The following Address was presented to The King at Chichester Railway Station on Saturday, the 29th July, when Their Majesties passed through the city by rail on their way to Portsmouth Dockyard, en route for Cowes:—

To His Most Gracious Majesty The King.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the ancient city of Chichester, beg leave to approach Your Majesty with feelings of the greatest loyalty and most profound respect.

We rejoice that on this the first occasion of Your Majesty's coming to this district since your accession to the throne of this great Empire, you should graciously permit us to approach you under the shadow of our noble Market Cross and to present to Your Majesty an Address on behalf of our citizens expressing their unfeigned pleasure at your visit and the hope that for very many years to come this city and district may from time to time be honoured by Your Royal Presence and Interest. We further desire to express our gratitude for the cordial relations which under Your Majesty's rule exist between this country, the Colonies and other nations, and trust that these relations may long continue, fostered as they are by the personal knowledge and interest which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to gather and show in them.

We devoutly pray that Your Majesty may for many years be spared to adorn the Throne of this kingdom and to reign over a happy, prosperous and united Empire.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily for the loyal and dutiful address of welcome from the Mayor, Aldermen, and citizens of the City of Chichester. I much regret that circumstances prevented Me from visiting your ancient and beautiful city. I do not forget that only seven years ago I was present with My beloved Father when he received an address from the inhabitants of Chichester. I am gratified to know that I hold so big a place in your affections, and you may be assured that I will always take a warm interest in the welfare and progress of the town.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of May, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl Carrington.

Lord Haversham.

Lord Ashby St. Ledgers.

WHEREAS the territories of Africa situated within the limits of this Order, as hereinafter described, are under the protection of His Majesty the King:

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty has power and jurisdiction in the said territories:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Northern Rhodesia Order in Council 1911.

2. The Barotsiland—North-Western Rhodesia Orders in Council 1899, 1902, and 1909 and the North-Eastern Rhodesia Orders in Council 1900, 1907, and 1909 are hereby revoked as and from the commencement of this Order, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

4. The limits of this Order are the parts of Africa bounded by Southern Rhodesia, German South-West Africa, Portuguese West Africa, the Congo Free State, German East Africa, Nyasaland, and Portuguese East Africa. The territory within the limits of this Order shall be known as Northern Rhodesia.

5. A Secretary of State may from time to time, by notice published in the “Gazette” and in the “London Gazette,” declare that any parts of Africa north of the River Zambesi, and under the protection of His Majesty, shall be included in the limits of this Order, and from the date of the publication of the notice in the “Gazette” this Order shall apply to the parts named therein. A Secretary of State may from time to time, by the like notice, declare that any part of Africa for the time being within the limits of this Order shall, until otherwise directed, be excepted from the application of this Order; and from the date of the publication of such notice the part named therein shall be excluded from the limits of this Order.

6. Subject to any proclamation made under this Order any jurisdiction exercisable otherwise than under this Order, whether by virtue of any Statute or Order in Council, or of any Treaty, or otherwise, and whether exercisable by His Majesty or by any person on his behalf or by any Colonial or other Court or under any Commission or under any Charter, shall remain in full force.

7. The Company shall have and may exercise the general administration of affairs within the limits of this Order, in accordance with the terms of the Charter and the provisions of this Order. The powers conferred upon the Company by this Order are in augmentation of the powers conferred on it by the Charter.

8.—(1) A Secretary of State may, if and when he shall think fit, appoint

(a) an officer who shall be called the Resident Commissioner,

(b) such other officers as he may, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, consider necessary.

(2) The Resident Commissioner and any such other officers shall be paid out of money provided by Parliament such salary and allowances as a Secretary of State with the like concurrence may determine.

(3) The Resident Commissioner shall make a report to the High Commissioner upon every draft Proclamation submitted to him by the Administrator, and upon all appointments submitted for his approval and shall, as occasion may require, fully inform the High Commissioner upon all matters of importance arising within the limits of this Order.

(4) The Resident Commissioner shall take precedence next after the Administrator.

(5) The Administrator shall supply or cause to be supplied to the Resident Commissioner, by such officer and at such place as he may desire, all such information and all such documents of whatever nature having reference to the administration or the officers and servants of the Company as the Resident Commissioner may at any time require, and shall furnish true copies of any such documents at any time if requested by the Resident Commissioner so to do.

