The following Address was presented to The King at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 21st instant:—

May it please Your Majesty,

On the occasion of the Tercentenary of the issue of the "Authorised Version" of the English Bible we, who believe the Bible to be "the most valuable thing that this world affords," desire to unite with Your Majesty in thanksgiving to Almighty God for the inestimable blessings bestowed upon the English-speaking people by its translation into our mother-tongue and its influence in the moulding of our national life. These blessings are enjoyed not only in these islands and Your Majesty's Dominions across the Seas, but also in the United States of America and wherever the English language prevails.

In acknowledgment of our indebtedness, we pay a grateful tribute to the memory of those who laboured and suffered—some of them laying down their lives—to secure for their fellow-countrymen not only a version of the Holy Scriptures which they could understand, but also liberty to read it in their own homes. With this work the Throne of our country has been happily linked. We remember with special thankfulness that it was Your Majesty's illustrious ancestor, King James I., who appointed companies of scholars to revise the English Bible in the light of the best Hebrew and Greek Texts available in their days, and after a careful comparison of earlier Versions in English and in other tongues.

Though the lapse of time and progress of scholarship have recently led to a further revision, the place which the translation of 1611 has won for itself in the affections of the people during the last three hundred years, is attested by its title "Authorised." While no external warrant can be found for this title, there is abundant justification in the inherent merits of faithfulness and style which mark this Version and in its general and reverent acceptance through many generations.

The growth and strength of the Empire owe much to the English Bible. It has sweetened home life; it has set a standard of pure speech; it has permeated literature and art; it has helped to remove social wrongs and to ameliorate conditions of labour; it has modified the laws of the realm and shaped the national character, and it has fostered international comity and good will among men. Above all the English Version of the Bible has made accessible to us the revelation of God our Father in His Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

We feel that the indebtedness of the British people to this Book is so great that the Tercentenary of the Version, which has been treasured through three centuries, should be observed as a national thanksgiving, especially as it happily coincides with the year of Your Majesty's Coronation. We praise God, not only for the benefits of the Bible to past generations, but also because its truths, as long as they are made the standard of life, will preserve the glory of our Empire through generations to come.

We pray that from these same Holy Scriptures Your Majesty may derive comfort and counsel in the perplexing problems that devolve upon one placed in the providence of God in so exalted a position. We pray also that Your Majesty's subjects may continue to read this Book until its spirit and teaching are vitalized in personal character and in domestic relationships, and so enter into every sphere of corporate life—business and professional, social and political, national and Imperial.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

It has given Me sincere pleasure to receive this deputation, and to learn that it represents the joint celebration by the English-speaking peoples of the issue in 1611 of that world-famous translation of the Bible into our tongue, which has ever since been known as the Authorised Version.

The happily chosen words of the Address which Your Grace has read bring home to Us all the profound importance of that event. The labours of the translators, and of my ancestor King James the First, who directed and watched over their undertaking, deserve to be held in lasting honour. This glorious and memorable achievement, coming like a broad light in darkness, gave freely to the whole English people the right and the power to search for themselves for the truths and consolations of our faith: and during 300 years, the multiplying millions of the English-speaking races, spreading ever more widely over the surface of the globe, have turned in their need to the grand simplicity of the Authorised Version, and have drawn upon its inexhaustible springs of wisdom, courage, and joy.

It is My confident hope—confirmed by the widespread interest your movement has aroused—that My subjects may never cease to cherish their noble inheritance in the English Bible, which in a secular aspect is the first of national treasures, and is, as you truly say, in its spiritual significance “the most valuable thing that this world affords.”

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein

mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Maltby, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Maltby is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Right Honourable Aldred Frederick George Beresford, Earl of Scarbrough (hereinafter called ‘the said Lord Scarbrough’).

“And whereas the said Lord Scarbrough is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Maltby now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and his successors, Archbishops of York.

