

tonshire, in 1818 and 1819, and subsequently a Solicitor's Clerk in London to the time of his death in 1858. He was married twice. It is not known to whom he was first married, but he had issue of his first marriage 4 children, one of whom was called Jomima; by his second marriage, to Sarah Sanderson, he had 6 children, Caroline Sarah, Thomas Richard, Ruth, Jane Rebecca, Adelaide, and George Philip. Henry William Horatio Gill is supposed to have died in 1863, at 19, Warwick-street, Pimlico. Nothing is known of George Philip Gill. Frances Caroline Gill married James Dodd, of whom nothing is known. Sarah Ruth Gill married Richard Gill, a retired Quartermaster, and resided at Alphington, near Exeter, Devon, before 1836. Elizabeth Mary Gill was living at 19, Warwick-street, Pimlico, it is believed, up to 1882. Richard Gill died before 1836, leaving his widow Charlotte and five children, viz., Julia, Edmund, Horatio Philip, Frederick, and Walter, all of whom, it is believed, were resident in London.

ALFRED HOWARD, 10, Clifford's-inn, Fleet-street, London, E.C., Solicitor for the Petitioners.

WHEREAS, by an Order of the High Court of Justice, in the Matter of the estate of THOMAS BALE, deceased, Brice v. Tollington, 1908, B. 2736, dated 17th December, 1908, the following enquiry was directed to be made, that is to say, an enquiry who, at the time of the testator's (Thomas Bale's) death, was his heir-at-law, and who, by descent, devolution, or otherwise, is now entitled to the testator's real estate which devolved upon his heir-at-law. Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be interested in the said real estate, through or under William Bale, the eldest son of William and Mary Bale and brother of the said testator, Thomas Bale, and through or under any children or issue of the marriage of the said testator, Thomas Bale, with Mary Neale, late of Groby, in the county of Leicester, are, personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 17th day of October, 1911, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady and Mr. Justice Neville, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Tuesday, the 24th day of October, 1911, at 12 of the clock at noon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated the 27th July, 1911.

J. H. P. CHITTY, Master.

NOTE.—The said William Bale was born about the year 1796, at Warwick, in the county of Warwick, and died on 16th November, 1852, at Birmingham, in the said county. The said William Bale enlisted, at the age of 20, in the 52nd Foot Regiment, and shortly before his death was residing at 9, Union-street, Kingsland-road, Shoreditch. The said testator, Thomas Bale, intermarried with the said Mary Neale in or about the year 1836. The said Mary Neale died at Leicester, on 29th April, 1871. There are two known children of the said marriage: (1) A son, concerning whose birth and death no information is obtainable; (2) Hannah Bale, who was the wife of John Perkins, and who is now deceased without issue.
