

advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 2 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, it is, amongst other things, enacted that "so much of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as makes it an offence for any person to sell or keep open shop for the sale of poisons, unless he is a duly registered pharmaceutical chemist or chemist and druggist, and conforms to Regulations made under Section 1 of that Act, shall not apply in the case of poisonous substances to be used exclusively in agriculture or horticulture for the destruction of insects, fungi or bacteria, or as sheep dips or weed killers, which are poisonous by reason of their containing arsenic, tobacco or the alkaloids of tobacco, if the person so selling or keeping open shop is duly licensed for the purpose under this section by a local authority, and conforms to any Regulations as to the keeping, transporting and selling of poisons made under this section, but nothing in this section shall exempt any person so licensed from the requirements of any other provision of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, or of the Arsenic Act, 1851, relating to poisons;" and that "His Majesty may by Order in Council make Regulations as to—

"(a) the granting of licences under this section; and

"(b) the duration, renewal, revocation, suspension, extent and production of such licences; and

"(c) the keeping, inspection and copying of registers of licences; and

"(d) the fees to be charged for licences and for inspection and copying of registers; and

"(e) the keeping, transporting and selling of the poisonous substances to which this section applies;

"and generally for the purposes of carrying this section into effect."

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the 2nd day of April, 1909, certain Regulations were made in pursuance of the said Act.

And whereas it is expedient that additional Regulations should be made in pursuance of the said Act.

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby make the Regulations which are hereunto annexed, and doth hereby order that those Regulations do come into force on the 1st day of January, 1912, and do continue in force until revoked or varied by any Regulations which may hereafter be made under the said recited enactment.

Almeric FitzRoy.

REGULATIONS referred to in the foregoing Order in Council.

Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908.

1. Where the applicant for a licence under Section 2 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, is a body corporate, or in Scotland a firm or partnership, the application shall be made in the first form set out in Schedule A to these Regulations, and the forms of licences, applications for the renewal of licences, and renewals of licences, set out in Schedules B, C, and D to the Regulations made under the Order in Council, dated the 2nd April, 1909 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Regulations), shall be adapted accordingly.

2.—(1) Where the applicant for a licence under Section 2 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, is a person in the employment of a person who has obtained a licence under that section, the application shall be made in the second form set out in Schedule A to these Regulations, and the forms of licences, applications for the renewal of licences, and renewals of licences, shall be those set out in Schedules B, C, and D to these Regulations, and the maximum fee charged for the grant of a licence shall be 5s. instead of the maximum fee specified in the principal Regulations, and so much of the principal Regulations as requires an applicant to publish notice of his intention to apply for a licence in two newspapers shall not apply.

(2) A licence granted to such an applicant as aforesaid shall not continue in force after the licence of the person in whose employment he is is revoked or whilst it is suspended.

(3.) The following Regulation shall be substituted in place of No. 14 of the principal Regulations:—

A poisonous substance shall not be sold except in an enclosed vessel or receptacle as received from the manufacturer, distinctly labelled with the name of the substance and the word "Poison," and with the name and address of the seller, as provided by Section 17 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, and also with a notice of the special purpose for which it has been prepared. For the purposes of this Regulation the person on whose behalf any sale is made shall be deemed to be the seller.
