TUESDAY, 27 JUNE, 1911.

Whitehall, June 26, 1911.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties on the occasion of Their Progress in State through London on Friday, the 23rd instant:—

CITY OF WESTMINSTER.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George V and Queen Mary.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the City of Westminster, desire on behalf of the citizens to offer to Your Majesties our most humble, loyal and hearty congratulations on the occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation.

We remember with pride that for centuries the Kings and Queens of England have been crowned in Westminster Abbey, and have chosen Westminster as a place of Royal residence.

We therefore feel ourselves especially bound by ties of loyalty and affection to Your Majesties, and to Your Majesties' Throne.

We wish Your Majesties a long and glorious reign, which shall be memorable for peace, prosperity and happiness throughout the British Dominions; and we pray that the blessing of Almighty God, Protector and Ruler of all Kings, may rest on Your Majesties, and on Your Majesties' Royal House, and that He may crown Your Majesties with His gracious favour throughout Your Majesties' Reign.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

On behalf of Queen Mary and Myself I desire to express Our special pleasure at receiving this loyal Address of Congratulation from the inhabitants of the great city in which We live.

Westminster, as the ancient seat first of the Government of England, then of the United Kingdom, and now of the whole Empire, is rightly proud to have been the theatre of many events which have made their mark upon the history of mankind. Among these scenes—sometimes of triumph and sometimes of tribulation—which have marked the fortunes of Our State and Nation, no happier series can be found than the crownings of the long line of Sovereigns who have carried forward the traditions and inheritance of the British Monarchy from the earliest periods of Our Island's records to the broad light of modern times. The solemn ceremony of yesterday, in which you so earnestly shared, has added fresh lustre to the City's ancient renown, and has made more secure than ever the special place which you hold in Our affections.

We thank you most heartily for your good wishes on this memorable occasion, and for your prayers for Us and Our Royal House.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

To The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Council of the Administrative County of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Council of the Administrative County of London, the representative authority of the inhabitants of the Capital of the Empire, venture to approach Your Majesty and Her Majesty the Queen with a humble and dutiful address on this memorable occasion. We desire to express the satisfaction which all London feels to the utmost that our gracious Sovereign and His Consort, now crowned King and Queen of the realm, should allow us to be the first publicly to testify to the bonds of loyalty and affection which exist between King and People, bonds strengthened alike by the historically known services to the nation rendered for so many generations by Your Majesty's Royal House, and by the recollection, especially dear to us, of the interest in social welfare of which Your Majesties have so frequently given proof.

Your Majesties' residence in London is a source of the greatest pride and pleasure to all its inhabitants, and we rejoice to think that the work which we endeavour to do for London is thus constantly before Your Majesties. We deem it a great privilege to be entrusted with the execution of measures for ensuring the health and happiness of the people of London, and it is ever our desire and endeavour to make London worthy of the place she occupies as the greatest community exercising powers of local self-government.

We humbly ask leave to assure Your Majesties of our entire devotion and loyalty which will go out to Your Majesties on all occasions, and especially during Your Majesties' forthcoming journey to the great dependency of India, and we pray that Your Majesty may long enjoy a prosperous reign over the peoples of the great Empire now rejoicing at the historic event London has been proud to witness.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you warmly for the good wishes expressed in your Address.

Amid the countless signs of loyalty and affection which have greeted Us on every side on

Our Coronation, this tribute from the London County Council claims special recognition. The prosperity and contentment of the vast population whose lot is cast within the boundaries of the Council's municipal rule is in many important respects dependent upon your zeal and foresight. You conduct the affairs of a population and administer revenues which would not be unworthy of an important Sovereign State. In the zealous and successful discharge of this solemn trust the Council and its Officers afford the largest and most striking example of the British system of local self-government.

We are very glad to have this opportunity of assuring you that We shall always lend you Our encouragement in your efforts to hold London in the forefront of every movement of social progress.

I join in your prayers for the prosperity and happiness of the Empire over which I have been called to reign, and of this great City which is its centre and capital.

