With a view of preventing the introduction of Plague, the Ministers of the Interior, of Commerce, of Finance, and of Agriculture, have, by a Decree dated August 23, 1911, prohibited the importation and transit of the following goods from China and Port Arthur, also from the ports of Dairen (Dalny), Hongkong, Macao, Bangkok, the islands of Formosa and Giava, from the Asiatic littoral, beginning from the British Indies and to the West as far as the entrance of the Suez Canal, in the Gulf of Suez, as well as from Egypt.

(1) Soiled body linen and worn clothing (personal effects), old bedding (used bed feathers). Should these articles be introduced as travelling luggage, or owing to change of domicile, they can be imported directly or in transit, being subjected, however, on crossing the frontier to the special hygienic prescriptions in force.

(2) Rags including linings of clothes placed in commerce as shreds of cotton, also pressed rags in iron-hooped bales for wholesale trade.

The transit of all such goods and articles is allowed when it can be proved that permission for their importation or transit has been obtained from the neighbouring territory, provided, however, that they be packed in such manner as to exclude all possible handling ("manipolazione") of same during transit. This Ordinance enters into force at once.

The Ordinances of May the 27th, 1898, B.L.J. No. 90, and May the 7th, 1900, B.L.J. No. 89, published by Government Circulars of June the 3rd, 1898, No. 5853, and May the 9th, 1900, No. 5740, are hereby repealed.

THE BOARDING-OUT ORDER, 1911.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the several POOR LAW UNIONS for the time being in ENGLAND and WALES;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the Boarding-out Order, 1905 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1905"), We, the Local Government Board, prescribed, in relation to each Poor Law Union for the time being in England and Wales, Regulations with reference to the boarding-out of pauper children in homes beyond the limits of the Poor Law Union;

NOW THEREFORE, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, We hereby rescind the Order of 1905 and the Order of 1909, except so far as those Orders are hereinafter expressly declared to remain in force for any purposes of this Order:

And We do hereby Order with regard to each of the several Poor Law Unions for the time being in England and Wales that the Regulations with respect to the boarding-out of children by the Guardians in homes either within or beyond the limits of the Poor Law Union shall, except so far as We may assent to any departure from the Regulations in any particular case, be the following, that is to say:—

ARTICLE I.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in any Order issued by the Poor Law Commissioners or the Poor Law Board, or by Us, the Guardians of a Poor Law Union may board-out pauper children chargeable to the Poor Law Union either within or beyond the limits of the Poor Law Union, and, in any case in which a child is boarded-out as aforesaid, the Guardians shall observe all such rules and conditions set forth in this Order as are applicable to the case, and shall in other respects comply with the provisions of this Order:
