At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of August, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of his late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Wulstan, Selly Oak, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Selly Oak, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Birmingham.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Wulstan, Selly Oak, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Birmingham (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Selly Oak, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Wulstan, Selly Oak, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Wulstan, Selly Oak.'

"And with the like consent of the said Charles, Bishop of Birmingham (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Wulstan, Selly Oak, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Wulstan, Selly Oak, being:—All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Selly Oak, in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Birmingham, which is bounded upon the north partly by the parish of Edgbaston and partly by the new parish of Saint Mary and Saint Ambrose, Edgbaston, both in the county of Warwick and in the said diocese of Birmingham, upon the east and upon the south-east by the new parish of Saint Stephen, Selly Hill, in the said county of Worcester and in the said diocese of Birmingham, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-west and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Selly Hill, from the said new parish of Saint Mary, Selly Oak, at the centre of Raddlebarn Bridge, which carries Raddlebarn Lane across the Worcester and Birmingham Canal, and extending thence first north-westward and then northward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of sixty-nine chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary, Selly Oak, from the said parish of Edgbaston."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts. And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Birmingham.
