To the Guardians of the Poor of the several Poor Law Unions for the time being in England and Wales;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by various Orders, both general and special, issued from time to time by the Poor Law Commissioners, the Poor Law Board, and the Local Government Board, provision has been made for the prohibition or regulation of outdoor relief within the Poor Law Unions to which the said several Orders were for the time being applicable, and the said Orders include the Paupers' Conveyance (Expenses) Order, 1898, the Relief (School Children) Order, 1905, and certain Orders relating to the boarding-out of pauper children;

And whereas it is expedient that such further provision as is herein-after contained, with respect to the regulation of the relief given by the Guardians, be made:

NOW THEREFORE, We, the Local Government Board, do hereby rescind all the said Orders except the Paupers' Conveyance (Expenses) Order, 1898, the Relief (School Children) Order, 1905, and the said Orders relating to boarding-out as from the date of the operation of this Order, and do further Order as follows; that is to say,—

(3) The Board may, in any case in which the circumstances of a Poor Law Union render it desirable that arrangements other than those prescribed in this Article be made in regard to the method of keeping the case-papers hereby required, sanction in respect of that Union such a departure from the Regulations contained in this Article as may seem to them expedient.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to require the use of a case-paper in the case of any person so long as he is receiving relief as a casual pauper.

Provided that nothing in this Article shall apply to any shelter or temporary lodging procured in any case of sudden and urgent necessity, or shall be taken to prevent the Guardians, in regulating the amount of relief to be afforded to any person, from considering the expense that will during the period for which relief is given be incurred by him in providing lodging.

ARTICLE VIII.—It shall not be lawful for the Guardians or any of their officers—

(a) To establish any applicant for relief in trade or business, or

(b) To redeem from pawn for any applicant for relief any tools, implements, or other articles, or

ARTICLE IX.—(1) The Guardians may, after not less than three clear days' notice of the proposal has been sent by the Clerk to each Guardian and to the Board, pass a Resolution to the effect that it is expedient, on account of exceptional circumstances, to exercise for a period not exceeding three months specified in the Resolution the powers referred to in Article X, or in Article XI, or in both those Articles, as the case may be. A copy of the Resolution, and a full statement of the exceptional circumstances existing in the case, shall be forwarded to the Board, and the powers referred to in the Resolution shall thereupon, subject to the provisions of subdivision (4) of this Article, be exerciseable by the Guardians during the period so specified.

(3) The Guardians may, with the approval of the Board, resolve that the period specified in a Resolution shall be extended for a further period not exceeding three months, and thereupon the period specified in the Resolution shall be deemed to be extended accordingly.

(4) The Board may at any time direct that the powers referred to in Article X, or in

(2) A person to whom relief is afforded in a workhouse while his wife and family are receiving relief other than institutional relief shall not be absent from the workhouse on any occasion without the consent of the Guardians given for that occasion:

Provided that the Guardians may delegate to the Master of the Workhouse the power of giving such a consent on their behalf in accordance with regulations approved by the Guardians.

(iv) An order for the grant of relief under this Article shall not be made for a period exceeding two weeks.

(2) The Guardians shall submit to the Board with the Resolution a statement showing the place or places at which persons relieved under this Article are to be set to work, the nature of the work in which those persons or any of them are to be employed, the times and mode of work, the scale of relief, and all such other matters relating to their employment as the Guardians deem material to be communicated to the Board, or as the Board may require.

The Guardians shall inform the Board of any change which they may propose to make with regard to any of the matters mentioned in the said statement, and shall afford to the Board any further information with regard to those matters which the Board may at any time during the period specified in the Resolution require.

ARTICLE XII.—If the Guardians shall, upon consideration of the special circumstances of any particular case, deem it expedient to depart from any of the Regulations hereinbefore contained (other than the Regulations contained in Articles VII and VIII), and within twenty-one days after the departure report the same and the grounds thereof to the Board, then if—

(a) the relief given shall have been relief in kind afforded in a particular instance of emergency, or

(b) the relief shall not have been given after notice from the Board disapproving thereof, or
