The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in General Assembly, having been transmitted by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Right Honourable Lord Pentland, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before The King, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty,
May it please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in general assembly, have received with deep respect the gracious letter with which Your Majesty has been pleased to honour us, and we desire to express our gratitude for Your Majesty's earnest concern in the work of our Church.

We have received with the greatest satisfaction the intimation of Your Majesty's choice of the Right Honourable Lord Glenconner as Your Majesty's Representative in the General Assembly, and we welcome his appointment as Lord High Commissioner.

We thank Your Majesty most heartily for the continuance of Your Majesty's gift of two thousand pounds for the religious needs of the Highlands and Islands, intimated to us by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner, and we assure Your Majesty that we shall use our best endeavours to apply the money in the way in which Your Majesty has been pleased to direct.

We look forward with Your Majesty's loyal subjects to Your Majesty's Coronation, and we feel honoured that by Your Majesty's gracious command representatives from this Assembly will be present at the great solemnity.

We again assure Your Majesty of our loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's person, and we pray that the King of Kings may support and sustain Your Majesty in the many arduous duties to which Your Majesty is called.

May it please Your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal and most obedient servants,

The Ministers and Elders met in this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name in our presence and at our appointment by

(L. S.)

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT, 1911.

The following draft Rules are published pursuant to the Rules Publication Act, 1893:—

Order VI, Rule 1a.

1. A concurrent originating summons may be issued in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as a concurrent writ of summons.

Order VI, Rule 2a.

2. An originating summons for service within the jurisdiction may be issued and marked as a concurrent originating summons with one for service out of the jurisdiction; and an originating summons for service out of the jurisdiction may be issued and marked as a concurrent originating summons with one for service within the jurisdiction.

Order XVI, Rule 54a.

3. Where any person served with a third party notice by a Defendant or by a third party under these rules claims to be entitled to contribution or indemnity over against any person not a party to the action he may by leave of the Court or a Judge issue a third party notice to that effect; and the preceding rules as to third party procedure shall apply mutatis mutandis to every notice so issued and the expressions "third party notice" and "third party" in these rules shall apply to and include every notice so issued and every person served with such notice respectively.

Order XXII, Rule 17.

4. The following words shall be added at the end of Ord. XXII, r. 17:—

"Guaranteed Land Stock issued under the Act 54 and 55 Vict., c. 48.

"Guaranteed 2½ p.c. Stock issued under the Act 3 Ed. VII, c. 37.

"Guaranteed 3 p.c. Stock issued under the Act 9 Ed. VII, c. 42."

Order L, Rule 16.

5. Ord. L, r. 16, shall be read as if there were inserted at the commencement thereof the words "Except as provided in the next following rule."

Order L, Rule 16a.

6. Where the amount for which security to be given does not exceed £500 such security may be given by an undertaking in the form specified in the Appendix to these Rules, which may be cited as Form No. 21a of Appendix L of the Rules of the Supreme Court. Such undertaking shall be signed by the receiver and his surety or sureties, or in the case of a guarantee or other Company shall be sealed with the seal of such Company. The undertaking shall be filed in the Central Office or where the proceedings are pending in a district registry in such registry, and kept as of record until the same shall have been duly vacated.

Order LIV, Rule 12, Clause (a).

7. Order LIV, Rule 12, Clause (a) shall be read as if the words "Charging Orders" were added at the end of the clause.

Order LV, Rule 15.

8. Order LV, Rule 16, shall be read as if the following proviso were added at the end thereof, namely:—

Provided that every Order made in Chambers which shall not have been made by the Judge personally shall be marked in the margin thereof with the name of the Master responsible for such Order.

Order LVI.

References in Admiralty Actions.

9.—(1) This Order shall apply to references by the Court or a Judge or by Agreement of Reference to the Admiralty Registrar, whether the reference be to the Registrar alone or to the Registrar assisted by one or more merchants or other assessor.

(2) Within 21 days from the day when the order for the reference is made, or an agreement for a reference is filed, the claimant shall file the claim and vouchers, and affidavits, if any, and, except in a limitation action, serve copies thereof on the opposite party; failing which the Court may, on the application of any other party, dismiss the claim.

(3) The claimant shall, except in a limitation action, after the filing of the claim and vouchers, obtain a day for the reference either by summons or by agreement, and when such day has been obtained he shall lodge in the Registry a notice praying to have the reference placed in the list for hearing with the stamps for the reference affixed thereto.

