

adjoining the said parishes of St. Giles, St. Botolph, St. Mary Magdalen, and St. James, Colchester aforesaid, and contains, according to the census of one thousand nine hundred and one, a population of one thousand and thirty-one, and the net annual value arising from tithe rentcharge is one hundred and thirty-nine pounds.

" 13. A certain district, being a detached portion of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, and at present uninhabited, lies adjacent to the said parish of Lexden, and at a distance of about six hundred yards from the parish church thereof, but at a distance of more than a mile from the parish church of Holy Trinity.

" 14. A certain district, being a detached portion of the said parish of St. James, Colchester, and at present uninhabited and adjacent to the said parish of Lexden, lies at a distance of six hundred yards from the parish church thereof, but at a distance of one and three-quarter miles from the parish church of St. James, Colchester.

" 15. A certain district of the parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, at present uninhabited, projects in a northerly direction into the said parish of Lexden, and lies at a distance of half a mile from the parish church thereof, but at a distance of nearly one mile from the parish church of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester.

" 16. A certain other district of the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, at present uninhabited, projects into the said parish of Lexden, and lies at a distance of less than half a mile from the parish church thereof, but at a distance of one mile from the parish church of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester.

" 17. A certain district of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, containing a population of about eighty-five persons, and forming part of a detached portion of the said parish, is intersected diagonally by a certain new street known as Salisbury Avenue, and the houses therein are partly in the parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, and partly in the parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester.

" 18. Four certain other districts which are all detached portions of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, and containing in the whole a population of about three hundred and fifteen persons, lie wholly within the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester. The parish church of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, lies at a distance of one-third of a mile from the nearest extremity of the said detached portions to the said church, but the parish church of Holy Trinity, Colchester, lies at a distance of two-thirds of a mile from the same point and in the same direction.

" 19. A certain other district forming part of another detached portion of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, forming the house and grounds of a certain messuage known as Cannons, extends in a westerly direction into the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, and is separated from the remainder of the said detached portion by the high road leading from Colchester to Layer.

" 20. A certain district (uninhabited), being a detached portion of the said parishes of St. Nicholas with St. Runwald, Colchester, lies wholly within the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, and at a distance of three-quarters of a mile from the parish church thereof, but the parish church of St. Nicholas with St. Runwald, Colchester, lies at a distance of one mile from such detached portion and in the same direction.

" 21. A certain district, being a detached portion of the said parish of St. Botolph, Colchester, and containing a population of one hundred and fifty-five persons, and lies wholly within the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester. The easternmost point of the said district lies at a distance of half a mile from the parish church of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, but at a distance of one mile from the parish church of St. Botolph, Colchester, and in the same direction.

" 22. A certain other district, being part of another detached portion of the said parish of St. Botolph, Colchester, and being the site of the Union Workhouse and grounds belonging thereto, lies adjacent to the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, and at a distance of three hundred yards from the parish church thereof, but at a distance of over half a mile from the parish church of St. Botolph, Colchester.

" 23. A certain district or strip of territory of the said parish of Lexden, at present uninhabited, extends in a southerly direction into the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, and is separated from the rest of the said parish of Lexden by a certain new road leading from the high road from Colchester to Lexden Park.

" 24. A certain other district of the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, lying to the east of Head Street and to the north of St. John Street, and containing a population of about two hundred persons, lies adjacent to the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, and to the parish church thereof.

" 25. A certain other district of the said parish of St. Mary the Virgin, Colchester, containing a population of about thirty persons, is bounded on the north by Princess Street and on the east by Butt Road, and lies adjacent to the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester.

" 26. A certain district of the said parish of St. Peter, Colchester, containing no population, lies to the south of Culver Street, and is situate on the north-east side of the district referred to in the preceding paragraph, and lies adjacent to the said parish of Holy Trinity, Colchester, and near the parish church thereof.

" 27. A certain district of the said parish of Holy Trinity, containing no population, and forming another part of the detached portion of the said parish which is referred to in the seventeenth paragraph of this representation, forms part of the site of the Cavalry Barracks, the greater part whereof are within the limits of the said parish of St. Giles, Colchester.

" 28. A certain other district of the said parish of Holy Trinity and forming another