(6) The Secretary of State may appoint the officer for the time being holding the office of Resident Commissioner under the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898, to be concurrently Resident Commissioner under this Order, provided that such officer if so appointed may from time to time, with the approval of the High Commissioner, appoint a deputy to act for him in the territory within the limits of this Order, and such deputy shall exercise and perform all such powers and duties as may, with the approval of the High Commissioner, be assigned to him by the Resident Commissioner save and except that no such deputy shall be capable of acting as Commandant General.

9. The Company may exercise the administration by an officer styled the Administrator, and under him by such other officers as may from time to time be necessary. The Company shall appoint and pay the Administrator and all such officers; but shall obtain the approval of a Secretary of State before appointing any person to the office of Administrator. The salary of the Administrator shall be fixed by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State, and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval. The Administrator may be removed or suspended from office by a Secretary of State, or by the Company with the approval of a Secretary of State.

10. The Administrator may hold office, unless sooner removed, for three years from the date at which he enters upon the duties of his office; and, with the approval of a Secretary of State, may from time to time be reappointed for the further term of three years. At the end of any such term the Administrator may continue in office until reappointed or until his successor is appointed.

11. If at the end of any such term, or if on a vacancy in the office the Company does not within six months thereafter, with the approval of a Secretary of State, reappoint the Administrator or appoint his successor, a Secretary of State may appoint some person to be Administrator.

12. The Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State, may appoint some person to act as Administrator in the event of the death, removal, resignation, absence, incapacity, or suspension of the Administrator. When there is no Administrator or Acting Administrator within the limits of the Order capable of discharging the duties of the office, the Senior Judge may act as Administrator.

13. As soon as the Company by Resolution of its Board of Directors declares that it is expedient that a Council shall be appointed, there shall be a Council to assist the Administrator, consisting of the Resident Commissioner and Senior Judge, ex officio, and not less than three other members appointed by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State. A member of the said Council shall hold office for three years, unless sooner removed by the Company, with the like approval, but shall be eligible for reappointment.

In the event of the resignation, suspension, or absence from Northern Rhodesia or other incapacity of a Member of the Council other than the Senior Judge, the Company may, with the approval of a Secretary of State, appoint some other person to fill the temporary vacancy thus caused.

Provided that in default of such appointment by the Company within a period of six months after a vacancy has arisen, a Secretary of State may appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

Every member appointed to fill any such temporary vacancy shall cease to be a member on the return to Northern Rhodesia or the removal of the suspension or incapacity of the member in whose place he was appointed.

Every member of the Council shall, before taking his seat, take and subscribe before the Administrator or some other person authorized by him the following oath of allegiance:—

"I, A.B., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty King George His heirs and successors according to law. So help me God."

But any person authorized by law to affirm or declare instead of taking an oath may make such affirmation or declaration in lieu of such oath.

14. The Council shall meet whenever summoned by the Administrator, and shall be competent to discharge its functions notwithstanding the existence of one vacancy among its members, whether caused by a vacancy in the office of Senior Judge or of one of the other members. The Administrator shall preside at all meetings of the Council, and any two members, exclusive of the Resident Commissioner, with the Administrator shall form a quorum. All questions shall be decided by a majority of the votes of those present, and if the votes are equal the Administrator shall have a casting vote.

Provided that the Resident Commissioner though entitled to be present and to speak at any meeting of the Council or of any Committee thereof shall not be entitled to vote at any such meeting.

15. The Administrator shall take the advice of the Council upon all matters of importance affecting the administration of affairs within the limits of this Order, except in cases which are too urgent to admit of their advice being taken. In all such urgent cases he shall as soon as possible summon the Council and acquaint them with the action taken, and the reasons therefor.

16. The Administrator may act contrary to the advice of the Council, but in every such case he shall report the matter forthwith to the Company, with the reasons for his action. In every such case any Member of the Council who dissents may require that the reasons for his dissent be recorded and transmitted to the Company. The Company may reverse any action of the Administrator, whether taken with or without or against the advice of the Council.

17. It shall be lawful for the High Commissioner, after consulting the Administrator, to make, alter, and repeal Proclamations for the administration of justice, the raising of revenue, and generally for the peace, order, and good government of all persons within the limits of this Order.