METROPOLITAN BOROUGHES NORTH OF THE THAMES.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayors, Aldermen and Councillors of the Royal Borough of Kensington and of the Metropolitan Boroughs of Bethnal Green, Chelsea, Finsbury, Fulham, Hackney, Hammersmith, Hampstead, Holborn, Islington, Paddington, Poplar, St. Marylebone, St. Pancras, Shore-ditch, Stepney, and Stoke Newington.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayors, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Boroughs situate on the north side of the River Thames desire to approach Your Majesties with this expression of our loyalty and devotion.

We beg to assure You that our loyalty and devotion are fully shared by the two-and-three-quarter millions of people on whose behalf in our representative capacity we tender this Address.

We esteem most highly the privilege graciously accorded to us at this time of general rejoicing on the occasion of Your Coronation of giving expression to the heartfelt congratulations on the part of those of Your Majesties' loyal subjects from the highest to the humblest whom we represent.

We rejoice in the fact that Your Majesties' reign has commenced under most auspicious conditions, with peace reigning throughout Your wide dominions, and with the march of science and the advance of knowledge contributing in an ever-increasing degree to the progress and happiness of Your subjects.

We recognise how heavy are the responsibilities that devolve upon Your Majesties in Your exalted position, and desire to assure You that in the cares and burdens of State Your Majesties may ever rely upon the sympathy and unwavering loyalty of the inhabitants of our Boroughs.

Your Majesties have always displayed a kindly and generous interest in all peoples and races throughout Your dominions, which fact was shown by Your tour of the Colonies some few years ago, and is emphasised by Your Majesties' contemplated visit to India during the present year.

We who are engaged in the administration of the Municipal affairs of the Metropolitan Boroughs recognise and deeply appreciate the interest that has always been evinced by Your Majesties in matters relating to the Local Government of Your people, and remember with gratitude the practical sympathy and assistance that Your Majesties have given to the furthering of Municipal enterprises for the well-being of the community.

Your Royal Progress through the northern portion of London this day is a proof of Your Majesties' interest in the happiness and welfare of Your subjects residing within the Capital of the British Empire, and the largest and most populous City of the world.

By such kindly thoughts and such gracious actions on the part of Your Majesties the feelings of loyalty and respect of Your subjects must ever be widened and deepened.

We earnestly hope and humbly pray that the blessings of Heaven may continue to be poured upon Your Majesties and upon the Members of Your Family, and that Almighty God may be pleased to guide and sustain You in the time that is to be, and that You may long be spared to reign over a loyal, contented and understanding people.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I thank you for this cordial expression of the loyalty and affection of the millions who dwell in the great Metropolitan Boroughs North of the Thames.

We shall treasure your words of congratulation on Our Accession and Coronation, and We are sensible of your sympathy in Our endeavours to discharge the duties to which We have been called.

We recognise especially the support afforded to Us by the public spirit and disinterested zeal of those who, whether as councillors or officers, devote themselves to the government of the seventeen municipalities which you represent.

The development and maintenance of a vigorous civic life in the many boroughs of London is confronted with some difficulties to which communities less vast and less varied are not exposed: and at the same time social problems in the metropolis have assumed a scale and a complexity unequalled elsewhere.

Our special commendation is therefore due to those who through their sense of local patriotism are willing to bear the burden and to conduct the administration with a resolve that all difficulties shall be faced and overcome.

We join in your prayers for the peace and contentment of all Our people, and so long as

God is pleased to spare Us We will strive to deserve the blessings you ask on Our behalf.

METROPOLITAN BOROUGHES SOUTH OF THE THAMES.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George and Queen Mary.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayors, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Boroughs of Battersea, Bermondsey, Camberwell, Deptford, Greenwich, Lambeth, Lewisham, Southwark, Wandsworth, and Woolwich.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' loyal and dutiful subjects, representing the whole of the inhabitants of the South London Boroughs, desire to convey to Your Majesties the expression of our heartfelt congratulations upon the occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation.

