

ment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Souls, situate at Netherton, in the parish of Dearham, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Souls, situate at Netherton, as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John William, Bishop of Carlisle (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Dearham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Souls, situate at Netherton as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of All Souls, Netherton.'

"And with the like consent of the said John William, Bishop of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Souls, situate at Netherton as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Edward Haigh Sugden, clerk in Holy Orders, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Dearham, shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance at the said church of All Souls, situate at Netherton as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Edward Haigh Sugden; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of All Souls, Netherton, being:—All that part of the parish of Dearham, in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle, which is bounded upon the south partly by the new parish of Christ Church, Great Broughton, and partly by the parish of Flimby, both in the said county and diocese, upon the south-west by the said parish of Flimby, upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Mary, Maryport, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Maryport, from the said parish of Dearham, at the centre of the bridge which carries Ellenborough Road across the line of the Maryport and Carlisle Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Ellenborough Road for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road running through Ellenborough Village to Broughton Moor, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Ellenborough Old Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Ellenborough Old Road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its junction with the roadway running along the backs of the houses on the north-western side of the village street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of twelve chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where such roadway turns north-westward, and extending thence in a straight line due south across the close numbered 186 upon the Ordnance Map of the civil parish of Ellenborough and Ewanrigg, published in the year one thousand nine hundred, upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile, and also upon the map or plan annexed to this representation for a distance of one chain and a quarter or thereabouts to the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 203 upon the said maps, and extending thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the last mentioned fence for a distance of six chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where such fence meets the western side of the said road leading from Ellenborough to Broughton Moor, and extending thence first eastward to the middle of such road and then first south-eastward and then generally southward along the middle of the same road for a distance of sixty-two chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Dearham from the said new parish of Christ Church, Great Broughton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.
