

Schedule shall be costs in the appeal. The schedule of evidence shall be signed by the Registrar but shall not be entered nor shall the judgment or order be amended so as to incorporate the same unless the Court of Appeal shall so direct.

Order LXII, Rule 14d.

14. If at the trial of such action or matter the parties shall have agreed that any bundle of copy, correspondence, or of other documents shall be taken as put in subject to all just exceptions as to whether any of the documents in such bundle are evidence or otherwise such bundle shall be marked by the Registrar for identification and entered as put in saving all just exceptions, without referring to the particular documents actually read. The Appellant shall within 10 days after the said Schedule has been signed by the Registrar give notice to the Respondent which of the said documents he intends to read on the appeal and he shall not be bound to supply copies for the use of the Court of Appeal of any documents not included in such notice unless as to any further document or documents some respondent shall by notice in writing specifying such document or documents and delivered at least 10 days before the hearing of the appeal require him so to do. The Court of Appeal may on the hearing of the appeal make such special order as they think fit in reference to any costs occasioned by any notice under this rule or thrown away by supplying copies of documents which are not admissible in evidence or are unnecessary for the purposes of the appeal but subject to such special order, if any, the existing power of the Taxing Master shall not be affected by this rule.

Order LXII, Rule 15.

15. Order LXII, Rule 15, shall be read as if the words "or settling any schedule of evidence" were inserted after the words "judgment or order" therein.

16. These Rules which shall come into operation on the 1st day of August, 1911, may be cited as the Rules of the Supreme Court (July), 1911, and each Rule may be cited by the heading thereof with reference to the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1883.
