

July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parishes of Upton Snodsbury and North Piddle, in the county of Worcester.

“Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the seventeenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and made or expressed to be made between Charles Walker and the Reverend Thomas Walker of the first part, the said Charles Walker and George Thomas Woodroffe of the second part, Benjamin Bomford of the third part, and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part, the messuages, lands and hereditaments commonly known as the Cowsden Hall Estate situate in the parishes of Upton Snodsbury and North Piddle in the county of Worcester containing two hundred and sixty acres one rood and eighteen perches or thereabouts more particularly described in the first and second schedules to the said indenture and delineated and coloured pink on the plan drawn thereon became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

“And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and made or expressed to be made between Benjamin Bomford of the one part and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part the messuages, lands and hereditaments situate in the said parishes and county containing together two hundred and ninety-six acres one rood and twelve perches or thereabouts more particularly described in the schedule to the said indenture and delineated and verged pink on the plan drawn thereon became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

“And whereas the messuages, lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said messuages, lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such messuages, lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorised and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Acts all or any of the said messuages, lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rentcharges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the township of Cummersdale in the parish of Saint Mary, Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the twenty-first day of
