

chant Shipping Act, 1894, such quantity as may be required for the purposes of such Authority, provided that:—

(a) The Carbide is kept only in a metal vessel or vessels hermetically closed at all times when the Carbide is not actually being withdrawn from such vessel or vessels.

(b) The vessels containing Carbide are kept in a dry and well-ventilated building exclusively appropriated to the keeping of Carbide, and detached from a dwelling-house or separated therefrom by a substantial partition with no opening in it.

(c) Due precautions are taken to prevent unauthorised persons from having access to the Carbide.

(d) No artificial light capable of igniting inflammable vapour is allowed to be taken into the building in which the Carbide is kept.

All previous Orders in Council relating to the keeping of Carbide of Calcium, viz., Orders dated 26th February, 1897, 7th July, 1897, and 24th October, 1904, are hereby repealed.
