

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Broughton, in the county of Denbigh; and of the parish of Cottenham, in the county of Cambridge, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations to His Majesty in Council, stating that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parishes of Broughton and Cottenham aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

BROUGHTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Methodist Chapel, Pentre Broughton, in the county of Denbigh; and in the burial ground attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

(a) In the walled graves now existing in the said burial ground in which the remains of William Williams and John Williams are interred burial may be allowed, at their decease, of the bodies of Maria Williams, and Hannah Williams, subject, in each case, to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and that the grave is not situate within fifteen feet of any dwelling house.

(b) In earthen graves now existing in the said burial ground the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the undermentioned persons at their decease, viz.: Susan Edwards, Harriet Edwards, Anne Griffiths, Jane Griffiths, Mary Parry (formerly Griffiths), Emma Jones, Mary Elizabeth Morris (formerly Rogers), and David Morris; subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than four feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave and that the grave is not situate within fifteen feet of any dwelling house.

COTTENHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of All Saints, in the parish of Cottenham, in the county of Cambridge; and in the churchyard as it existed on the 9th day of February, 1911, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body of any person for whom, or of any member of a family for which, such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than three feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 13th day of April next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said 13th day of April.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