Provided that

(1) The High Commissioner before issuing any such Proclamations shall wherever possible have regard to any suggestions or requests made to him in respect thereof by the British South Africa Company.

(2) No proclamation concerning the raising of revenue shall be made unless the assent of the Company has previously been given thereto. Such assent may be signified by telegraph.

Every Proclamation shall be published in the "Gazette" and shall from and after the date of such publication or from and after such other date as may be mentioned in such Proclamation and thereafter until disallowed or repealed or modified by any subsequent Proclamation have effect as if contained in this Order.

The production of a copy of the "Gazette" in which a Proclamation is published as above provided shall be evidence of promulgation.

The High Commissioner shall sign every Proclamation issued by him, and shall, at the first convenient opportunity, transmit an authenticated copy of every such Proclamation to the Secretary of State, and every such Proclamation may be disallowed within one year from the taking effect thereof by a Secretary of State, either of his own motion or at the request of the Company, and every Proclamation so disallowed shall become null and void so soon as the disallowance thereof shall be published in the "Gazette," but without prejudice to anything theretofore lawfully done thereunder.

18. The High Commissioner in issuing Proclamations shall respect any native laws or customs by which the civil relations of any native Chiefs, tribes, or populations under His Majesty's protection are now regulated, except so far as the same may be incompatible with the due exercise of His Majesty's power and jurisdiction.

19. No customs duties levied on any articles produced or manufactured in any part of His Majesty's dominions or in any British Protectorate and imported into Northern Rhodesia shall exceed in amount the duties levied on such articles according to the Tariff in force in the South African Customs Union at the date of the coming into operation of "The Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898," or the Tariff contained in the Customs Union Convention concluded between the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, the Orange Free State and the Colony of Natal in May, 1898, whichever shall be the higher. Provided that in fixing the customs duties regard shall be had to any treaty obligations affecting the territory within the limits of this Order or any portion of it.

20. The military police forces shall be and remain under the direct control and authority of the High Commissioner and all officers and members of the said forces shall conform to and obey such orders and instructions as they may from time to time receive from the High Commissioner or from any person appointed by him to act on his behalf. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to any civil police force raised and constituted as such by Proclamation. Nothing in the nature of a military operation shall be undertaken by any police or volunteer force or any part thereof until such force or part thereof shall have been declared by the High Commissioner to be employed on active service.

The High Commissioner may declare when and for what period any police or volunteer force or any part thereof shall be employed on active service, and such force or such part thereof shall, while so employed, be subject to such terms and regulations as the High Commissioner shall determine. Any police force shall be liable for service in any place within the limits of this Order or within the limits of the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898.

The Resident Commissioner for the time being shall be Commandant General of the police and volunteer forces, and shall exercise

(a) the chief command of any police and volunteer force while such force is employed on active service, or of any part of such force while so employed;

(b) such powers as may be conferred on the Commandant General by Proclamation;

(c) the right of inspecting at all times any police and volunteer force.

The appointment, promotion, and dismissal of officers of the volunteer and police forces, save as may be otherwise by Proclamation provided, shall be subject to the approval of the High Commissioner.

21.—(1.) There shall be a court of record, styled the High Court of Northern Rhodesia, with full jurisdiction, civil and criminal, over all persons and over all matters within Northern Rhodesia, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained with regard to native law and custom.

(2) Such civil and criminal jurisdiction shall, as far as circumstances admit, be exercised upon the principles of and in conformity with the substance of the law for the time being in force in and for England, and with the powers vested in and according to the course of procedure and practice observed by and before courts of justice and justices of the peace in England, according to their respective jurisdictions and authorities, except so far as such law may be inapplicable or may be modified by any Order in Council or Proclamation.

Provided that no Act, passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom after the commencement of this Order shall be deemed to apply to the said territory.

(3) The High Court shall have a seal, bearing the style of the Court and such device as a Secretary of State from time to time approves; but until such a seal is provided the seal of the Company may be used.

22. There shall be as many Judges of the High Court, to be paid by the Company, as from time to time may be required. Every Judge shall be appointed by a Secretary of State on the nomination of the Company, and shall hold office during good behaviour, and shall only be removed by a Secretary of State. The salaries of the Judges shall be fixed by the Company, with the approval of a Secretary of State, and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval.

