

several portions of Hound hereinbefore mentioned may be advantageously separated therefrom and be respectively annexed for ecclesiastical purposes to the said several before-mentioned parishes to which they are contiguous, and in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Pluralities Act, 1838, I have prepared the following Scheme in writing describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent on such alterations in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges and other ecclesiastical dues, rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights of pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do hereby submit the same to Your Grace with the consents in writing of the said patrons and Incumbents of the said benefices respectively to the intent that if Your Grace shall on full consideration and inquiry be satisfied with such scheme you may certify the same and such consents to His Majesty in Council."

And whereas the said Scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents of the patrons and Incumbents of the said benefices respectively are as follows:—

" SCHEME.

" That there shall be separated from the parish of Hound and annexed to the contiguous parish of Bursledon All that part (being two portions) of the said parish of Hound which is bounded by the Hamble River on the east and the road from Bursledon Common past Windhover and Bursledon Towers and the footpath through Pilands Wood to the foot-bridge into Hungerford Bottom on the west and coloured pink on the said plan.

" That there shall also be separated from the said parish of Hound and annexed to the contiguous parish of Hamble le Rice that part of the said parish which is bounded on the east by the River Hamble on the south by the said parish of Hamble le Rice on the west and north by the new and present boundary between the civil parishes of Hamble le Rice and Hound and coloured green on the said plan.

" And that there shall also be separated from the said parish of Hound and annexed to the contiguous parish of Saint Mary Extra, Southampton All that detached part of the said parish which is bounded on the east by the parish of Sholing and on all other sides by the said parish of Saint Mary Extra Southampton and coloured brown on the said plan.

" That the several Incumbents of the said parishes of Bursledon, Hamble le Rice and Saint Mary Extra Southampton shall respectively have sole and exclusive cure of souls within such portions so separated from Hound and annexed to their respective parishes as aforesaid.

" That the inhabitants of such portions shall be entitled to accommodation in the churches of the parishes to which they shall be respectively annexed but shall cease to be entitled to accommodation in the parish church of Hound except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting in the said parish church of Hound who may not be willing to relinquish and give up the same.

" That the inhabitants of such portions so separated as aforesaid shall have the right of the solemnization of marriages, baptisms and churchings in the churches of the parishes to which they shall respectively be annexed and all fees, dues ecclesiastical offerings and emoluments in respect of the performance of such services arising from and out of such portions so separated as aforesaid shall hereafter belong to the Incumbent of the parish to which such portion has been severally annexed.

" That no alteration shall be made in respect of the tithe rent charges or other endowments of the said benefices or any or either of them.

" That no alteration shall be made in the patronage of the said benefices or any or either of them.
