

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty.

H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught and Strathearn,
Lord President,
Lord Knollys,
Sir Arthur Bigge.

WHEREAS by a Treaty dated the 26th November, 1883, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the King of Corea, jurisdiction over the persons and property of British subjects in Corea was conferred upon Her Majesty; and

Whereas by a Treaty dated the 22nd August, 1910, between the Emperor of Japan and the Emperor of Corea it was provided that Corea should be annexed to Japan; and

Whereas it is desirable that the jurisdiction of the courts established under the China and Corea Orders in Council, 1904 to 1910, should no longer be exercised in Corea:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in that behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Corea Order in Council, 1911."

2. As regards all such matters and cases as come within the jurisdiction of the courts established by or under the control of the Japanese Government in Corea, the provisions of the China and Corea Orders in Council, 1904 to 1910, regulating the exercise of His Majesty's consular jurisdiction in Corea shall cease to be in force and operation in Corea as from the date of the annexation of Corea by Japan, except as regards any judicial matters pending in any of the courts established by such Orders at the date of the commencement of this Order.

3.—(1) The China and Corea Orders in Council, 1904 to 1910, may be cited as "The China Orders in Council, 1904 to 1910," and the words "and Corea" shall be omitted from the short title of each of the Orders therein comprised, and from all Rules of Court made thereunder.

(2) The words "and Corea" shall be omitted from the title of His Britannic Majesty's Supreme Court for China and Corea.

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 22nd day of December, 1910, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by an Order in Council of His late Majesty bearing date the 15th day of February, 1909, sanction was given to the payment of a Climate Allowance to the Officers, Petty Officers, and men of Your Majesty's Navy in respect of service in the Persian Gulf during the months of June, July, August, and September at the following rates, viz.:—

3s. a day to each Commissioned Officer,
1s. a day to each Warrant Officer,
6d. a day to each of the rest of the Ship's Company.

payment being restricted to Europeans:

"And whereas after full consideration of the climatic conditions, we are of opinion that payment of the allowance should be authorized for service in the neighbourhood of the Persian Gulf:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction payment of this allowance in respect of service in waters to the west of a line drawn from Ras al Hadd on the coast of Arabia to the point where the meridian of 61 degrees, 36 minutes, east longitude, cuts the northern shore.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 23rd day of January, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
