

Yorkshire Railway, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty-seven chains and a half or thereabouts, to the centre of the bridge which carries Chorley Road across such line of railway; and extending thence southward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty-nine chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the eastern end of Victoria Lane where it is joined by a footpath leading to Ellesmere Street, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts, to its junction with Ellesmere Street, and with Deans Road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Deans Road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite the middle of the reservoir situate on the southern side of Deans Road and opposite to the Deans Cotton Mills, and extending thence southward and in a straight line across the said reservoir for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to the point where Deans Brook issues from such reservoir, and extending thence, first south-westward, then south-eastward, and then again south-westward, along the middle of the said Deans Brook for a distance of one mile or thereabouts, to its junction with Folly Brook upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Swinton, from the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Eccles."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late

Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, Canton, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John, Canton, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint John, Canton, and of the parish of Llandaff, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint John, Canton, and of the said parish of Llandaff, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, Canton, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, as such Bishop, and also as the patron, in right of his See, of the rectory of the said new parish of Saint John, Canton, as well as of the vicarage of the said parish of Llandaff (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint John, Canton, and of the said parish of Llandaff, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Luke, Canton, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Canton.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Canton, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint John, Canton, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff, which is bounded upon the south-west by the parish of Caerau, upon the north-west and upon the north by the parish of Llandaff, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east and upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Llandaff from the said new parish of Saint John, Canton, at a point in the middle of Pensisli Road opposite to the fence forming
