Lord Chamberlain's Office,
St. James's Palace, S.W.,
February 28, 1911.

The following Regulations for the forthcoming Levée and Court to be held in Dublin in July next are promulgated by the Lord Chamberlain, by command of the King.

LEVÉE.

Applications from Irish Gentlemen (other than Naval, Military, and Royal Irish Constabulary Officers in the categories mentioned below) wishing to be summoned should be addressed to the Lord Chamberlain, St. James's Palace, London, not sooner than the 15th March next, and not later than the 15th April next. Applications made other than between these two dates cannot be considered.

Gentlemen who have already been presented at Levées held by The King, by The late King Edward VII, or by or on behalf of Queen Victoria, should notify the fact when making their applications. They should also state if they wish to make presentations at the Levée, and, if so, forward the names of the gentlemen they wish to present when they send in their own names.

Gentlemen who have not been previously presented should notify the fact in their applications.

All presentations of gentlemen (other than Naval, Military, or Royal Irish Constabulary Officers) whose names are not forwarded by someone qualified to present them, will be made by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Naval Officers and Officers of the Royal Marines on duty with the Fleet in Irish waters will be presented by, and should send in their applications to, the Senior Officer on the Coast of Ireland, Queenstown.

Officers of the Army and Territorial Force quartered in Ireland will be presented by, and should send in their applications to, the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief the Forces in Ireland, Royal Hospital, Dublin.

Officers of the Royal Irish Constabulary will be presented by, and should send in their applications to, the Inspector-General, Dublin Castle.

Only a limited number of summonses can be issued.

Levée dress will be worn.

COURT.

Applications from Irish ladies wishing to be summoned should be addressed to the Lord Chamberlain, St. James's Palace, London, not sooner than the 15th March next, and not later than the 15th April next. Applications made other than between these two dates cannot be considered.

Ladies who have already been presented at
