INVESTITURE OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES with the Ensigns of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, Saturday, June 10, 1911.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Waterloo Chamber at 11.45 a.m., viz.:—The Marquess of Abergavenny, the Duke of Norfolk, the Marquess of Londonderry, the Earl Cadogan, the Duke of Abercorn, the Earl of Rosebery, the Marquess of Breadalbane, the Duke of Buccleuch, the Earl of Elgin, the Duke of Northumberland, the Duke of Portland, the Earl Roberts, the Duke of Bedford, the Duke of Marlborough, the Duke of Wellington, the Duke of Richmond, the Earl Carrington, the Earl of Crewe, the Marquess of Northampton, the Earl of Durham, the Earl of Selborne, and the Earl of Minto; attended by the undermentioned Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains and badges, viz.:—The Bishop of Winchester, Prelate; the Bishop of Oxford, Chancellor; the Dean of Windsor, Register; Sir Alfred Scott Scott-Gatty, Knight, C.V.O., Garter Principal King of Arms; Admiral Sir Henry Frederick Stephenson, G.C.V.O., K.C.B., Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod; and Colonel Sir Douglas Frederick Rawdon Dawson, K.C.V.O., C.M.G., Secretary.

The Knights Companions and the Officers of the Order were marshalled by the Officers of Arms as follows:—

of the Black Rod.

The Secretary.

The Register.

The Prelate.

The Chancellor.

The Knights Companions:

The Duke of Norfolk.
The Earl Cadogan.
The Earl of Rosebery.

The Marquess of Abergavenny.
The Marquess of Londonderry.
The Duke of Abercorn.

The Duke of Buccleuch.
 The Duke of Northumberland.
 The Earl Roberts.
 The Duke of Marlborough.
 The Duke of Richmond.
 The Earl of Crewe.
 The Earl of Durham.
 The Earl of Minto.

The Sword of State, borne by the Gentleman Usher to the Sword of State, the Right Honourable Sir Spencer Ponsonby-Fane, G.C.B., and attended by Garter, was carried into the Throne Room, and laid upon the Table.

The Knights Companions and the Officers of the Order then proceeded to the Grand Reception Room and waited there while the Sovereign and Her Majesty the Queen [attended by four Pages, H. D. Erskine, Esquire, of Cardross, C.V.O., Gentleman Usher of the Robes, and the Duchess of Devonshire, Mistress of the Robes], His Majesty King Manuel, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, and His Royal Highness Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, passed to the Throne Room.

The Sovereign being seated in His Chair of State, Her Majesty the Queen being on His immediate left hand, His Majesty King Manuel, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, and His Royal Highness Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein being in the seats allotted to them at the upper end of the Table, the Sovereign commanded Garter to summon the Knights Companions, who entered the Throne Room as their names were severally called over.

The Knights Companions then took their respective seats at the Table. The Prelate passed up the room, and took his stand on the right of the Sovereign, the Chancellor passing to his place on the left of Her Majesty the Queen, and the Register, Garter, Black Rod and Secretary standing at the foot of the Table.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was then, by the Sovereign's command, conducted from his apartments to the Throne Room, between Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn and Prince Arthur of Connaught, preceded by the Secretary, carrying the Star and Collar of the Order, Black Rod, carrying the Riband and George, and Garter, carrying the Garter.

On entering the Throne Room His Royal Highness was received by the Sovereign, the Royal Knights, and the Knights Companions

The Marquess of Breadalbane.
 The Earl of Elgin.
 The Duke of Portland.
 The Duke of Bedford.
 The Duke of Wellington.
 The Earl Carrington.
 The Marquess of Northampton.
 The Earl of Selborne.

standing. His Royal Highness was then conducted before the Sovereign, who indicated to him the seat upon his, the Sovereign's, immediate right hand.

Garter, kneeling, then presented the Garter to the Sovereign, who, assisted by the Royal Knights, buckled it on the left leg of His Royal Highness, the Admonition being pronounced by the Prelate.

Black Rod next presented in like manner the Riband and George to the Sovereign, who, assisted as before, adjusted the same on the left shoulder of His Royal Highness, the Admonition being pronounced by the Chancellor.

The Secretary then presented in like manner the Star of the Order which the Sovereign affixed to His Royal Highness' left breast.

The Secretary in like manner presented the Collar, which was handed by the Sovereign to His Royal Highness, the Admonition being pronounced by the Register.

The Sovereign thereupon gave the Accolade to His Royal Highness, who proceeded round the table, receiving the congratulations of Her Majesty the Queen, His Majesty King Manuel, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and Strathearn, His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught, His Royal Highness Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, and each of the Knights Companions present, and resumed his seat.

The Chapter being ended, the Knights Companions were again severally called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, retired from the presence of the Sovereign with the usual ceremonies.

Their Royal Highnesses Princess Mary, the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sweden, Princess Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, the Duchess of Connaught, Princess Victoria Patricia of Connaught, their Highnesses Princess Victoria and Marie Louise of Schleswig-Holstein, witnessed the august ceremony. The Duke of Argyll was also present.

SCHEDULE.

An Area comprising the parishes of Bradfield, Ecclesfield, Stocksbridge, and the detached parts of the parish of Wentworth wholly surrounded by the county borough of Rotherham, in the administrative county of the West Riding of Yorkshire; and also comprising the county borough of Rotherham (excluding its detached parts).

