Whitehall, October 11, 1911.

The KING was pleased, on Tuesday, the 10th instant, at Buckingham Palace, to present to James Moulder and Jack Hewitt the Albert Medals of the Second Class conferred upon them by His Majesty for gallantry in saving or endeavouring to save life, as detailed below :—

JAMES MOULDER.

On the 12th July last, Mr. Petty, aged 72, a manufacturer of fireworks, was at work in one of the sheds of his factory at Barton Moss, near Manchester, charging bombs, when an explosion occurred, followed a few moments later by a second and more violent explosion. As a result of the explosions the shed was partially wrecked and set on fire, while Mr. Petty was hurled to the ground and pinned down among the burning debris. His son, who was approaching the shed at the time, was
