

of His Privy Council, approve thereof and order that the same be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in such city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Broughton, in the county of Denbigh, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Broughton aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 4th day of March last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council, on the 13th day of April last, and such Order has been published in the London

Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said civil parish save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

BROUGHTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Methodist Chapel, Pentre Broughton, in the county of Denbigh; and in the burial ground attached thereto, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

(a) In the walled graves now existing in the said burial ground in which the remains of William Williams and John Williams are interred burial may be allowed, at their decease, of the bodies of Maria Williams, and Hannah Williams, subject, in each case, to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and that the grave is not situate within fifteen feet of any dwelling house.

(b) In earthen graves now existing in the said burial ground the burial may be allowed of the bodies of the undermentioned persons at their decease, viz., Susan Edwards, Harriet Edwards, Anne Griffiths, Jane Griffiths, Mary Parry (formerly Griffiths), Emma Jones, Mary Elizabeth Morris (formerly Rogers), and David Morris; subject in each case to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than four feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave and that the grave is not situate within fifteen feet of any dwelling house.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Cottenham, in the county of Cambridge, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made a representation to His Majesty in Council that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in the civil parish of Cottenham aforesaid, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz.:—

COTTENHAM.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of All Saints, in the parish of Cottenham, in the county of Cambridge; and in the churchyard as it existed on the 9th day of February, 1911, with the following exceptions, that is to say:—

In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed of the body