(4) In a limitation action the day for the reference will, after the expiration of the time limited by the Court for the filing of claims, be appointed by the Registrar; and upon receiving notice thereof, the plaintiff shall place the reference in the list for hearing by lodging a notice as mentioned in Rule 3.

(5) At the time appointed for the reference, if the counsel or solicitor for any party be present, the reference may be proceeded with, but the Registrar may adjourn the reference from time to time, as he may deem proper.

(6) Evidence may be given vivâ voce or by affidavit, or in such other manner as may be agreed upon, and the evidence may, on the application of either party, but at the expense in the first instance of the party on whose behalf the application is made, be taken down by a shorthand writer appointed by the Court, and in such case a transcript of the shorthand writer's notes, certified by him to be correct, shall be admitted to prove the oral evidence of the witnesses on an objection to the Registrar's Report.

(7) Counsel may attend the hearing of a Reference, but the expenses attending the employment of Counsel shall not be allowed on taxation, unless the Taxing Officer shall be of opinion that the attendance of Counsel was necessary.

(8) The Registrar shall in his report make such order as he shall think fit, as to the costs of the Reference.

(9) The claimant, or in a limitation action the plaintiff, who has received notice from the Registry that the report is ready, shall, within six days from the time when he has received such notice, file the report and serve a notice of such filing on the opposite party, or in a limitation action on the claimants.

(10) If the claimant shall not take the steps prescribed in Rule 9, the opposite party may take up and file the report, and apply for its confirmation, or may apply to the Court to have the claim dismissed with costs. In a limitation action, if the plaintiff shall not take the steps prescribed in Rule 9, a claimant may take up and file the report and apply for its confirmation.

(11) A party who intends to object to the Registrar's report shall, within 14 days from the notice of the filing of the report, file in the Registry a notice that he objects to the report, and a copy thereof shall be served on the opposite party.

(12) An objection to a report shall be brought before the Court either by motion, or on petition in objection to the report, and an answer thereto. A notice of motion in objection to a report shall be filed within ten days from the filing of the notice of objection, and a petition shall be filed within the same time, and served on the opposite party, and the answer thereto shall be filed within ten days from the service of the petition, and a copy served on the opposite party.

(13) All the Rules respecting the pleadings and proofs in an action, and the printing thereof, shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to the pleadings, proofs, and printing in an objection to a report of the Registrar.

(14) This Order shall apply to References in District Registries, as well as to References in the Principal Registry.

Order LXII, Rule 5.

10. Order LXII, r. 5, shall be read as if the word "three" were substituted for the word "seven" therein.

Order LXII, Rule 14a.

11. Every judgment or order shall unless otherwise ordered be drawn up and entered within 14 days from the date thereof, and if any judgment or order shall not have been drawn up and entered within the time aforesaid the Registrar responsible for the drawing up of such order shall report to the Judge in writing as to the reason why the provisions of this rule have not been complied with and whether in his opinion any and which of the parties or their Solicitors are responsible for the delay, and thereupon the Judge may direct such parties or Solicitors to attend before him and may unless a satisfactory explanation be forthcoming make such order as to the payment of all or any part of the costs of drawing up and entering the judgment or order as he shall think fit. He may also direct that as against any party responsible for such delay the time for appealing from such judgment or order shall run as from the date when the same ought to have been drawn up and entered in accordance with this rule.

Order LXII, Rule 14b.

12. In all actions or matters tried in the Chancery Division with witnesses the judgment or order shall unless the judge for some special reason otherwise direct be drawn up without entering the evidence.

Order LXII, Rule 14c.

13. If any judgment or order as last aforesaid be appealed, it shall be the duty of the appellant within 4 days after service of the notice of appeal to take an appointment before the Registrar for the purpose of settling a schedule of the evidence used at the hearing. In settling such schedule the same procedure shall be followed as hereinbefore provided with regard to the drawing up of orders. If there shall be any dispute between the parties as to what evidence shall be entered as read, the matter shall be adjourned to the judge before whom the action or matter was tried and he shall decide the question in dispute and may give such directions as to the costs of the adjournment as he may think fit. Subject to such direction (if any) the costs of settling the said

Schedule shall be costs in the appeal. The schedule of evidence shall be signed by the Registrar but shall not be entered nor shall the judgment or order be amended so as to incorporate the same unless the Court of Appeal shall so direct.