23. Whenever the appointment of a Judge is necessary the Company shall nominate to a Secretary of State a fit and proper person for the office. If the Secretary of State does not approve of such person he shall so inform the Company, and the Company shall thereupon nominate another person, and so on toties quoties, but if the Company has not within six months from the date of the occurrence of a vacancy nominated some person whom the Secretary of State approves, the Secretary of State may appoint a person who has not been so nominated.

24. The High Court shall sit at such places as may from time to time be prescribed by the Administrator. The jurisdiction of the High Court may, until other arrangements are made under this Order, be exercised by any Judge thereof sitting alone.

25. If any sentence of death is pronounced by the High Court, a copy of the evidence shall be transmitted to the High Commissioner, and the sentence shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by him. The High Commissioner may signify his confirmation by telegraph.

26. The High Commissioner may remit or commute, in whole or in part, or grant a free pardon in respect of any sentence of the High Court, and may signify such remission or commutation by telegraph.

27. The High Court may make rules for regulating its procedure and practice and the admission of practitioners, and generally for the purpose of making any provision proper or necessary for the proper or effectual exercise of jurisdiction under this Order by the High Court and the Magistrates' Courts hereafter mentioned, and rules affecting the conduct of civil suits shall be so framed as to secure as far as may be that cases shall be decided on their merits according to substantial justice without excessive regard to technicalities of pleading or procedure and without unnecessary delay. Subject hereto, and so far as the same do not extend, the procedure, rules and regulations of the High Court shall be the same as the procedure, rules and regulations of the English Courts.

28. In civil matters when the amount or value in dispute exceeds £500 sterling, an appeal shall lie from the High Court to His Majesty in Council.

Every appeal shall be brought within such time, and in such manner as regards the form and transmission of the appeal, as may be prescribed by any rules of procedure made by His Majesty in Council.

29. There shall be Magistrates' Courts, with jurisdiction over all persons within the districts assigned to them. A Magistrates' Court shall be a court of record, and shall have such jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases respectively as may be prescribed in pursuance of this Order.

30.—(1) The Administrator may from time to time determine the number of Magistrates' Courts required within Northern Rhodesia, and, by notice in the "Gazette," from time to time assign to each such Court the local limits of the district within which it is to have jurisdiction, and specify the place or places at which the Court is to be held.

(2) The Administrator, with the approval of the High Commissioner, may appoint a Magistrate to each such Court, and, if occasion requires, any Assistant Magistrates.

(3) Every Assistant Magistrate may exercise all the jurisdiction of the Court, and the provisions of this Order with respect to Magistrates shall apply to Assistant Magistrates: provided that, in the conduct of business, every Assistant Magistrate shall be subject to the directions of the Magistrate.

(4) A Magistrate appointed to one Court may exercise the jurisdiction of any other Court if present therein.

(5) The salaries of Magistrates shall be fixed by the Administrator with the approval of the High Commissioner, and shall not be increased or diminished without his approval.

(6) In the case of illness, absence, or other emergency the Administrator may appoint a competent person to act as Magistrate or Assistant Magistrate. He shall forthwith report every such appointment and the circumstances thereof to the High Commissioner for his approval, and when the High Commissioner disapproves any such appointment the person so appointed shall cease to act after notice of the disapproval has been received by the Administrator.

31. A Magistrate upon appointment may forthwith enter upon the duties of his office, but the appointment is subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State; if such confirmation is refused, the High Commissioner shall give public notice thereof in the "Gazette," and thereupon the powers of the Magistrate shall cease, but without prejudice to any previous exercise of them. A Magistrate may at any time be removed from office by a Secretary of State, or by the Administrator, with the approval of a Secretary of State, but not otherwise.

32. A Magistrate on appointment shall, before exercising any of the functions of his office, in open Court, take the following oath:—

I, A.B., do promise and swear that I will faithfully, impartially, and diligently execute to the best of my abilities the duties of the office of Magistrate. So help me God,

33. Subject to any regulations and rules of Court, appeals shall lie to the High Court from the Magistrates' Courts.

34.—(1) The High Commissioner may suspend a Judge or Magistrate from his office for misconduct, but shall first cause him to be furnished with a written statement of the acts of misconduct alleged against him, and cause him to be called on to state in writing by a given day (which shall allow a reasonable interval) any grounds upon which he relies to exculpate himself.

