THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

Bentham Hiring Fair.

Whereas on the 3rd May, 1911, a representation was made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Settle Rural District Council to the effect that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the Hiring Fair which has been held annually at Bentham, in the Rural District of Settle, in the West Riding of the county of York, on the 22nd day of June, should in future be held on the 23rd day of June when the 22nd June is a Sunday or a Bank Holiday:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Acts, 1873:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that the alteration of the date of the Fair as proposed would be for the convenience and advantage of the public:

Now therefore I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1873, do hereby order that the Fair which has been held annually at Bentham, in the Rural District of Settle, in the West Riding of the county of York, on the 22nd day of June, shall in future be held on the 23rd day of June when the 22nd June is a Sunday or a Bank Holiday.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 16th day of June, 1911.

gation shall be constantly in charge of a competent person.

13. No petrol or dangerous goods shall be discharged or allowed to escape into the Navigation.

14. The owner and master of any barge or petrol tank barge conveying petrol or dangerous goods shall at all times while such barge or petrol tank barge is within the Navigation and whether under way or moored take all due and proper precautions for the prevention of accident either by fire or otherwise.

15. The bilges of a petrol tank barge or of a barge used for the conveyance of petrol or dangerous goods shall not be pumped when such petrol tank barge or barge is on the Navigation unless and until all such precautions have been taken as will insure that no petrol or dangerous goods can escape into the Navigation.

16. Every barge or petrol tank barge on the Navigation containing petrol or carrying petrol or dangerous goods and every empty petrol tank barge shall proceed to its destination without unnecessary delay and all petrol or dangerous goods contained therein shall be discharged with all due speed and diligence after arrival at such destination.

17. The master shall when so required by the Engineer or by any officer of the Board show to such Engineer or officer all petrol or dangerous goods under his control upon the barge or petrol tank barge and shall afford every reasonable facility to enable such engineer or officer to inspect and examine such petrol or dangerous goods and such barge or petrol tank barge so that he may ascertain whether the provisions of these Bye-laws are duly observed.

18. Numbers 4, 5, 6, 9 (A) (B) and (C), 11 and 12 of these Bye-laws shall also apply to carbide of calcium and other carbides and be read and construed as if in those Bye-laws the expression "petrol" included carbide of calcium and other carbides and in addition the following Bye-laws shall be observed viz.:—

(A) Carbide of calcium and other carbides shall only be brought into or carried on the Navigation in hermetically closed metal receptacles containing each not more than 224 lbs. of such strength and construction or so protected as not to be liable to be broken or to become defective or insecure in conveyance otherwise than by gross negligence or extraordinary accident.

(B) No receptacle containing carbide of calcium or other carbides shall be opened within the jurisdiction of the Board except in some duly licensed place of storage.

(C) Every precaution shall be taken to prevent the contact of water or moisture with the carbide of calcium or other carbides and where such contact may have occurred to prevent the gas evolved from being ignited.

(D) Every receptacle containing carbide of calcium or other carbides shall be labelled and such label shall bear in conspicuous characters the words "Carbide. Dangerous if not kept dry" and with the following caution:—"The contents of this package are liable if brought into contact with moisture to give off a highly inflammable gas" and with the addition of the name and address of the sender.

19. When any barge or petrol tank barge conveying petrol or dangerous goods or any empty petrol tank barge or any petrol or dangerous goods is or are navigated moored loaded discharged or otherwise dealt with in contravention of any of the above Bye-laws the owner and master of such barge or petrol tank barge or empty petrol tank barge or the owner of such petrol or dangerous goods shall each incur a penalty not exceeding £5 for each such contravention and a further penalty not exceeding £5 for each day on which each such contravention continues and without prejudice to the right to recover such penalty it shall be lawful for the Engineer to cause such barge or petrol tank barge or any such petrol or dangerous goods to be removed at the expense of the owner thereof to some place of safety and all expenses of or incident to such removal may be recovered in the same manner in which penalties are by "The Lee Conservancy Acts 1868 to 1900" made recoverable.

Now notice is hereby given that any person desirous of making any objection to or representation respecting such proposed Bye-laws so altered and added to as aforesaid may do so in writing or otherwise on or before Wednesday, the 26th day of July, 1911, by sending the same to or leaving or making the same at the Head Office of the Board, 12, Finsbury Circus, London, E.C.

Pursuant to the Companies (Winding-up) Act, 1890, and the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, and the Rules thereunder, notices to the above effect have been received by the Board of Trade.

GEORGE STAPYLTON BARNES, Comptroller of the Companies Department.

NOTICE—All Notices and Advertisements are published in The London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser.

All Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to the Office of The London Gazette, 7, Princes Street, Westminster, S.W., for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. The office hours are from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., closing at one o'clock on Saturdays.

All Notices and Advertisements must be prepaid. To save delay, Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post should be accompanied by Postal Orders, made payable to H.M. Paymaster-General. Notices and Advertisements paid for by cheque will not be inserted until such cheques have been cleared.

Notices of Dissolution of Partnership will not be inserted unless signed by the Partners named therein, or by their legal representatives; and the signature or representative character of the signatory must be verified by Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

A Notice of Dissolution of Partnership not signed by all the Partners, or their legal representatives, must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

Authorised Scale of Charges for Notices and Advertisements.
