should be discontinued in (amongst other places) the parish church of Saint James, Didsbury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the churchyard attached thereto, with certain exceptions in the said Orders in Council more particularly described:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Didsbury, in the county of Lancaster, ten days' previous notice of their intention that for the protection of the public health the said Orders of Her late Majesty in Council of the 11th day of June, 1863, and the 2nd day of March, 1881, so far as the same relate to burials in the said parish of Didsbury, should be varied so as to provide that burials should be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint James, Didsbury, in the county of Lancaster, and in the churchyard annexed thereto:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the twenty-eighth day of February next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-eighth day of February.

Almeric FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, 23rd January, 1911.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Worcester College, Oxford, on the 30th day of November, 1910 (and sealed on the 9th day of December, 1910), amending certain of the Statutes of the College, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the Provost and Fellows of Worcester College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to Worcester College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the thirtieth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and ten, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute III, Clause 6, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted (inter alia):—"A Fellow elected in pursuance of such notice shall undertake such educational work as a Lecturer of the College as the Provost and Fellows may assign to him; provided that the aggregate number of persons holding Fellowships subject to this requirement and of persons holding Fellowships by election or re-election under Clauses 7 and 8, or either of them, shall not at any time exceed six; provided also that if any Fellow elected subject to this requirement shall decline or cease to take part in such educational work his Fellowship shall forthwith determine."

And whereas in Statute III, Clause 10, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"Any Fellow holding the office of Tutor or Bursar, who for not less than thirty years has served the College as Tutor, Lecturer or Bursar, or in any one or more of those capacities, shall retain his Fellowship for life; and any Fellow holding the office of Lecturer who for not less than thirty years has served the College as Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar, or in any one or more of those capacities, may, if the Provost and Fellows shall think fit so to resolve at any General Meeting specially summoned for that purpose, be permitted to retain his Fellowship for life; provided that there shall not be at any one time in the College more than two Fellows holding their Fellowships for life under this Clause; and if, while such number is full, any other Fellow holding the office of Tutor or Bursar shall complete the period of service necessary to entitle him to the benefit of this Clause, he shall be entitled, as of right to succeed, in the order of his seniority from first election as Fellow, to such one of the two Fellowships so held for life as shall next become vacant, but shall, in the meantime, if he has ceased to hold the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar, vacate his Fellowship held by him as such. Any Fellow so entitled to succeed to a Fellowship for life may, in the meantime, be retained by the Provost and Fellows, if they shall think fit so to resolve at any General Meeting specially summoned for that purpose, as a member of the Governing Body of the College, but without emolument.

"Provided that the Provost and Fellows may, if they think fit, grant to any person during the intermediate period out of any funds which may be available for the purpose an allowance equal to the emoluments of a Fellowship. A Fellow retaining his Fellowship for life shall not be incapable of holding, if appointed to it, the office of Tutor, Lecturer, or Bursar."

And whereas in Statute IV, Clause 3, it is enacted (inter alia):—"Every Scholarship shall be tenable for two years from the day of election, if the person elected be then a member of the University; but if he be not already a member of the University then from a day not later than twelve calendar months after his election to be fixed by the Provost and Fellows. At the expiration of that period it shall determine, unless the Provost and Fellows shall at a General Meeting by resolution have declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar, in which case the Scholarship shall be renewed for a further term of two years.

"During such original and further term each scholar shall receive such emoluments not exceeding £80 a year, inclusive of all allowances, whether for rooms, commons, tuition, or otherwise, as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time determine. At the end of such further term of two years as aforesaid, the Provost and Fellows may, if they shall for special reasons think it advisable, grant to any Scholar, for any additional term not exceeding one year, such extension of the benefits of his Scholarship, and of the emoluments thereof, or any part thereof, not exceeding the aforesaid total sum of £80 a year, as to them shall seem fit."

And whereas it appears to us the Provost and Fellows of the said College that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the Provost and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th Section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out in manner following, that is to say:—

In Statute III, Clause 6, by omitting the words "provided that the aggregate number of persons holding Fellowships subject to this requirement and of persons holding Fellowships by election or re-election under Clauses 7 and 8, or either of them, shall not at any time exceed six"; and by omitting the word "also" after the word "provided," and before the words "that if any Fellow."

