At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of February, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, and partly out of the parish of Clee, both in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

“ Whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, and the said parish of Clee are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, and of the said parish of Clee, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

“ And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

“ And whereas by a certain indenture bearing date on or about the nineteenth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the ‘ New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,’ or some or one of them, between the Reverend Felix Milburn Blakiston, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, of the first part, the Right Reverend Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, as the patron in right of his See, and also as the Ordinary of the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, of the second part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the third part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice), the said Felix Milburn Blakiston did with the consent of the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, as such Bishop and also as such patron as aforesaid, grant and confirm unto the minister (so soon as a minister shall have been licensed) of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and to his successors and when such district shall have become a new parish then to the vicar or incumbent of such new parish and to his successors one perpetual clear yearly rent charge or net annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds to be payable half yearly on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half yearly payments to be made on such one of those days as shall first happen next after a minister shall have been licensed to the said intended district, free from and clear of all deductions, taxes, charges, rates, assessments and outgoings whatsoever (except on account of the tax on income or property, if any), and to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon all that the said vicarage of the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, and the glebe lands, tithes or tithe commutation rent charges, hereditaments, and all other the endowments and emoluments to the said vicarage belonging.

"And whereas the said yearly rent charge or net annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been granted as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the said Felix Milburn Blakiston has nominated the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, as the person to whom and to whose successors he desires that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district shall be assigned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, and of the said parish of Clee, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Stephen, Grimsby.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish then of such new parish and of the nomination of an incumbent thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Lee, Bishop of Lincoln, and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Stephen, Grimsby, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, which is bounded upon the south-west by the new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, upon the south by the parish of Clee, upon the east by the new parish of Saint Aidan, New Cleethorpes, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Aidan, New Cleethorpes, from the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, at the junction of Park-street with Tunnard-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Tunnard-street for a distance of twenty-four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Weelsby-street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Weelsby-street for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Eleanor-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Eleanor-street for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the culvert which carries Eleanor-street over the Weelsby Drain, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, from the said new parish of All Saints, Grimsby.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Clee which is bounded upon the north by the above described portion of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, upon the north-west and upon the south-west by the said new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of All Saints, Grimsby, from the said parish of Clee, at the centre of the culvert which carries Welholme-road across the Weelsby Drain, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Welholme-road for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the point where such road crosses the middle of the Humberstone Drain, and extending thence north-eastward in a straight line for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of Carr-lane where the boundary of the municipal borough of Great Grimsby diverges eastward from Carr-lane, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Carr-lane (thereby following the said municipal borough boundary) for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts to the point near its junction with Durban-road and Wellington-street, where the boundaries of the said parish of Clee, of the said new parish of Saint Aidan, New Clee-thorpes, and of the said new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, New Clee, all meet."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lincoln.

And whereas the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Lord Bishop of Llandaff, hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, made a representation in writing to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"We Joshua Pritchard Bishop of Llandaff in pursuance of the 26th section of the Pluralities Act 1838 do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"There is in the county of Monmouth and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or rectory of Llanhilleth the parish whereof contains a population of eight thousand five hundred or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice of Llanhilleth arising from all sources is four hundred and seventy-five pounds or thereabouts.

"That a certain district called Aberbeeg with a population containing about one thousand persons is situate in the said parishes of Llanhilleth Penmaen and Abertillery.

"Those portions thereof which lie within the said parishes of Abertillery and Penmaen being coloured respectively blue and red upon the said plan Such district of Aberbeeg is situated between the two hamlets called Six Bells and Llanhilleth and is about two miles from Abertillery the latter being a compact town with a population of about twenty-one thousand persons higher up the valley and is also about three miles distant from the parish church of Penmaen but only about half a mile distant from the parish church of Llanhilleth and therefore such portions of the district of Aberbeeg could with great advantage to the religious interests of the population resident within such portions of the said district of Aberbeeg be separated from the said parishes of Abertillery and Penmaen and annexed to the said parish of Llanhilleth.

"It appears to us the said Bishop of Llandaff and we do hereby represent to your Grace that under the provisions of the Pluralities Acts the several places or districts hereinbefore referred to may be advantageously separated from the parishes to which the same now severally belong and be severally annexed to the parishes as follows:—

Chancery of the Royal Victorian Order,

St. James' Palace, February 10th, 1911.

The KING has been graciously pleased to make the following Promotion in and Appointments to the Royal Victorian Order, to take effect from the dates noted:—

To be Knight Grand Cross.

7th February, 1911. The Most Reverend William Alexander, D.D., late Archbishop of Armagh, and Primate Metropolitan of all Ireland. (Did not receive the honour of Knighthood.)

To be Commander.

6th February, 1911. Captain Thomas Dacres Butler, M.V.O., Secretary to the Lord Great Chamberlain.

To be a Member of the Fourth Class.

3rd February, 1911. Engineer-Commander Charles Gerald Taylor, Royal Navy.

Whitehall, February 9, 1911.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Kenneth McNab under the following circumstances:—

McNab is an assistant foreman fitter in the factory of Messrs. Nobel's Explosives Company at Ardeer, in Ayrshire. On the 11th of November, 1910, a man named Richard Morgan was repairing an electric wire on the top floor of a four-storey building when he was overcome by poisonous fumes given off by an overflow of acid on the ground floor. The fumes, which were dense and suffocating, soon filled the building, and McNab and two other workmen went up an outside staircase, provided for cases of emergency, in search of Morgan; but, receiving no reply to their shouts, descended. McNab then, learning from other workmen that Morgan was on the roof, went up the staircase again, but without success. The sound of breaking glass and shouts were heard from the top floor, and McNab went up for the third time, and succeeded in entering the room where Morgan was. Crawling in on his hands and knees, he managed to grasp Morgan's hand and drag him out to the landing, where he obtained assistance in carrying Morgan downstairs. McNab showed presence of mind and persistent bravery in face of danger, though his efforts to save Morgan's life were unfortunately unavailing, as Morgan succumbed after some hours to the effects of the poisonous fumes.

Whitehall, February 9, 1911.
