TUESDAY, 27 JUNE, 1911.

Whitehall, June 26, 1911.

The following Addresses were presented to Their Majesties on the occasion of Their Progress in State through London on Friday, the 23rd instant:—

CITY OF WESTMINSTER.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King George V and Queen Mary.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the City of Westminster, desire on behalf of the citizens to offer to Your Majesties our most humble, loyal and hearty congratulations on the occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation.

We remember with pride that for centuries the Kings and Queens of England have been crowned in Westminster Abbey, and have chosen Westminster as a place of Royal residence.

We therefore feel ourselves especially bound by ties of loyalty and affection to Your Majesties, and to Your Majesties' Throne.

We wish Your Majesties a long and glorious reign, which shall be memorable for peace, prosperity and happiness throughout the British Dominions; and we pray that the blessing of Almighty God, Protector and Ruler of all Kings, may rest on Your Majesties, and on Your Majesties' Royal House, and that He may crown Your Majesties with His gracious favour throughout Your Majesties' Reign.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

On behalf of Queen Mary and Myself I desire to express Our special pleasure at receiving this loyal Address of Congratulation from the inhabitants of the great city in which We live.

Westminster, as the ancient seat first of the Government of England, then of the United Kingdom, and now of the whole Empire, is rightly proud to have been the theatre of many events which have made their mark upon the history of mankind. Among these scenes—sometimes of triumph and sometimes of tribulation—which have marked the fortunes of Our State and Nation, no happier series can be found than the crownings of the long line of
