THE MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF WEST SUFFOLK.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the County Council of West Suffolk have made application to the Local Government Board for regulations to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following parts of roads within the urban district of Haverhill, that is to say:—

So much of the road from Withersfield to Halstead (including Queen Street and High Street) as extends from its junction with Crowland Road to a point opposite the south-eastern corner of the Vicarage; and

So much of Camps Road as extends from its junction with Queen Street to its junction with Ducks Lane.

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 5th day of July, 1910, in the "East Anglian Daily Times" of the 4th day of July, 1910, and in the "South-West Suffolk Echo" of the 9th day of July, 1910;

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Town Hall, Haverhill, on Thursday, the ninth day of March, 1911; at two o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry, and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this twenty-second day of February, 1911, at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

*Walter T. Jerred,
Assistant Secretary.*
