

not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

32. The preceding Bye-laws shall commence and take effect from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of the Order of His Majesty in Council confirming the same, as from which date all previous Bye-laws and Regulations relating to Goole pilotage, except the Bye-laws confirmed by Order in Council dated the 21st day of December, 1908, fixing the rates of pilotage from Hull to Goole and vice versa, and the Goole Pilots' Superannuation Fund Bye-laws confirmed by Order in Council dated the 22nd day of April, 1910, shall be and are hereby revoked.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 25th day of February, 1911, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council.

"And whereas by the Regulations for the Government of Your Majesty's Naval Service Bandmen entered as Royal Marines are eligible for a Musical Proficiency Allowance of 1d. a day.

"And whereas we consider it desirable that this Allowance shall be extended to certain Band ratings serving in ships on the Mediterranean Station who are not entered as Royal Marines:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the extension of the Allowance to such ratings, provided they are certified to be musically proficient.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 28th day of February, 1911, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted inter alia that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council dated the 2nd February, 1884, the repayment from public funds of the travelling expenses of children not exceeding 15 years of age of Officers and Men serving in Your Majesty's Coast Guard is granted in certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions:

"And whereas similar provision in respect of the children of certain Naval ratings is made in Article 1484 (clause 8) of the King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, but a different definition is adopted in Article 1516 of those Regulations in regard to the children of Naval and Marine Officers:

"And whereas by Orders in Council dated the 19th August, 1889, and the 12th January, 1891, the repayment from public funds of the travelling expenses of children, irrespective of age, of men who die in the Coast Guard service or are invalided therefrom, is granted in certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions:

"And whereas we are of opinion that the term 'children' should be accurately defined so as to ensure uniformity in dealing with all cases of a similar nature:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to direct that, in future, in all cases in which the repayment from public funds of the travelling expenses of children is granted under present Regulations to Officers and Men being or having been in Your Majesty's Naval and Coast Guard Forces, the term 'children' shall include sons under 16 years of age; unmarried daughters dependent on and residing with their fathers; and sons over 16 years of age who, by reason of physical or mental infirmity, are necessarily dependent on their parents.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
