Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, 9th February, 1911.

Whereas the benefice of Bradley, in the county of Southampton and diocese of Winchester, was avoided on the twenty-sixth day of December last past by the resignation of the Reverend Alfred Edwin Daniel (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent, subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said twenty-sixth day of December last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Saint Paul, Low Moor, Clitheroe, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Manchester (hereinafter called the said benefice), was avoided on the ninth day of November last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend John Barton Waddington (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of eighty-nine pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the 30th day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said ninth day of November last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

Whereas the benefice of Bleadon, in the county of Somerset and diocese of Bath and Wells, was avoided on the sixteenth day of December last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend John Thomas Langdale (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent) and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of seventy pounds, now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the thirtieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant, out of our common fund, to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of fifty pounds during the life of the retired Incumbent, subject as hereinafter mentioned, such yearly sum to commence and be computed from the said sixteenth day of December last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations, and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.