In Statute III, 10, by inserting after the words "Any Fellow" at the commencement of the Clause, the words "appointed before the 30th day of November, 1909," and by inserting after the words "shall retain his Fellowship for life, and any Fellow" the words "appointed before the said 30th day of November, 1909." And by adding after the last paragraph of the Clause the following Clause:—

"11. In any election to a Fellowship, or to a Lectureship of the value of £150 or upwards, taking place after the said 30th day of November, 1909, it shall be a condition that the person elected shall effect a Policy of Insurance with the Commercial Union Assurance Company (or by some similar scheme with some other insurance office), for a pension of £200 a year, or for a smaller pension if preferred, provided that one half of the yearly premium in the latter case shall not be less than 5 per cent. on his total emoluments from the College (the value of a Fellowship for this purpose shall be reckoned at the average value for the five years preceding his election); if the age of the person elected be under thirty at the time of election such pension shall be payable at the deferred age of sixty; if over thirty at the deferred age of sixty-five; the College shall pay the premiums, deducting one half the amount thereof from the stipend of the Fellowship, or Lectureship, and itself contributing the other half. One-fifth of the share of the College in the insurance policy shall belong to the Fellow or Lecturer after ten years' service; two-fifths after fifteen years' service; three-fifths after twenty years' service; four-fifths after twenty-five years' service; and the whole after thirty years' service; when the deferred age is reached the College shall discontinue its contribution to the premiums, and shall be entitled to withdraw from the Fellow or Lecturer a part of his emoluments not exceeding £100 a year, so much of his work being in that case transferred to another as is proportionate to the amount by which the sum total of his emoluments is reduced.

"Any Fellow who on the said 30th day of November, 1909, had served the College for less than ten years shall have the option, instead of availing himself of the privileges of Clause 10, of effecting a Policy of Insurance similar to that indicated in the foregoing paragraph of this Clause, for a pension of £200 a year after thirty years' service, on the terms set out in the foregoing paragraph of this Clause, i.e., one-fifth of the share of the College in such Insurance Policy shall belong to the Fellow after ten years' service; two-fifths after fifteen years' service; three-fifths after twenty years' service; four-fifths after twenty-five years' service; and the whole after thirty years' service; such Fellow shall have the option of discontinuing the insurance with resumption of the rights conferred by Clause 10 until he has completed fifteen years' service, but not of resuming these rights at any later period; if the insurance is discontinued with such resumption of rights before fifteen years' service are completed, the share of the College in the Insurance Policy shall belong to the College absolutely."

In Statute IV, Clause 3, by omitting the words "for a further term of two years" at the end of the first paragraph, and by substituting the words "for a further term of one or two years as the Provost and Fellows at such General Meeting shall determine, and a Scholarship renewed for a term of one year may in like manner be renewed for a second term of one year." And in the second paragraph of the same Clause, after the words "During such original and further term" by inserting the words "or terms," and after the words "At the end of such further term of two years" by inserting the words "or two terms of one year."

Given under our Common Seal this ninth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

MERSEY CONSERVANCY ACT,

Mersey Conservancy,
66, Victoria-street,
London, S.W.

23rd January, 1911.

I hereby give notice, pursuant to the 9th section of the Act 5 & 6 Victoria, cap. 110, intituled "An Act for better preserving the navigation of the River Mersey," that I have received a notice from Messrs. Joseph Crosfield and Sons, Limited, given pursuant to the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, of their intention to construct a steam ferry landing stage in the River Mersey at Warrington, in accordance with plans and sections deposited at this office, a copy of which notice is sub-joined.

*A. Mostyn Field, Vice-Admiral,
Acting Conservator of the Mersey.*

To Vice-Admiral A. Mostyn Field, F.R.S.,
Acting Conservator of the River Mersey.

In pursuance of an Act for better preserving the navigation of the River Mersey (5 and 6 Victoria, Cap. CX), we, Joseph Crosfield and Sons, Limited, Bank Quay, Warrington, Soap and Chemical Manufacturers, hereby give you notice that we propose to construct at Walton, near Warrington, in accordance with plans and sections deposited at the office of the Mersey Conservancy, in Westminster, two timber Dolphins, together with a floating steel and timber Pontoon, to be secured between the Dolphins.

The Dolphins will be constructed on lines which will correspond generally with the lines of the tidal flow and ebb at the place at which they are to be erected; the projection of the Dolphins into the tideway will be about 40 feet (measured from the line of high water on the Cheshire side of the River Mersey), and the object of the Dolphins and of the floating Pontoon is to provide a landing stage for a ferry for the accommodation of workmen employed at our cement and other works in Walton.

The Dolphins will exclude about 30 cubic yards of tidal water on a tide of the height of 21 feet, as measured from the level of the top of the sill of the Old Dock Gates in Liverpool.

The proposed Dolphins and Pontoon will be in substitution for the Dolphins and Pontoon referred to in the notice which we have already given to you (in accordance with the provisions of the Act aforesaid), and which was dated the seventh day of November, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

The work required for the construction of the Dolphins and Pontoon will, with the permission of the Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Mersey, be commenced after the expiry of one calendar month from the date of this notice.

Dated this twentieth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.