(2) If the suspension takes place, the High Commissioner shall forthwith transmit a full report of the matter, and the proofs of the alleged misconduct, to a Secretary of State, who may confirm or disallow the suspension.

(3) If the suspension is confirmed, the suspended officer is thereby removed from office; if it is disallowed, the suspended officer is thereby restored to office, and is entitled to any salary that has been withheld during his suspension.

(4) If the Secretary of State is of opinion that the officer deserves punishment, but not the extreme penalty of removal from office, he may, instead of disallowing the suspension, direct that the officer be restored to office, but be required to serve at a reduced salary, either permanently or for a stated period; or that a specific sum be deducted from any salary due or to become due to the officer; or that he be transferred to a lower office.

35. In civil cases between natives the High Court and the Magistrates' Courts shall be guided by native law so far as that law is not repugnant to natural justice or morality, or to any Order made by His Majesty in Council, or to any proclamation made under this Order. In any such case the Court may obtain the assistance of one or two native assessors, to advise the Court upon native law and customs, but the decision of the Court shall be given by the Judge or Magistrate alone. In all other respects the Court shall follow as far as possible the procedure observed in similar cases in England.

36. If in any civil case between natives a question arises as to the effect of a marriage contracted, according to native law or custom, by a native in the lifetime of one or more other wives married to him according to native law or custom, the Court may treat such marriage as valid for all civil purposes, in so far as polygamous marriages are recognised by the said native law or custom.

37. The High Commissioner by proclamation may make such other or further provisions as from time to time may appear desirable to secure the more efficient working of the several Courts constituted by this Order.

38.—(1) The Administrator may, if he thinks fit, from time to time, with the approval of the High Commissioner, subject to confirmation by a Secretary of State, appoint an officer to be called the Secretary for Native Affairs, and officers to be called Native Commissioners, and, if occasion requires, Assistant Native Commissioners, and may, by notice in the "Gazette" prescribe the powers, duties, salaries, and districts to be assigned to such officers.

(2) The provisions of this Order with respect to the appointment, salaries, suspension, and removal of Magistrates shall apply to the appointment, salaries, suspension, and removal of the Secretary for Native Affairs, Native Commissioners and Assistant Native Commissioners, and any other persons employed in the administration of native affairs, and the High Commissioner and a Secretary of State shall have and exercise the like powers with respect to these officers as under this Order are exercisable by them in the case of Magistrates.

(3) The High Commissioner may confer upon any Native Commissioner or Assistant Native Commissioner such jurisdiction, not exceeding that exercisable by Magistrates, as may from time to time appear to him to be expedient.

39. No conditions, disabilities, or restrictions shall, without the previous consent of a Secretary of State, be imposed upon natives by proclamation which do not equally apply to persons other than natives, save in respect of fire-arms, ammunition, liquor, or any matter in respect of which a Secretary of State, upon the recommendation of the High Commissioner, thinks fit to authorize any proclamations.

40. The Company shall from time to time assign to the natives inhabiting Northern Rhodesia land sufficient for their occupation, whether as tribes or portions of tribes, and suitable for their agricultural and pastoral requirements, including in all cases a fair and equitable proportion of springs or permanent water. Provided that it shall not be lawful for any purpose whatever to alienate from the Chief and people of the Barotse the territory reserved from prospecting by virtue of the Concessions from Lewanika to the British South Africa Company, dated the 17th of October, 1900, and the 11th of August, 1909.

Nevertheless all the rights conferred and obligations imposed upon the Company and upon the Chief and people of the Barotse respectively by the aforesaid concessions as approved by the Secretary of State shall continue to have full force and effect.

41. All questions relating to the settlement of natives on the lands within Northern Rhodesia shall be dealt with and decided by the Administrator, but all such decisions shall be reported to and be subject to review by the High Commissioner.

42. A native may acquire, hold, encumber, and dispose of land on the same conditions as a person who is not a native, but no contract for encumbering or alienating land the property of a native shall be valid unless the contract is made in the presence of a Magistrate, is attested by him, and bears a certificate signed by him stating that the consideration for the contract is fair and reasonable, and that he has satisfied himself that the native understands the transaction.

