

Courts held by The King and Queen, by The late King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra, or at Drawing Rooms held by or on behalf of Queen Victoria, should notify the fact when making their applications. They should also state if they wish to make presentations at the Court, and, if so, forward the names of the ladies they wish to present when they send in their own names.

Ladies who have not been previously presented should notify the fact in their applications.

Ladies may be accompanied to the Court by their husbands if the latter have been presented. Ladies are requested to forward the names of their husbands, should they wish to accompany them, at the same time as their own.

All presentations of ladies whose names are not forwarded by some lady qualified to present them will be made by Her Excellency The Countess of Aberdeen.

Only a limited number of summonses can be issued.

Ladies will wear Full Court Dress, with feathers and trains. Gentlemen—Full Court Dress.

IMPORTANT.—Applications for the Levée or Court in Dublin should be marked on the envelope "Dublin Levée," or "Dublin Court."

A further announcement will in due course appear, giving the actual dates of the Levée and Court.

SPENCER,

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office,

St. James's Palace, S.W.,

February 28, 1911.

The following Regulations for the forthcoming Levée and Court to be held in Edinburgh in July next are promulgated by the Lord Chamberlain, by command of the King.

LEVÉE.

Applications from Scottish Gentlemen (other than Military Officers in the category mentioned below) wishing to be summoned should be addressed to the Lord Chamberlain, St. James's Palace, London, not sooner than the 15th March next, and not later than the 15th April next. Applications made other than between these two dates cannot be considered.

Gentlemen who have already been presented at Levées held by The King, by The late King Edward VII, or by or on behalf of Queen Victoria, should notify the fact when making their applications. They should also state if they wish to make presentations at the Levée, and, if so, forward the names of the gentlemen they wish to present when they send in their own names.

Gentlemen who have not been previously presented should notify the fact in their applications.

All presentations of gentlemen (other than Military Officers) whose names are not forwarded by someone qualified to present them, will be made by The Secretary for Scotland.

Officers of the Army and Territorial Force quartered in Scotland will be presented by, and should send in their applications to, the General Officer Commanding-in-Chief, Scottish Command, Edinburgh.

Only a limited number of summonses will be issued.

Levée dress will be worn.