“And whereas the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Maltby which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Maltby.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Lord Scarbrough (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Maltby now vested in him the said Lord Scarbrough as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same archbishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York, and by his successors in the same archbishoprick, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Loxbear, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas under and by virtue of the will of the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, of Killerton, in the said county of Devon, who died on the twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and whose said will bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, was, with a codicil thereto, duly proved in the District Registry at Exeter of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice on the fifteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and of an indenture bearing date the thirteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred, and made between Sir Charles Thomas Dyke Acland, Baronet, the Reverend Richard Hart Davis, and Frederick Henry Anson of the first part, the said Sir Charles Thomas Dyke Acland of the second part, and William John Battishill of the third part, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Loxbear stands limited along with other hereditaments to such uses upon such trusts and generally in such manner as the said Sir Charles Thomas Dyke Acland shall by any deed or deeds revocable or irrevocable or by will or codicil appoint and in default of and until any such appointment to the use of the said Sir Charles Thomas Dyke Acland and his assigns during his life with divers remainders over.

"And whereas the said Sir Charles Thomas Dyke Acland is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Loxbear should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Archibald now Bishop of Exeter, in right of his See.

"And whereas the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Loxbear which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Loxbear.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Sir Charles Thomas Dyke Acland, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Loxbear shall be transferred to the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 16 of the Pluralities Act, 1838, as amended by the Pluralities Act, 1850, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That whenever it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, with respect to his own diocese, and whenever it shall be represented to him by the bishop of any diocese, or by the bishops of any two dioceses, that two or more benefices, or that one or more benefice or benefices, and one or more spiritual sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, in his or their diocese or dioceses, being either in the same parish or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate population shall not exceed one thousand five hundred persons, may, with advantage to the interests of religion, be united into one benefice, the said archbishop of the province shall inquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such inquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully made, and will not be of inconvenient extent, and that the patron or patrons of the said benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages respectively, is or are consenting thereto, such consent being signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons, the said archbishop shall, six weeks before certifying such inquiry and consent to His Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in other cases a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church, or in some public and conspicuous place in each of such benefices, sinecure rectories, or vicarages, with notice to any person or persons interested, that he, she, or they may, within such six weeks, show cause in writing under his, her, or their hand or hands, to the said archbishop, against such union; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the said archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent aforesaid to His Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council to make and issue an order or orders for uniting such benefices, sinecure rectory or rectories, vicarage or vicarages, into one benefice, with cure of souls, for ecclesiastical purposes only."

And whereas the Lord Archbishop of York, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act, hath duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a certificate in writing, bearing date the 12th day of November, 1910, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the undersigned Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of the Province of York, Primate of England and Metropolitan, do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council:

"That the Right Reverend John William Lord Bishop of Carlisle as Bishop of the Diocese within which are situate the rectory of Kirkandrews on Eden with Beaumont and the vicarage of Grinsdale, both in the county of Cumberland, having represented unto us that the said benefices being contiguous to each other and of which the aggregate population does not exceed fifteen hundred persons might with advantage to the interests of religion be united into one benefice we inquired into the circumstances of the case.

"That on such inquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully made and would not be of inconvenient extent.

"That the patronage or right of presentation to the said two benefices (if the same were now vacant) belongs to the Right Honourable James William Lowther, M.P., Speaker of the House of Commons in full right and he has consented to the proposed union.

"That the Reverend Joseph Chapelhow, D.D., is the rector of the said rectory of Kirkandrews on Eden with Beaumont and also vicar of the said vicarage of Grinsdale which said benefices are now held by him in plurality under and by virtue of a dispensation from the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

"That six weeks and upwards before certifying such inquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed to the principal outer door of the parish church of each of the said benefices with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they might within six weeks show cause in writing under his, her or their hand or hands to us the said archbishop against such union and no sufficient cause has been shown.

"The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Carlisle, our inquiry into the circumstances of the case, the statement of circumstances in reply thereto, and the consent in writing of the said Right Honourable James William Lowther, M.P., patron of the said benefices before mentioned are hereunto annexed.