43. The Company shall retain the mineral rights in all land assigned to natives. If the Company should require any such land for the purpose of mineral development, or as sites of townships, or for railways or other public works, the Administrator, by direction of the Company, and upon good and sufficient cause shown, may, with the approval of the High Commissioner, order the natives to remove from such land or any portion thereof, and shall assign to them just and liberal compensation in land elsewhere, situate in as convenient a position as possible, sufficient and suitable for their agricultural and pastoral requirements, containing a fair and equitable proportion of springs or permanent water, and, as far as possible, equally suitable for their requirements in all respects as the land from which they are ordered to remove.

44.—(1) No native shall be removed from any kraal or from any land assigned to him for occupation, except after full inquiry by, and by order of, the Administrator approved by the High Commissioner.

(2) If any person without such order removes or attempts to remove any native from any kraal or from any land unless in execution of the process of a competent Court, he shall, in addition to any other proceeding to which he is liable, be guilty of an offence against this Order, and on conviction before the High Court shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding two years, or to a fine not exceeding 100*l.*, or to both.

(3) Nothing in this section contained shall be deemed to limit or affect the exercise by the Chief of the Barotse of his authority in tribal matters.

45. The High Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, refer any question relating to natives for report to any Judge of the High Court, and the Judge shall thereupon make such inquiry as he thinks fit, and shall report to the High Commissioner the result of such inquiry. The High Commissioner may act with reference to any such report as he thinks fit.

46.—(1) The Administrator shall, when so required by the High Commissioner, appoint in any magisterial district a subordinate tribunal, to consist of the Magistrate, or any Assistant Magistrate, and two assessors, from time to time selected by a Judge of the High Court upon the request of the High Commissioner.

(2) Such tribunal shall report or make recommendations to the High Commissioner upon all questions relating to natives referred to it by, or by the direction of, the High Commissioner, or by any Judge to whom any question relating to natives has been referred by the High Commissioner. The High Commissioner may deal with any such reports or recommendations as he thinks fit.

47. In case of a revolt against the Company, or other misconduct committed by a native Chief or tribe, the Administrator may impose a reasonable fine upon the offender. The Administrator shall forthwith report every such case to the High Commissioner, who may remit the fine in whole or in part; the Administrator shall give effect to any such remission.

48.—(1) The High Commissioner shall transmit to a Secretary of State a report upon every case relating to natives dealt with by him under the preceding sections thirty-eight to forty-seven inclusive of this Order, together with copies of all reports and recommendations and all documents relating to such case, and a Secretary of State may review any case and reverse or modify any decision given or order made therein, and may give such directions in the matter as he thinks fit, and due effect shall be given to such directions by all persons.

(2) Provided that such directions shall only be binding where a Secretary of State has within twelve months after receiving the report of the High Commissioner given notice to the High Commissioner that he intends to review any such case.

49.—(1) Where the approval of a Secretary of State is required under this Order for the appointment of any officer, such officer may, upon appointment, enter upon and perform the duties of his office before such approval has been signified, but until approved or disapproved by a Secretary of State such appointment shall be regarded as provisional only.

(2) If any such appointment is disapproved by a Secretary of State, the person so appointed shall cease to hold the office as soon as the signification of such disapproval is received by the Administrator, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done by him during his provisional appointment.

(3) The Administrator shall forthwith report to the High Commissioner, who shall report to a Secretary of State every such provisional appointment.

(4) Notice of the disapproval of a Secretary of State shall be published in the "Gazette."

50.—(1) All suits civil and criminal pending in any Court within the limits of this Order at the date of the commencement thereof shall stand removed to the corresponding Court established under this Order, which shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the same, and all judgments and orders of any such Court given or made before the commencement of this Order shall have the same force and effect as if they had been given or made by the said corresponding Courts.

All appeals which shall be pending at the commencement of the Order shall be proceeded with as if this Order had not been made.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Order all proclamations, regulations or rules made under the provisions of the Orders in Council revoked by this Order shall continue to have full force and effect within the limits of the respective territories for which the same were made until repealed, revoked, or varied in accordance with the provisions in this Order.

51. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order and of the commencement thereof, and of any Proclamation made under this Order and published in the "Gazette."

52. This Order shall be published in the "Gazette" and commence and come into operation on a day to be fixed by the High Commissioner, and the High Commissioner shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto.
