

second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Hightown, in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Liversedge, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Hightown, as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Liversedge, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Hightown as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Hightown.’

“And with the like consent of the said George Rodney, Bishop of Wakefield (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Barnabas, situate at Hightown as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Barnabas, Hightown, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Christ Church, Liversedge, in the county of York and in the diocese of Wakefield, which is bounded upon the south partly by the new parish of Robert Town, and partly by the chapelry of Hartshead, upon the west by the said chapelry, upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Luke, Cleckheaton, upon part of the north-east by the new parish of Saint John, Cleckheaton, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the north-east and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint John, Cleckheaton, from the said new parish of Christ Church, Liversedge, crosses the middle of the Cleckheaton Branch Line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-three chains or thereabouts to the centre of Primrose Lane Bridge which carries such line of railway across Primrose Lane, and extending thence first south-westward, then south-eastward, and then southward along the middle of Primrose Lane for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Halifax Road and with the roadway or footpath known as Balks, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said roadway or footpath for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such roadway or footpath across the stream called Lands Beck upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church, Liversedge, from the said new parish of Robert Town.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Wakefield.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the nineteenth