Order LXII, Rule 14d.

14. If at the trial of such action or matter the parties shall have agreed that any bundle of copy, correspondence, or of other documents shall be taken as put in subject to all just exceptions as to whether any of the documents in such bundle are evidence or otherwise such bundle shall be marked by the Registrar for identification and entered as put in saving all just exceptions, without referring to the particular documents actually read. The Appellant shall within 10 days after the said Schedule has been signed by the Registrar give notice to the Respondent which of the said documents he intends to read on the appeal and he shall not be bound to supply copies for the use of the Court of Appeal of any documents not included in such notice unless as to any further document or documents some respondent shall by notice in writing specifying such document or documents and delivered at least 10 days before the hearing of the appeal require him so to do. The Court of Appeal may on the hearing of the appeal make such special order as they think fit in reference to any costs occasioned by any notice under this rule or thrown away by supplying copies of documents which are not admissible in evidence or are unnecessary for the purposes of the appeal but subject to such special order, if any, the existing power of the Taxing Master shall not be affected by this rule.

Order LXII, Rule 15.

15. Order LXII, Rule 15, shall be read as if the words "or settling any schedule of evidence" were inserted after the words "judgment or order" therein.

16. These Rules which shall come into operation on the 1st day of August, 1911, may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (July), 1911, and each Rule may be cited by the heading thereof with reference to the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883.

ALTERING GENERAL CONSOLIDATED ORDER: Appointment of Nurses.

PARISH OF READING.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Reading;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by a General Order dated the 24th day of July, 1847, which is in force in the parish of Reading, the Poor Law Commissioners made certain Regulations applicable to the government of the Workhouse of that parish;

And whereas by Article 153 of the said Order provision was made for the appointment by the said Guardians of persons to hold certain offices in the said Workhouse, including the office of Nurse, and by Articles 155 and 172 of that Order it was further directed that every such appointment should be reported to the Poor Law Commissioners, and that the Guardians should pay to the officers so appointed such salaries or remuneration as the said Commissioners might from time to time direct or approve;

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made with regard to the appointment of persons to hold the office of Nurse at the said Workhouse:

NOW THEREFORE, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by statutes in that behalf, hereby Order and Direct that, notwithstanding anything contained in the above-cited Order, if the Guardians of the Poor of the said parish shall submit to Us for our approval a statement showing the total number of persons which the said Guardians consider it necessary to appoint to hold the office of Nurse at the said Workhouse, and the salaries or scale of salaries to be assigned to those Nurses, and We approve that statement, it shall not be necessary for the said Guardians to report to Us each appointment under the said Order of a person to hold the office of Nurse in the said Workhouse, nor to obtain Our approval to the remuneration of any person so appointed, so long as the number of persons so appointed and their salaries do not exceed the number of persons and the scale of salaries shown in the said statement and approved by Us:

Provided as follows:—

(1) This Order shall not apply to the appointment of any Superintendent Nurse appointed subject to the provisions of the Nursing in Workhouses Order, 1897.

(2) A person who has not reached the age of twenty-one years shall not be employed in the capacity of Probationary Nurse.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

John Burns,
President.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF THE SOKE OF PETERBOROUGH.

Whereas the County Council of the Soke of Peterborough have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a regulation under section 6 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, and section 8 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, for restricting to five miles per hour the speed at which any motor car may be driven along the following parts of highways within the parish of Wansford, that is to say:—

So much of the road from London to Stamford and York as extends for a distance of 572 yards from the centre of Wansford Bridge;

So much of the road from Wansford to Fotheringhay as extends for a distance of 160 yards from its junction with the road first above-mentioned;

So much of the road from Wansford to Leicester as extends for a distance of 110 yards from its junction with the road last above-mentioned; and

So much of the road from Wansford to Peterborough as extends for a distance of 170 yards from its junction with the road first above-mentioned:

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 21st day of March, 1911, and in the Peterborough Advertiser of the 24th day of March, 1911:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Reading Room at Wansford on Tuesday, the thirteenth day of June, 1911, at half-past ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a local inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such inquiry and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this thirtieth day of May, 1911, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

Walter T. Jerred,
Assistant Secretary.