The Empire over which Your Majesties have been called upon to rule is one which exercises a vast influence over the nations and peoples of the world, and we desire to assure Your Majesties that You may always rely on the support and devoted attachment of Your Majesties' loyal subjects to lighten, to some extent, the burden of this responsibility.

Your Majesties' visits to almost every part of the extensive dominions of the Crown have given Your Majesties a wide and intimate knowledge of the wants and desires of the various peoples forming the British Empire, and we remember how the whole country was roused by the stirring words of His Majesty "Wake up, England!", showing the keen interest taken by His Majesty in the progress already made by the other nations of the world, and His fear that England might rest too much on its past.

We recall with pleasure the numerous occasions on which Your Majesties have visited and manifested a marked interest in the hospitals, educational institutions, and municipal enterprises in South London, and especially that on which Your Majesties recently opened the Festival of Empire, which, it is hoped, will tend to bring home to the country some knowledge of the extent and influence of the Empire, its glorious achievements in the past, and the many opportunities afforded to the nation for advancement.

We rejoice that His Majesty, in initiating extensive improvements in the estates in South London of the Duchy of Cornwall, to the great benefit of the inhabitants, especially those of the poorer classes, has shown a practical appreciation of one of the most important branches of local government.

In our Address to His late lamented Majesty King Edward upon His Coronation, reference was made to the beneficial results which we expected to see established by the recent creation of the Metropolitan Boroughs, and we venture to express the hope that our anticipations have to some extent been fulfilled.

Whilst assuring Your Majesties of our loyalty and devotion, we earnestly hope that the Divine Blessing may attend Your Majesties, and that You may long live to rule over a loyal, contented, and prosperous people.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

Your loyal and dutiful Address has greatly added to the pleasure of the loving Welcome given Us by the inhabitants of the South London Boroughs.

The Queen and I are grateful to you for your appreciation of the efforts We make to know and understand the interests of all Our subjects. It is Our earnest wish that the most distant of Our Dominions may feel that they are as much within Our thoughts and Our care as the heart of the great Capital which We traverse to-day.

By the improvements in the South London Estates of the Duchy of Cornwall, to which you make such generous reference, I hope to do something locally to mitigate and elevate the conditions under which so many of Our poorer classes dwell. The Queen and I will gladly do anything We can to encourage and aid you in all wise measures which you take for the improvement of the condition of the people and in the discharge of all the heavy responsibilities which are involved in the municipal government of the Metropolis.

If your good wishes and prayers are realised We hope to have occasion in future to assure you of Our personal sympathy in your work, and We know that We shall never fail to find the same loyalty and dutiful affection that have hitherto characterised your relations with the Throne.

Whitehall, June 26, 1911.

The following Address was presented to The King on His Majesty's arrival at Portsmouth on Saturday, the 24th instant, on the occasion of the Naval Review:—

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, desire, on the Coronation of Your Majesty and your Royal Consort, to tender an expression of our loyalty and devotion.

We recall with much gratification the interest which Your Majesty has at all times evinced in the work of the Municipal Authorities of our Country and in the well-being of all classes of the community.

Your Majesty's active association with the British Navy, both now and in years past, and Your Majesty's numerous visits to Portsmouth, have endeared Your Majesty with a tie of special regard to the inhabitants of the first Naval Port of the British Empire.

We sincerely trust that under the guidance of Providence Your Majesty may be long spared in health and strength to follow in the footsteps of Your illustrious predecessors as the Sovereign Ruler of the free and loyal peoples of the British Empire.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily for the loyal and dutiful Address which you have handed to Me, and for the good wishes which it expresses.

From My early years I have been familiar with your Borough, and I have always looked forward with pleasure to My visits. On each occasion I have found some fresh improvement in the construction or organisation of My Fleet, some new development of Naval power, to study and approve.

I have seen from time to time the admirable work which has been performed by the Municipality of My first Naval Port, and I am confident that in your hands the work will be continued for the benefit of your Townsmen and the ever-increasing prosperity of your Borough.
