

In Parliament.—Session 1912.

BLYTH HARBOUR COMMISSIONERS (RECONSTITUTION).

(Alteration, &c., of Constitution of the Blyth Harbour Commissioners; Reduction or Increase of Members; Further Representation to Shipowners, Coalowners, Traders and Others; New Electors; Qualification of Electors; Qualification and Election of Members and Procedure in Reference thereto; Abolition of Existing Rights; Repeal or Amendment of Acts, and Other Matters.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act for all or some of the following amongst other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To alter or provide for the alteration of the constitution and if thought fit to increase or reduce or provide for the increase or reduction of the number of the Blyth Harbour Commissioners incorporated by or acting under the Blyth Harbour Act, 1882 (hereinafter referred to as "the Commissioners"), and to alter, amend or repeal or provide for the alteration, amendment and repeal of all or some of the provisions of the said Act of 1882 or any other Act which regulate or provide for or relate to the constitution of the Commissioners and matters incidental thereto and (if thought fit) to make provision that or whereby the shipowners, coalowners, traders and other persons carrying on business or trading in, at, to or from the Harbour of Blyth (in this Notice called "the Harbour") and all or any other persons interested in the trade and development of the Harbour and persons liable to the payment of dues and charges under the provisions of the said Act of 1882 or any other Act in respect of the use of the Harbour or facilities thereat or all or some of such persons (hereinafter referred to as "the payers of dues") shall be granted representation or a larger representation upon the Blyth Harbour Commission, and if thought fit to or to make provision which will or may abolish and take away, limit, amend or vary existing rights or powers of being or acting as a Commissioner of the Harbour or of electing or appointing the Commissioners or any of them.

2. To repeal all or some of the provisions of the Blyth Harbour Act, 1882, and any Act or Order amending the same or relating to the Commissioners, and if thought fit to amend the representation of any of the three classes of payers of dues provided for by or referred to in the said Act of 1882, and to prescribe or alter or to provide for the alteration of the qualification of any existing additional or other present or future member of the Commission and the mode of his election, the qualification of electors and the method of election or appointment, and to confer upon the payers of dues, electors or other persons and persons entitled to appoint Commissioners such further rights or powers with respect to the appointment or election of Commissioners, or to restrict or vary any existing rights or powers for those purposes as may be found requisite or expedient for the purposes of the Blyth Harbour Act, 1882, or any Act or Order amending the same or of the undertaking of the Commissioners or as may be provided by the intended Act.

3. To apply to or incorporate in the intended Act, with or without modification, all or some of the powers conferred upon the Commissioners by the Blyth Harbour Act, 1882, or any Act or Order amending the same or relating to the Harbour or the Commissioners, and to make new or alter existing provisions with respect to the qualification, appointment, election, rights and duties of the Commissioners or electors, the scale and mode of voting, the filling up of vacancies, the hearing and determining of claims and objections, the appointment of revisors and any other matters relating to the constitution or the reconstitution under the intended Act of the Commission or incidental or ancillary thereto, or to the purposes and objects of the intended Act or any of them.

4. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would, or might, in any manner impede or interfere with all or any of the objects of the intended Act and to confer other rights and privileges.

5. To incorporate with the intended Act some or all of the provisions of the following Acts, or some of them (that is to say): the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, and the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and any Act or Acts or Order amending those Acts or any of them.

6. To repeal, alter or amend so far as may be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the intended Act all or some of the provisions of the Blyth Harbour Act, 1882, or any other Act or Order relating to or affecting the Blyth Harbour Commissioners and their undertaking.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 16th day of December next printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1911.
