ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 24TH JULY 1911.)

OXFORDSHIRE (PARASITIC MANGE) ORDER OF 1911.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1910, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Definition of Parasitic Mange.

1. The expression "parasitic mange" in this Order means sarcoptic mange or psoroptic mange.

Separation of Diseased and Suspected Animals and Notice of Disease.

2.—(1.) Every person having in his possession or under his charge a horse, ass or mule affected with or suspected of parasitic mange shall (a) as far as practicable keep that animal separate from horses, asses and mules not so affected or suspected; and (b) with all practicable speed give notice of the fact of the horse, ass or mule being so affected or suspected to a constable of the police force for the police area in which the horse, ass or mule so affected or suspected is.

(2.) The constable receiving such notice shall forthwith give information of the receipt by him of the notice to an Inspector of the Local Authority, who shall forthwith report the same to the Local Authority.

Veterinary Inquiry by Local Authority as to existence of Parasitic Mange.

3.—(1.) The Local Authority on receiving information of the existence, or supposed existence, of parasitic mange shall forthwith cause inquiry to be instituted as to the correctness of such information with the assistance and advice of a Veterinary Inspector, or of a veterinary practitioner qualified according to the Act of 1894 to be a Veterinary Inspector.

(2.) The owner and occupier of any premises on which there is a horse, ass or mule affected with, or suspected of, parasitic mange, shall give all reasonable facilities for the inquiry by the Local Authority under this Article; and any person failing to give such facilities shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Detention of Animals.

4.—(1.) A Veterinary Inspector of the Local Authority may serve a Notice (in the Form A set forth in the Schedule to this Order, or to the like effect) on the occupier of any stable, shed, field or other premises in which there is a horse, ass or mule which in his opinion is affected with parasitic mange, and thereupon the following restrictions shall take effect:—

(i.) The horse, ass or mule so affected shall not be moved out of the stable, shed, field or other premises specified in the Notice, except with the written authority, and under the supervision, of an Inspector of the Local Authority, and only to some other place of detention; and during the detention it shall from time to time, as often as may be necessary, be treated by the owner thereof with some dressing or other remedy for parasitic mange approved for that purpose by a Veterinary Inspector of the Local Authority;

(ii.) No other horse, ass or mule shall be moved out of the stable, shed, field or other premises unless on each occasion immediately before the movement it is treated with some dressing or other remedy for parasitic mange approved for that purpose by a Veterinary Inspector of the Local Authority;

(iii.) No horse, ass or mule shall be allowed to stray out of the stable, shed, field or other premises.

(2.) A Notice under this Order shall remain in force until it is withdrawn by a Notice in writing served on the occupier of the premises by an Inspector of the Local Authority.

(3.) An Inspector shall with all practicable speed send a copy of any Notice served under this Article to the Local Authority and to the police officer in charge of the nearest police station of the District.

Regulations of Local Authority as to Cleansing and Disinfection.

5.—(1.) The Local Authority may, for the purpose of preventing the spreading of parasitic mange, make Regulations for the following purposes, or any of them:

(i.) For providing for the cleansing and disinfection of any place used by, and of utensils, mangers, feeding-troughs, pens, hurdles, harness, or other things used for or about, any horse, ass or mule affected with or suspected of parasitic mange;

(ii.) For prescribing the mode in which such cleansing and disinfection are to be effected;

(iii.) For requiring the owner, lessee or occupier of any such place to cleanse and disinfect any such place, utensils, mangers, feeding-troughs, pens, hurdles, harness or other things, at the expense of the Local Authority, or at the expense of such owner, lessee or occupier;

(iv.) For requiring the removal by the owner from contact with horses, asses or mules of litter used for or about any horse, ass or mule affected with or suspected of parasitic mange.

(2.) The mode of disinfection shall be one of those prescribed by the Diseases of Animals (Disinfection) Order of 1906.

(3.) If any person fail to cleanse and disinfect any place or any utensil, manger, feeding-trough, pen, hurdle, harness, or other thing, or to remove any litter, in accordance with any such Regulation, it shall be lawful for the Local Authority, without prejudice to the recovery of any penalty for the infringement of such Regulation, to cause such place or such utensil, manger, feeding-trough, pen, hurdle, harness or other thing to be cleansed and disinfected, or to remove such litter, and to recover summarily the expenses thereby incurred from such person.

(4.) Where the power conferred by the preceding provisions of this Article is exercised by the Local Authority, the owner, lessee or occupier of the place to be cleansed and disinfected shall give all reasonable facilities for that purpose.