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

Whereas the benefice of Great Wheltenham, in the county of Suffolk and diocese of Ely (hereinafter called the said benefice) was avoided on the tenth day of June last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Edward Henry Sankey (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent) and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of seventy pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the 30th day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned, and to commence and be computed from the said tenth day of June last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension, or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

Whereas the benefice of Iwade, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury (hereinafter called the said benefice) was avoided on the eighth day of April last past by the retirement under the provisions of the Incumbents' Resignation Acts, 1871 and 1887, of the Reverend Morgan Thomas Pearman (hereinafter called the retired Incumbent), and there was assigned to the retired Incumbent a yearly pension under the said Resignation Acts of forty pounds (hereinafter called the said pension), now we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in accordance with our Regulations dated the 30th day of May, 1907, relating to grants in aid of pensions to retired Incumbents (hereinafter called the said Regulations), do hereby grant out of our common fund first to the Incumbent of the said benefice and his successors Incumbents thereof the yearly sum of twenty pounds, and secondly to the retired Incumbent the yearly sum of thirty pounds, each of the said yearly sums so granted to continue payable so long only as the said pension shall continue payable out of the revenues of the said benefice, and to be subject as hereinafter mentioned and to commence and be computed from the said eighth day of April last past, and to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in every year, subject nevertheless to cesser, determination, withdrawal, suspension or reduction as a grant made in accordance with the said Regulations and to all other the provisions and conditions contained in the said Regulations and applicable to a Grant made in accordance therewith.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby subject as hereinafter mentioned grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of All Saints, Bishopswood, situate partly in the county of Hereford and partly in the county of Gloucester, and wholly in the diocese of Hereford, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-seven pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: provided always that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of All Saints, Bishopswood, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a portion of the value of a certain house and premises which have been permanently secured by deed dated the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, as a parsonage or house of residence for the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Christ Church, Broadheath, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester, and in consideration also of a further benefaction of a capital sum of two hundred pounds which has been paid to us in favour of the same benefice, and in respect of which capital sum we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice and to his successors a yearly sum of six pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Christ Church, Broadheath, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one yearly sum of twenty-one pounds or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising six thousand seven hundred and thirty-eight square yards or thereabouts which has been permanently secured by deed dated the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the district chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Paul, Broughton, in the county of Denbigh and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Broughton, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of four hundred pounds to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the rectory of Fordley, otherwise Fordley with Middleton, in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Norwich, and to his successors Incumbents of the same rectory, one yearly sum or stipend of eighty-eight pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Augustine, Fulham, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice and to his successors a yearly sum of three pounds and nine shillings, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Augustine, Fulham, to meet such benefaction one other capital sum of one hundred and fifteen pounds in respect of which so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one other yearly sum of three pounds and nine shillings or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the twenty-seventh day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Stephen, Hampstead, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Stephen, Hampstead, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Stephen, Hampstead, aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage and parish of Saint Stephen, Hampstead.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of seven hundred pounds which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage, of Saint Jude, Mildmay Park, Islington, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage and to his successors a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Mildmay Park, Islington, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of two pieces or parcels of land comprising respectively eight hundred and nine square yards and two hundred and fifty square yards which have been permanently secured by deed dated the twenty-seventh day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of All Souls, Leicester, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of All Souls, Leicester, to meet such benefaction one capital sum of one thousand pounds to be applicable so far as may be necessary towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said Vicarage according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a portion of the value of a certain house and premises which are about to be secured as a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Southwark, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of one thousand pounds, to be applied as the consideration or part of the consideration for the conveyance of the house and premises as and for a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint Andrew, Lower Streatham.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Paul, Saint Albans, in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in four equal portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Paul, Saint Albans, shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Paul, Saint Albans aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage and parish of Saint Paul, Saint Albans.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Sherston Magna (with the rectory of Pinkney annexed), in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Bristol, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

THE SCHEDULE.

All that piece or parcel of land part of Number 734 on the tithe plan of the parish of Sherston Magna, in the county of Wilts, called "Penny Mead," containing by estimation two acres and three perches (2a. 0r. 3p.) more or less, which said piece or parcel of land lies adjacent to the churchyard (on its north, east and west sides), and is delineated and coloured red upon the plan annexed hereto.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of a capital sum of fifty pounds which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of South Bersted, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage and to his successors a yearly sum of one pound and ten shillings, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of South Bersted, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of fifty pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage one other yearly sum of one pound and ten shillings or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands, the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the third day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a certain house and premises which have been permanently secured by deed dated the thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, as a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Thorney Abbey, in the county of Cambridge and in the diocese of Ely, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Thorney Abbey, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands there shall be allowed by us, as from the thirtieth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, one yearly sum of twenty-one pounds or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands: Provided always that such yearly sum shall not be payable or paid to the Incumbent of the said vicarage during the continuance of the present incumbency, but shall be retained by us, the said Commissioners, and be added to the capital moneys held by us for the benefit of the said vicarage.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(L. S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece of land comprising one acre which has been permanently secured by deed dated the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the benefice of West Haroldston with Lambston, in the county of Pembroke and in the diocese of Saint David's, and in consideration also of a further benefaction of a capital sum of two hundred pounds which has been paid to us in favour of the same benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of West Haroldston with Lambston, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of three hundred pounds, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven.