Provisions as to Regulations of Local Authority.

6.—(1.) The Local Authority shall forthwith send to the Board two copies of every Regulation made by them under this Order.

(2.) If the Board are satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any Regulation made by the Local Authority under this Order, that the same is for any reason objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall thereupon cease to operate.

Extension of certain Sections of Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

7. Horses, asses and mules shall be animals, and parasitic mange of horses, asses and mules (in this Order called parasitic mange) shall be a disease for the purposes of this Order and of the following sections of the Act of 1894 (namely):

Section forty-three (Police);

Section forty-four (General Administrative Provisions); and also for the purposes of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as relate to offences and legal proceedings.

Exemption of Army Veterinary Service and Veterinary Colleges.

8. Nothing in this Order applies to any horse, ass or mule kept in stables of military barracks or camps under the care and supervision of the Army Veterinary Service, or in stables of any Veterinary College affiliated to the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

Offences.

9.—(1.) If a horse, ass or mule is moved in contravention of this Order, or of any Notice thereunder, the owner of the animal and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the animal is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If any horse, ass or mule is allowed to stray in contravention of this Order, or of any Notice thereunder, the owner of the animal, and the person in charge thereof, and the occupier of the premises from which the animal is allowed to stray, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If anything is omitted to be done as regards cleansing or disinfection in contravention of this Order, or of any Regulation made thereunder, the owner and the lessee and the occupier and the person in charge of any place or thing in or in respect of which the same is omitted, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4.) If any owner, occupier, or person in charge of premises requiring to be cleansed and disinfected fails to give the facilities to a Local Authority required under this Order, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

10. In this Order—

"The Board" means the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries;

"Inspector" includes Veterinary Inspector;

"The Act of 1894" means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Extent.

11. This Order extends to the administrative county of Oxford; and the county borough of Oxford.

Commencement.

Mr. Justice Neville.

No. 00212 of 1911.

In the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, and in the Matter of the AMERICAN PASTORAL COMPANY Limited and Reduced.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice for confirming a Resolution of the above Company for reducing its capital from £132,580 to £99,435. By an affidavit of David Davidson, the secretary of the above named Company, filed in the said Matters on the 24th day of July, 1911, it appears that there was not, on the 22nd day of July, 1911, the day fixed by the Order in these Matters, dated the 14th June, 1911, any debt, claim, or liability which, if such date were the commencement of the winding-up of the said Company, would be admissible to proof against the said Company. Any person who claims to have been on the said 22nd day of July, 1911, and still to be a creditor of the said Company must, on or before the 19th day of August, 1911, send his name, also the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitors (if any), to the undersigned at the address mentioned below, or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital.—Dated the 26th day of July, 1911.

Address for service: 435, Corn Exchange-buildings, Corporation-street, Manchester.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Eve.

1911, L. No. 1333.

Between HENRY LITHERLAND and WILLIAM WRIGHT BEMROSE, Plaintiffs, and JOHN McLEAN and LOUIS NICHOLAS, Defendants.

To John McLean, of 65, St. Domingo-grove, Liverpool.

TAKE notice, that on the 21st day of June, 1911, an originating summons was issued in the above action against you and the defendant Louis Nicholas; that by such summons you were required, within 8 days after service, inclusive of the day of such service, to cause an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London.

The plaintiffs by such summons ask:—

1. To have an account taken of what is due to the plaintiffs for principal, interest, and costs under and by virtue of an indenture of mortgage, dated the 25th day of August, 1909, and made between John McLean, one of the defendants herein, of the one part, and Henry Litherland and William Wright Bemrose, the plaintiffs herein, of the other part.

2. That the mortgage may be enforced by foreclosure or sale.

3. Such further and other relief as the nature of the case may require.

The defendant John McLean is sued as a mortgagee, and the defendant Louis Nicholas as second mortgagee.

And take notice, that by an Order made by Mr. Justice Eve, dated the 19th day of July, 1911, it was ordered that service of the said summons, by leaving a copy of the same, together with a copy of the said order, at 65, St. Domingo-grove, Liverpool, and by publication by advertisement of this notice once in the London Gazette, once in the Daily Telegraph, and once in the Liverpool Courier, should be deemed good service of the said originating summons upon you.

And further take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you within 8 days after the leaving of such copy summons and the last of such advertisements, such order will be made, and proceedings taken as the Judge may think just and expedient.
